IMPORTANT NOTICE: Please be aware that if you are a licensed US physician, the meal associated with this program is reportable under the Federal Open Payments program. Also, certain employers (including the federal government, such as the VA and DOD) and some states (such as Minnesota and Vermont) restrict the ability of licensed healthcare professionals to accept, or pharmaceutical companies to provide, food or refreshments. If you are an employee that is governed by such restrictions, we kindly request that you refrain from participating in the meal portion of the event or pay for your own meal. By accepting any food or refreshments, you represent that neither your employer nor the state(s) in which you are licensed or authorized to provide healthcare services preclude you from accepting these items.
