Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by Turning Point in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Turning Point's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

combined with employment and housing services to promote recovery, emergency rooms and crisis services along with employment. People move beyond their diagnosis, recover, and contribute to the community. TPCP serves over 6,000 clients with psychiatric disabilities in seven Northern California counties: Sacramento, Stanislaus, Yolo, Nevada, Placer, Butte, and Merced. Clients with mental illness served include the homeless, adults, families including children and young adults/transition aged youth.(TAY)

In addition to the TBS services mentioned previously, CBS services include working with youth experiencing emotional and behavioral difficulties. Therapist/treatment team members partner with youth and their families in addressing their stated needs utilizing a family-focused, strength-based approach. CBS provides services in the home, school and community at times that meet youth and family needs. CBS is able to adjust clinical supports depending on the level of need the youth has at any given time. The program provides individual, family, and group therapy, skills training, advocacy, case management, and psychiatric supports.

Within the 15/16 fiscal year, CBS clients had a satisfaction rate of 76.9% for youth while caregivers rated services at 81.4%. Youth who received TBS services had a satisfaction rate of 88.0% while caregivers had a satisfaction rate of 81.4%.

Turning point community programs operates 2 Full Service Partnership (FSP) and Integrated Services Agencies (ISA); one in Sacramento County and one in Stanislaus County. ISA services generally include the provision of psychosocial rehabilitation and recovery services for adults with psychiatric disabilities and extended histories of long-term hospitalization. The goal is to help individuals "take charge of their lives" through informed decision-making along with psychiatric, rehabilitative and psychosocial support. Services are based on the individual's long-term goals and desired results. The ISA located in Modesto is especially unique in that staff work with a higher population of individuals within locked facilities and function as conservators while working closely with the public guardian's office.

Combined, the 2 ISA's served a total of 357 individuals within the 15/16 fiscal year. In that reporting period, of the 357 individuals served, 69.2% did not accrue psychiatric hospital days, 92.7% did not accrue incarceration days, 94.1% did not accrue homeless days, and 64.7% did not accrue emergency interventions. On average, the two programs received an overall satisfaction rate of 81.2%.

TPCP also currently operates 3 Crisis Residential Programs (CRP) in the Sacramento area, one of which is funded and used solely by the university of California, Davis Medical Center. Crisis residential program (CRP) services are intended to provide a short-term alternative to inpatient psychiatric services for persons experiencing an acute psychiatric crisis. Services may only be used to avert a psychiatric admission, or to shorten the length of an inpatient stay. CRP services are designed for persons who meet psychiatric inpatient admission criteria or are at risk of admission, but who can be appropriately served in community settings. Services are provided in a supportive environment that models and encourages hope, empowerment, personal accountability, and the development of meaningful life roles. In order to adapt to the evolving cultures of persons served, the environment is permeable to outside factors and individual needs. Individuals are referred directly from the mental health treatment center, Sacramento county mental health plan providers, emergency departments, the Crestwood psychiatric health facilities, and private psychiatric hospitals.

Additionally, 55.2% of clients were discharged do to having successfully met their goals. Lastly, this CRP received an overall satisfaction rate of 86.1%. The UC Davis CRP (bender court) had an overall satisfaction rating of 89.2%.

TPCP also provides unique services through its 3 Transitional Support Services (TSS) programs located within Sacramento, Solano, and butte county. TSS programs provide community support services to adults challenged with co-occurring psychiatric disorders and developmental disabilities. The type and intensity of services provided will be based on the minimum level of intervention necessary to maintain the health/safety of the individual and to support progress toward their identified goals. TSS is designed to minimize dependency and to effect the most rapid "normalization" and community integration possible. The central aspect of the TSS program is member choice. Before an individual is offered TSS membership, they will be helped to understand the TSS philosophy. TSS will honor each person's expressed goals.

Within the 15/16 fiscal year a total of 237 individuals were served through the TSS programs located in Sacramento and Butte county. For these two programs, 90.3% did not accrue any psychiatric hospital days, 91.1% did not accrue any homeless days, 96.2% did not accrue any
