PART ONE—HISTORICAL

Introduction

Section 1, ¶1—In the midst of the prevailing drift of modern Christianity from Bible standards of doctrine and practice, there have been numerous organizations providentially raised up in various parts of the world for the conservation and propagation of true holiness.

¶2—Numbers of these organizations have from time to time found common ground of union and have combined under various denominational names. One of these united bodies is the Pilgrim Holiness Church.

¶3—The following is a brief account of the origin of the several organizations now united under the above name.

CHAPTER 1

Historical Statement

Section 2, ¶1—The history of the Pilgrim Holiness Church is, in a great measure, the combined histories of six bodies of people who have been drawn together in the unity of the Spirit because of a similarity of views, not alone as to the doctrine of entire sanctification, as a second definite work of grace, but also regarding the blessed hope of the premillennial return of Jesus, the evangelization of the world, and the privilege of healing for the body in answer to the prayer of faith.

MANUAL OF P. H. C.

\[\text{¶2—In 1897 the Apostolic Holiness Union was organized in the home of Rev. Martin Wells Knapp, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Rev. Seth C. Rees was the first General Superintendent, Rev. M. W. Knapp was the Associate Superintendent.}\

\[\text{¶3—Brother Knapp had already founded a Bible School, a paper called The Revivalist, and a publishing plant in Cincinnati.}\

\[\text{¶4—Extensive revival work was carried on by the Union, resulting in the formation of many missions, churches, rescue homes, and camp meetings, as well as the sending out of missionaries to foreign lands. Bible Schools were established and papers published at Greensboro, N. C., Owosso, Mich., and other places.}\

\[\text{¶5—As the work developed it became evident that there was need of a more permanent form of organization than the interdenominational union provided. This was effected in 1905, and the name was changed to International Apostolic Holiness Union and Churches.}\

\[\text{¶6—Gradually the interdenominational features of the organization ceased, and in 1913 the name was altered to International Apostolic Holiness Church. The Apostolic Messenger, published at Greensboro, became the official paper of the church.}\

\[\text{¶8—In November, 1919, at the General Assembly}\

held in Cincinnati, Ohio, there united with the International Apostolic Holiness Church a group of holiness people which, for some years, had been known as the Holiness Christian Church.

§9—This latter named body had had its beginnings in Philadelphia, Pa., as a result of a special work of grace in the year 1882. This body, soon known as the Holiness Christian Association, held its first Conference in connection with the camp meeting at Linwood, Pa., in 1889. At the Conference of 1894, Rev. C. W. Ruth was elected Presiding Elder. After the formation of the Indiana Annual Conference the General Conference of this body, which met in Reading, Pa., adopted the name Holiness Christian Church. At the time it joined forces with the International Apostolic Holiness Church it was composed of four Annual Conferences, with missionary work established in Central America.

§10—The name of the united bodies became the International Holiness Church. Rev. George B. Kulp, Superintendent of the International Apostolic Holiness Church, became Superintendent of these merged organizations.

§11—In 1921 Brother Kulp resigned as Superintendent. Rev. C. C. Brown, one of the Assistant Superintendents, filled out the unexpired term until the General Assembly of 1922, at which time Rev. Winfred R. Cox was elected General Superintendent of the Church in the United States and Rev. Ralph G. Finch, General Superintendent of Foreign Missions.
12—In the year 1922 two bodies, the Pentecostal Rescue Mission and the Pilgrim Church, were consolidated with the International Holiness Church.

13—The Pentecostal Rescue Mission had been founded in 1897 in the city of Binghamton, N. Y. The work of the Mission had spread until it not only carried on missions and rescue work, but also engaged in camp meeting and orphanage activities as well as a missionary enterprise in Alaska.

14—The Pentecostal Rescue Mission became the New York District of the International Holiness Church.

15—The Pilgrim Church, at first known as the Pentecost-Pilgrim Church, was organized May 27, 1917, in Pasadena, California. It came into being as a result of a revival which broke out in Pasadena in the years 1915-1916 under the ministry of Rev. Seth C. Rees.

