

Here is an example of a check box and radio button layout as it works today.

Red elements are designed in InDesign and exported as PDF.

check box label text

radio button label text

And here is how I would like the click zone to expand – right or left aligned.

The pi font itself would be placed over the red box respectively the red radio button.

