CHILDREN'S PROGRAM

Georgia Farm Bureau provides a Children's Program during Young Farmers & Ranchers Summer Leadership Conference as a convenience to conference attendees. While parents participate in educational sessions and leadership development, the children participate in age-appropriate activities led by a fantastic group of volunteers with the oversight of our Educational Programs Coordinator.

THREE AGE GROUPS
BABY FARMERS 24 months and younger	TODDLER FARMERS K3, K4, K5	LITTLE FARMERS 1 st through 4 th Grade

PROGRAM RULES

- (1) Parents must be at the Convention Center while their children participate in the children's program.
- (2) Meals are not included in the children's program. Please give your child an opportunity to eat prior to drop-off.
- (3) Advise us of any allergies or specific needs of your child upon drop-off.
- (4) Label all diaper bags, backpacks, bottles/drink cups, pacifiers, etc.
- (5) Parents should drop-off and pick-up children only during the designated times. This creates the best atmosphere for your children.