16—The word “Pentecost” was later discontinued because of its misleading association in the public mind with the modern “Tongues” movement, and the name Pilgrim Church adopted.

17—Other churches sprang up in California, Kansas, and Texas which became associated together under the above name. A school known as the Pilgrim Bible College was established in Pasadena, a paper published, and a flourishing missionary work carried on in Mexico, also missionaries were supported in other foreign lands.

18—When the Pilgrim Church united with the International Holiness Church, at Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1922, the word “International” in the name of the former was dropped and the name Pilgrim Holiness Church was chosen.

§19—In 1924, at the Annual Assembly of the Ohio District of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, a small but loyal band of holiness people, known as the Pentecostal Brethren in Christ, united with and became a part of the Ohio District.

§20—The Pilgrim Holiness Church was augmented in 1925 by the People’s Mission Church joining its ranks.

§21—The People’s Mission Church had been founded by Rev. Wm. H. Lee at Colorado Springs, Colo., in 1899, following a special outpouring of the Spirit in that city. Brother Lee was the leader of this work until his death in 1919 when Rev. P. W. Thomas was made Superintendent of the organization. A number of Mission Churches had been established in various parts of Colorado and elsewhere, as well as a Bible Training School, a periodical, and a camp meeting at Colorado Springs.

§23—Reversion to the policy of one General Superintendent for the entire Church was decided upon by the General Assembly in 1930. Rev. Seth C. Rees was elected to this office. At the same time a correlated board, known as the General Board, was elected bringing together the directors of the various departments of the entire Church at home and abroad.

§25—The General Assembly of 1934 created the office of General Secretary of Foreign Missions.

§26—The office of Secretary of Home Missions was created in the General Assembly of 1938.
PART TWO—DOCTRINAL

CHAPTER 1

Object

Section 3—The Pilgrim Holiness Church is composed of groups of individuals who believe in liberty of conscience regarding all matters that are not sinful, and that the preaching of a full Gospel is essential to Bible holiness and the evangelization of the world, as exemplified by the Apostles and the primitive Church. Our object is:

First. To glorify God, our Father, exalt Jesus Christ, our Savior, and to honor the Holy Spirit.

Second. To carry out the Great Commission of our Heaven-ascended Head by publishing the Full Gospel to every nation.

Third. To conserve the holiness work by forming churches and aiding in placing over them Spirit-baptized pastors, who will feed the flock of God and in every way possible help to get souls ready for the coming of our Lord. While our great and primary object is, and must ever be, the conversion of sinners and the sanctification of believers, we shall aim to place proper emphasis on divine healing and all the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit, the premillennial coming of Christ, the evangelization of the world, and kindred neglected themes.
CHAPTER 2
General Statement of Belief

ARTICLE 1
God

Section 4—There is but one living and true God (1), everlasting (2), without body or parts (3), of infinite power, wisdom and goodness (4), the maker and preserver of all things visible and invisible (5), and in unity with this Godhead there are three persons of one substance, power and eternity—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost (6).

(1) Deut. 4:35; 1 Cor. 8:4; 2 Sam. 7:22; 1 Kings 8:23, 60; Isa. 43:10, 11; Mark 12:32; John 17:3; Eph. 4:6; 1 Tim. 2:5.
(2) Gen. 21:33; Rom. 16:26.
(4) Gen. 17:1; Matt. 19:26; Psa. 147:5; 34:8.
(5) Psa. 19:1; John 1:3; Col. 1:16.
(6) 1 John 5:7; 1 Tim. 1:17; 3:16; Matt. 28:19.

ARTICLE 2
Jesus Christ

Section 5—The Son who is the Word of the Father (1), the very and eternal God, of one substance with the Father, who took man's nature (2), in the womb of the Virgin, so that two whole and perfect natures, that is to say the Godhead and manhood, were joined together in one person, never to be divided, whereof is one Christ, very God and very man, who truly suffered, was crucified, dead and buried (3), to reconcile His Father to us, and to be a sacrifice, not only for original guilt, but also for the actual sins of man (4). Christ did truly rise again from the dead and took again His body (5), with all things pertaining to the perfection of man's nature (6), wherewith He ascended into Heaven (7).

