

The College Station Noon Lions Club's "I Love America" Fourth of July Celebration takes place on Thursday, July 4. The museum will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. with free admission for everyone all day. Concessions start at 5:30 p.m. and include roasted corn, Slovacek's sausage on a stick, beverages by Coca Cola, and FREE watermelon while supplies last. Live entertainment and the Kids Zone open at 6 p.m. The evening will culminate with a spectacular fireworks display at 9:30 p.m. and concert by the Brazos Valley Symphony Orchestra. Come early and bring lawn chairs, picnic baskets and blankets. Please, no pets or glass containers. For details visit www.bush41.org.

Our 2018 Movies by the Pond Summer Film Series will include the following: "Spy Kids" on May 17, "WALL-E" on June 21, "Zootopia" on August 16, and "The Lego Movie" on September 7. Bring your blankets and lawn chairs as we enjoy five fun films under the stars. Free refreshments and games will begin at 7 p.m., and the movies will start just after sundown. The movie themes coincide with our newest exhibit called, "Wit and Humour: American Political Cartoons" opening July 15, 2019.

Grand Canyon Photographs: Celebrating the Centennial is an exhibit featuring photographs taken at Grand Canyon National Park (and surrounding areas) by American photographer Mark Burns that is now on display. The project was conceived by Burns to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the establishment of Grand Canyon National Park in 1919. The exhibit will be on exhibit through June 9, 2019.

Featuring original artworks and artifacts, including collections from the Library of Congress, Wit and Humor: American Political Cartoons will show how cartoons have changed since the early days of the Republic. This exhibit will highlight important cartoons from artists regarded as giants in their field, like Thomas Nast and Patrick Oliphant and will be on display in the Ansary Gallery of American History from July 15, 2019 to January 5, 2020.

Celebrate Juneteenth on Wednesday, June 19 from 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the Annenberg Presidential Conference Center. Freedom's Legacy Historical Storytelling Program is presented by award-winning Storyteller Oba William King. Everyone is invited to join the Freedom Walk at 9 a.m. from Lincoln Recreation Center to the George Bush Presidential Center where you may enjoy the storytelling program. For more information email education.bush@nara.gov or call 979.691.4006.
