Fred –

I got your voicemail and wanted to send you a separate note to thank you. I can't tell you how sorry I am that I missed your presentation. Every single person I have spoken to from the managing partner down to the brand new attorneys has raved about your presentation and about you. I knew it would be well received. We are already discussing having you back for round 2!

I would love to work with you on some broader presentations/articles as well. I hope we can get together soon.

Thanks again.

Very truly yours,

David E. Barker