(1) John 1:1-3.
(3) 1 Cor. 15:3-6.
(4) Heb. 13:12; 2:9; 2 Cor. 5:18.
(6) Eph. 4:11-13; 1 John 3:2, 3.
(7) Acts 1:9; Eph. 1:20; 4:8; 1 Tim. 3:16.

ARTICLE 3

The Holy Ghost

Section 6—The Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son (1), is of one substance, majesty and glory with the Father and the Son, very and eternal God (2).

(2) 1 John 5:7; Acts 5:3, 4.

ARTICLE 4

The Sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures for Salvation

Section 7—The Holy Scriptures contain all things necessary to salvation (1), so that whatsoever is not read therein nor may be proved thereby is not to be required of any man that it should be believed as an article of faith, or to be thought requisite or necessary for salvation (2). In the name of the Holy Scriptures we do understand the canonical books of the Old and New Testaments, commonly received and known as the Bible.
(1) John 15:3; 20:31; 2 Tim. 3:15-17.
(2) Eph. 5:6; 1 Tim. 6:3, 4.

ARTICLE 5

Original or Birth Sin
Section 8—Original sin standeth not in the following of Adam, but it is the corruption of the nature of every man that naturally is engendered of the offspring of Adam, whereby man is very far gone from original righteousness, and of his own nature inclined to evil, and that continually.
Rom. 5:12, 14-21; 8:6-8.

ARTICLE 6

The Atonement
Section 9—The Scriptures teach that Jesus Christ, by His sufferings (1), by the shedding of His own blood (2), and by His meritorious death on the cross (3), made full atonement (4) for all human sin, and that this atonement is the only ground of salvation (5), and that it is sufficient for every individual of Adam's race (6). The atonement is graciously efficacious to the salvation of the irresponsible from birth, or the righteous who have become irresponsible, and to children in innocency, but is efficacious to the salvation of those who reach the age of responsibility only when they repent and believe (7).
(2) Rom. 5:8-10; 1 John 1:7.
(3) Eph. 2:13, 16.
(4) Rom. 5:11.
ARTICLE 7
Free Will

Section 10—The condition of man, since the fall of Adam, is such that he cannot turn and prepare himself by his own natural strength and works to faith and calling upon God (1), wherefore we have no power to do good works (2), pleasant and acceptable to God (3), without the grace of God, by Christ, assisting us (4), that we may have a good will and work within us when we have that good will (5).

(2) Isa. 64:6; Heb. 9:11, 12, 15.
(3) Titus 3:5.
(4) 1 Tim. 2:5; John 15:5.
(5) Phil. 2:12, 13.

ARTICLE 8
Justification

Section 11—We are accounted righteous before God only by the merit of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ (1), by faith (2), and not for our own works or deservings (3), wherefore that we are justified by faith only is a most wholesome doctrine and very full of comfort (4).

(1) Rom. 3:24-26; 4:25.
(2) Gen. 15:6; Rom. 3:28; 4:5; 5:1.
ARTICLE 9
Sanctification
Section 12—Entire sanctification is the baptism with the Holy Spirit (1), it is subsequent to regeneration (2), it is for all believers (3), it is an instantaneous experience, received by faith (4), cleansing the heart of the recipient from all sin (5), setting him apart and endowing him with power for the successful accomplishment of all to which he is called (6).

(2) John 17:9-17.
(3) John 17:20; 1 Thess 4:3, 7; 5:23, 24.
(5) 1 John 1:7, 9; Acts 15:8, 9.

ARTICLE 10
Sin After Justification
Section 13—Not every sin willfully committed after justification is the sin against the Holy Spirit and unpardonable (1); wherefore the grant of repentance is not to be denied to such as fall into sin after justification. After we have received the Holy Ghost we may depart from grace given and fall into sin, and by the grace of God rise again and amend our lives; and therefore they are to be condemned who say they can no more sin as long as they live here, or deny the place of forgiveness to such as truly repent (2).
(1) Matt. 12:31, 32.
(2) Mal. 3:7; Matt. 18:21, 22; 1 John 1:9; 2:1.

