LAUREN BOUDREAUX

Bayou River Chapter
Magnificat Meal
Thursday, November 13, 2025
6:00 pm – 9:00 pm
Doors Open at 5:15 pm

Lauren Rau Boudreaux graduated from H.L. Bourgeois High School and then University of Louisiana-Monroe with a Bachelors in Healthcare Management. She married her husband Brian, who is the Assistant Chief of Bayou Cane Fire Department, in 2013 and is the mother of Lyla and Bennett. She is a homeschool mom who has served as the Director of the Houma Chapter of Catholic Schoolhouse since 2020, and she became the K-8 Formation and Children’s Ministry Coordinator at St. Bernadette earlier this year.

While Lauren was baptized as an infant, her faith journey really began in the 3rd grade when she asked to begin attending catechism classes admittedly just to be with her friends from school. She took classes at St. Bernadette through confirmation, then fell away from the faith entirely when she moved away for college. She lived many years as a lost sheep until she encountered God’s unconditional love and mercy in a personal way as an adult. Lauren now strives to live her life for the Lord, always seeking to be a joyfully obedient vessel for Him.
