

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 2018
440 SOUTH SHADY GROVE ROAD, MEMPHIS

Shotguns and Sunflowers is a unique event to raise vital funds and awareness for Palmer Home for Children. Building on the momentum of what started as a small dinner party, is now a premiere event in Memphis hosting over 350 elite guests at the “Garden and Gun” themed dinner party to celebrate Southern cultures, culinary creations, live music and libations.

Please join us on Thursday, September 6th for the Southern chic soirée in your favorite “Delta Casual” attire. Additionally, sponsors will have the opportunity to enjoy a premier dove hunt and brunch held on Saturday September 8th on the private property of Glenn and Kirby Floyd.

Dear Friends,

As many of you already know, we are very passionate about Palmer Home for Children, which is located adjacent to our property in Hernando. Palmer Home essentially provides safe homes and foster care homes serving “today’s social orphans” from Memphis and beyond. I started as a relief houseparent at one of their campuses in my 20’s and fell in love with the organization that raises and nurtures kids who, through no fault of their own, are alone and are often from dangerous, abusive or neglectful homes.

Palmer Home has been in operation since 1895 and has locations in the Mid-South, Columbus, MS, and Nashville, TN. Simply said, Palmer Home gives children a safe place to call home and offers a loving alternative to the state’s foster care system. The kids, ranging in age from babies to college age, grow up in cottages with a set of caregivers who choose to do this out of a sense of mission to love and care for as if they were their own kids. One powerful thing that Palmer Home does is keep sibling groups together so they can grow up surrounded by family.

The Mid-South Campus and Foster Program has the greatest need and opportunity for growth. The future of Palmer Home is with us in the Mid-South, however, Palmer Home cannot change children's lives alone. We need YOUR help to sponsor and support Palmer Home’s Shotguns and Sunflowers. Shotguns and Sunflowers is a “Garden and Gun” themed Dinner Party held in Memphis with over 350 elite guests expected on Thursday, September 6th followed by an exclusive and optional, sponsor-only Dove Hunt and Brunch on Saturday, September 8th. Both events are exceptional in their own way while providing valuable networking and cause marketing benefits with the added priceless impact for the brave kids at Palmer Home.

We kindly ask you to review and determine if you or your company will support Palmer Home for Children through sponsorship of this unique event. Don’t miss the chance to take advantage of these fun opportunities to build relationships, strengthen your brand and most importantly, forever be in the hearts of local kids whose lives you will change! They need our help, and we need yours.

Fondly,

Kirby and Glenn Floyd

Where Hope Still Grows

- Established in 1895, Palmer Home for Children provides superior residential care and foster care for children, serving both individual children and sibling groups. Palmer Home provides a family unit and community to children in need, regardless of race, gender or background.
- In 2017, Palmer Home for Children served 163 children across nine cottages on two campuses, while placing 34 children in loving foster families. In 2018, we will have 6 cottages at our Mid-South campus and 6 cottages at our Columbus campus, for a total of 12, allowing Palmer Home to say “yes” to more vulnerable and neglected children. By expanding the number of case workers, cottages and caregivers on the Mid-South Campus, the ministry is poised to more than double the number of children in residential care over the next decade.

Palmer Home for Children Restorative Programs

- Whole Child Initiative is the comprehensive approach to not only rescue children, but to also restore them through an approach to care that addresses the multi-dimensional aspects of a child’s life: Physical, Emotional, Educational, and Spiritual.
- Palmer School: Palmer Home founded the Palmer School on the Columbus, MS campus as a means of educating students who often arrive with significant academic deficits. From six students in the first year, the school now serves over 40 children with four certified full-time teachers who are passionate about giving students their best chance for success. We are excited to expand this program to the growing Mid-South Campus soon at the Dr. Hugh Francis Wellness Center.
- Hope Reins: Residents of Palmer Home for Children have access to a variety of programs designed to enrich their lives and promote healing and restoration. Hope Reins is an equestrian program that encompasses much more than just horseback riding. Building relationships with horses, who have a sixth sense for an individual’s emotions and even disabilities, helps children overcome fears, build self-esteem, stimulate intellectual function, and inspire confidence.
- Hope Grows allows students to work with our dedicated staff members to plant, nurture, harvest, cook and eat their own crops, grown through their new Agricultural Literacy program. The program builds science, technology, engineering, and math skills and nurtures a sense of teamwork and accomplishment in students who participate.
- Palmer Home’s TrebleMakers Choir offers children the opportunity to participate in a children’s choir that gives back to the community through sharing their music at churches, civic, and community events. Children not only benefit from learning about music, but are given a unique way to reinforce the ways God is working in their lives through worshipping Him and sharing their testimonies with others in song.