ARTICLE 11

Eternal Security

Section 14—The Doctrine of “Eternal Security,” or “Once in Grace Always in Grace,” or “Absolute Final Perseverance of the Saints,” is not in harmony with the teachings of the Scriptures. The Scriptures plainly teach that any one, after having received the grace of God in his recovery from sin, including regeneration and sanctification, may fall from the same and finally be lost.

The doctrine of Eternal Security assumes an absolute divine sovereignty and excludes all the conditional relationships involved in man’s recovery from sin.

The scriptural references, as alleged proofs favoring this doctrine, may be shown to rest upon an assumption, in each case, that the Word of God will not bear out.

Among the many Scripture texts we list the following which give ample proof of the possibility of final apostasy.

2. They that had faith to sanctification may perish eternally. I Tim. 1:18, 19; 2 Tim. 4:14.
3. Those grafted into the true vine may be broken off never to be grafted in again. Rom. 11:17, 20-22. Likewise the branches of the true vine may be purged away unto everlasting death. John 15:1-6.
4. Those who have escaped the pollutions of this world through Christ may fall back and perish. 2 Pet. 2:20, 21.
5. Those made partakers of the Holy Ghost may turn away and be finally lost. Heb. 10:38.
6. Those who live by faith may turn from that faith and finally be lost. Heb. 10:38.
7. Those who are sanctified may fall from that grace and perish everlastingly. Heb. 10:26-29.

ARTICLE 12

The Church

Section 15—The Ecclesia, the Church, is composed of the called-out people who have separated themselves from the world and have a living faith in Christ as their personal Savior (1). Her mission is the proclamation of the Full Gospel (2): salvation from all sin (3), divine healing (4), and the pre-millennial coming of Jesus Christ (5). Her field is the world (6).

(1) 2 Cor. 6:17, 18; Rom. 12:2; James 4:4; 1 John 5:19; Heb. 11:6; Rom. 10:10.
(2) Acts 1:8.
(3) Heb. 7:25.
(6) Mark 16:15.

ARTICLE 13

Speaking in the Congregation in Such a Tongue as the People Understand

Section 16, §1—It is a thing plainly repugnant to the Word of God and the custom of the primitive Church to have public prayer therein or to administer the Sacraments in a tongue not understood by the people (1).

¶2—In sanctification, which is synonymous to and simultaneous with the Baptism with the Holy Ghost and Fire (2), we hold that any teaching which gives to it any other distinction as to its time, or that holds any particular manifestation, as by the Gift of Tongues, so-called, as proof of this Baptism, is opposed to the explicit Word of God (3), and shall not be tolerated among our people.

(1) 1 Cor. 14: 1-40.
(2) Acts 15: 8, 9; 1 Pet. 1:22.
(3) 1 Cor. 14: 1-40; Rom. 8:9; 1 Cor. 1:30.

ARTICLE 14

The Sacraments

Section 17—Sacraments ordained of Christ are not only badges or tokens of Christian men's profession, but rather they are certain signs of grace and God's good will toward us, by the which He doth work invisibly in us, and doth not only quicken, but also strengthen and confirm our faith in Him. The Sacraments were not ordained of Christ to be gazed upon, or to be carried about, but that we should duly use them, and in such only as worthily receive the same they have a wholesome effect or operation; but they that receive them unworthily purchase unto themselves condemnation, as St. Paul saith (1 Cor. 11:29).

Section 18—Baptism. This is an outward sign of an inward work wrought by the Holy Ghost in the soul.
As to the mode, let every one be fully persuaded in his own mind, and no preacher or layman shall insist on any certain mode. The baptism of children shall be retained in the Church.

(Matt. 28:19; Acts 2:38; Col. 2:12; Acts 8:36-38; 16:33; 1 Pet. 3:21.)

Section 19—The Lord’s Supper. This is an ordinance whereby the body and blood of Christ are given, taken and eaten only after a heavenly and spiritual manner and their benefits only accrue to those who, with a clear conscience, partake in faith of the material elements, wine and bread. This Sacrament represents our redemption through Christ’s blood and our spiritual nourishment through His body (1 Cor. 11:24-29).

