EVENT DETAILS

The Orangevale Summer Palooza is a vibrant three-day community celebration that has become a hallmark event, drawing in more than 8,500 participants. It's a festival that truly has something for everyone, featuring a full carnival, and live music on the main stage.

A diverse array of vendors and an array of food options cater to all tastes. Each year, the event expands its attractions, now including a Cornhole Tournament, a Power Wheel Derby, and free Kids Zone, ensuring fun for all ages. The Palooza also offers a broad spectrum of sponsorship opportunities, allowing businesses to align with the Orangevale community and its neighbors.

These sponsorships are not just a means of business promotion; they support crucial community programs, including local schools, youth sports, and nonprofit organizations. Customized sponsorship packages are designed to meet the specific branding and marketing objectives of each company, with flexible options to suit different budgets, including in-kind sponsorships. This synergy of community engagement and business partnership makes the Summer Palooza an event that not only entertains but also strengthens the community socially and economically.