ARTICLE 15

Healing

Section 20—We believe and embrace the Scriptural doctrine of healing for the body, and that it is the privilege of every child of God to be healed in answer to the prayer of faith, according to James 5:14, 15; yet we are not to sever our fellowship from or pass judgment upon those who use other providential means for the restoration of health.

Jas. 5:16; Acts 4:10; Matt. 10:8; Luke 9:2; 10:9; 1 Cor. 12:9, 28; Acts 4:14; John 9:1-34.

ARTICLE 16

The Return of Jesus

Section 21—We believe that the coming of our Lord is to be personal and premillennial, also that it is imminent (1). We must distinguish between the Rapture—His coming in the air to receive His saints, which may occur at any moment, and the Revelation—His coming down to earth with His saints (2), which latter will not occur until after the gathering of Israel (3), the manifestation of Anti-Christ, and other prophesied events (4).

ARTICLE 17

Resurrection and Judgment

Section 22, ¶1—According to the Scriptures, Christ did truly rise again from the dead (1), and took again His body (2), wherewith He ascended into Heaven where He intercedes for His blood-washed until He returns again to judge His saints for reward and take His kingdom (3).

¶2—The Scriptures also teach that there is a resurrection of the dead, both to the just and unjust (4), and God hath appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness by Jesus Christ whom He hath ordained (5).

¶3—Furthermore, the Word of God indicates that the just shall be raised in their glorified bodies at Christ's second coming (6), to receive their rewards and to reign with Christ on the earth a thousand years (7), and to be forever in the presence of the Lord; the unjust are to be raised, at the end of the Millennium (8), to be judged and go into everlasting punishment (9), banished from the presence of God.

¶4—Finally, because of the teaching of the Bible, we do not believe in doing penance for sin (10), nor in a purgatory for cleansing from sin (11), nor in a chance after death, but in a punitive judgment for the resurrected unjust (12).

ARTICLE 18

Destiny

Section 23, ¶1—Heaven. Everyone who has a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ our Lord, on departing from this life, goes to be in felicity with Him, and will share the eternal glories of His everlasting kingdom, the fuller rewards and the greater glories being reserved until the final judgment. (Phil. 1:23, 24; 2 Cor. 5:6, 8, 10; John 14:2, 3; Matt. 25:34, 46).

¶2—Hell. While the saint goes from the judgment to enjoy eternal bliss, the impenitent sinner is turned away into everlasting condemnation, punishment, and misery. As Heaven is described in the Bible as a place of everlasting happiness, so Hell is described as a place of endless torment, where “the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched.” (Matt. 25:41, 46; Luke 13:3; John 8:21, 23; Mark 9:44-48.)
PART THREE—GOVERNMENT

Introduction

Section 24, ¶1—In all God’s creation we see the most perfect organization. "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard."—Psa. 19:1-3.

When we turn to God’s dealing directly with man we see the same carefulness for system and order. Look at His government of the children of Israel: at Sinai laws are given, commandments delivered, and specifications laid out with the most positive command that all things should be done according to the pattern shown in the Mount. When Christ began His work He chose and trained His twelve apostles and gave them the commandments concerning the kingdom, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."—Matt. 28:19, 20.

¶2—The apostles went forth preaching everywhere and people were converted and sanctified. They organized the saved into congregations which they called churches, and caused officers to be chosen to look after their spiritual and temporal interests.

§3—The fact that some men have lorded it over God's heritage, and that certain forms of government are a heavy yoke upon many, is not a good nor sufficient reason for rejecting or ignoring a simple, Scriptural form of Church government.

§4—Let us humbly follow Christ, our great Leader and Law-giver, and take His Word for our rule of faith and practice. Amen.

(1 Cor. 3:9-11; 2 Cor. 13:10; Matt. 18:15-17; 2 Thess. 3:6; Acts 13:1-3.)

CHAPTER 1

Local Churches

Method of Organization

Section 25, §1—Wherever there are at least seven persons who will collectively and individually pledge themselves to take the Word of God as the only and sufficient rule, both of their faith and practice, and to follow the system of doctrines and government laid down in this Manual, they may form a local Pilgrim Holiness Church.

§2—Such individuals shall organize by meeting together and sending a request for the general or district superintendent or another member of the executive or district council of the Pilgrim Holiness Church to act as temporary chairman at a meeting for the purpose of organizing a local Pilgrim Holiness Church.
§3—After consultation with the district superintendent, an ordained minister or a licensed minister, or any other person authorized by the district superintendent, may take charge of such meeting.

Section 26—The organization of such church shall be accomplished as follows:

§1—The Chairman, after the usual preliminaries, and after earnestly seeking the blessing of the Triune God, shall cause to be read, the following:

(1) Our Object (Section 3).

(2) General Statement of Belief (Sections 4-23).

§2—Then shall the Chairman say, "All persons giving satisfactory evidence of regeneration by having forsaken and renounced the world, the flesh, and the devil, and by living consistent Christian lives and who desire to become a part of this Pilgrim Holiness Church shall affirmatively answer the following questions:"

§3—(Here let all the candidates come to the front and each distinctly answer for himself the questions found under "Reception of Members," Section 29, §2-7.) Then shall the Church Covenant be read and entered upon as provided in Sections 30-32.

§4—After this takes place, such members shall elect officers who shall serve for the remainder of the year, or until the time specified (Sections 42, 43).

§5—Steps shall also be taken toward securing the service of a pastor and placing the church upon a sound financial basis (Section 53).
§6—The Sunday School shall be organized according to the rules given in the Manual (Sections 48, 77-81).

Section 27, §1—In order to provide for the organization of a body of people less in number than required for regular church organization the following procedure may be followed:

§2—Where a group of saved people, less in number than required for the organization of a church, are willing to accept the Church covenant and to be governed by the doctrines and Manual of the Pilgrim Holiness Church such persons shall be received into membership the same as in a regularly organized church. An advisory council shall be appointed by the district superintendent and such advisory council shall act as a governing body in the group just as the local church board acts in an organized church. This council shall consist of the pastor or other worker in charge, the Sunday school superintendent and a secretary-treasurer. This council shall regulate its activities according to the Manual.

§3—Such organization as provided for in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 27 shall be continued until sufficient members have been received into the church to effect a regular church organization.

§4—The advisory council referred to here in Section 27 shall be directly amenable to the district superintendent and the final church organization shall be effected when he so directs.
Reception of Members

Section 28—Any person giving satisfactory evidence of regeneration, by having forsaken and renounced the world, the flesh, and the devil, and living a consistent Christian life and desiring to be recognized as a member of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, shall first be accepted by the local church board; then in the presence of the church he may be received into membership provided he affirmatively answers the prescribed questions (Section 29, ¶2-7) and agrees to the articles of the church covenant (Section 30). Where no organization exists, procedure is as outlined in sections 25-27).

Section 29, ¶1—The candidates for membership, after having been passed upon by the local church board, shall at a time appointed appear in the public service of the church and at the call of the pastor, or other officer, present themselves before the pulpit. While they remain standing, the pastor shall read the following questions, pausing for an answer to each one:

¶2—Dearly beloved, since you are to be recognized as a member of this church, it is proper that you should confess your faith and declare your purpose in the presence of God and these witnesses.

¶3—Have you forsaken and renounced the devil and all his works; the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same; the carnal desires of the flesh; and do you refuse to be led by them?
Have you received the witness of God's Spirit to your regeneration?

Do you believe in the doctrine of entire sanctification as a second, definite, instantaneous work of grace, subsequent to regeneration, and that it is the privilege and duty of every believer to seek and find the experience as soon as he receives light concerning it?

Are you willing that all your faith and practice shall be governed by the Word of God and the Holy Ghost?

Will you contribute of your means toward the support of the Lord's cause as you are taught by the Word of God?

The candidates for membership having satisfactorily answered these questions in Section 29, the church covenant shall then be read.

Church Covenant

Section 30, ¶1—Having been led to repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior, we now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into this covenant with one another as one body in Christ.

WE PROMISE, BY THE AID OF THE HOLY GHOST:

To shun the paths of sin and to walk in the ways of righteousness and true holiness all the days of our life.

Not to forsake the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is.
but exhorting one another daily, and so much the more as we see the day approaching.

§4—To strive together for the advancement of His kingdom and for the mutual upbuilding of the saints in holiness, knowledge and comfort; to walk together in Christian love and watchfulness, giving and receiving admonition with meekness and affection; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech.

§5—To contribute liberally and cheerfully to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church and the spread of the Gospel throughout the nations of the earth; and to the relief of the poor.

§6—To maintain family and secret devotion.

§7—To endeavor to bring our children early to a saving knowledge of Christ, and to give them a guarded Christian education.

§8—To walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements; to abstain from contracting debts without due care to discharge them.

§9—To avoid all tattling, backbiting, evil-speaking, and unprofitable and frivolous conversation, and to be exemplary in our deportment.

§10—To abstain from the sale and use of intoxicating liquors, tobacco and other harmful drugs in all forms.

¶11—To avoid worldly amusement, such as dances, shows, theatres, horse races, promiscuous bathing, baseball games and places where gambling is indulged in.

¶12—To shun and have no association with nor membership in secret societies and lodges which are oath-bound (2 Cor. 6:14-17).

¶13—To dress according to 1 Peter 3:3, 4: "Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and wearing of gold, or putting on of apparel, but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit which is, in the sight of God, of great price." And according to 1 Tim. 2:9-10: "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; but (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works."

¶14—To remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy by doing no worldly business therein, such as buying and selling; and by avoiding all other occupations, pleasures, or traveling which can not be consistently engaged in with an eye single to God's glory.

¶15—To be mindful of all the rules of our Savior.
Section 31—The pastor shall then address the candidates by asking, “Do you cheerfully accept the obligations of this Covenant?”

Section 32, ¶1—At the conclusion of the reading of the Covenant, the candidates having agreed to same, the entire congregation shall rise and remain standing. The pastor shall then address the entire congregation as follows:

¶2—Brethren, these persons, having satisfactorily responded to these questions and the covenant are entitled to recognition as members of this church. We therefore extend to them the right hand of fellowship, promising that we shall do all that we can to make it easy for these members to do right and hard to do wrong.

¶3—So saying the pastor shall go down to the new members and on behalf of the church extend to them the right hand of fellowship. After this the congregation may sing some suitable hymn as “Blest Be the Tie that Binds.”

Probationary Membership

Section 33—Any local church may receive members on six months’ probation or longer, provided such members answer affirmatively the questions in Section 29, ¶2-7 of the Manual. However, such probationers shall not hold any church office nor vote on any church matter. At the expiration of the probationary period all probationers who come into full membership must take the church covenant in the public service.
Reception of Members by Letter

Section 34—Persons coming from other denominations by letter shall not be received unless fully recommended, and they shall receive the same examination and be passed upon in the same way as all new members (Section 28).

Section 35—Members of the Pilgrim Holiness Church in good and regular standing who present letters of transfer from some other church of our denomination (Section 37) within sixty days of the date of issue of such letter, shall be received directly into the church, whereupon the church receiving such member shall notify the church which issued the letter of transfer.

Letter of Recommendation

Section 36—When persons in good standing desire to unite with some other evangelical church, the local church board shall give them a letter of recommendation, signed by the chairman and secretary of the church board issuing such certificate (Section 182). Such person’s membership in the local church ceases on the date the letter is issued.

Letter of Transfer

Section 37—When persons in good standing desire to be transferred to another Pilgrim Holiness Church, the local church board shall give them a letter of transfer signed by the chairman and secretary of the church board issuing such letter (Section 183). notified by the receiving church of such member's acceptance, or until expiration date of such letter of transfer.

Withdrawal of Members

Section 38, ¶1.—The chairman of the church board shall, upon request of a member, issue to such applicant a letter of dismissal (Section 184). Such person's membership in the local church ceases upon the date the letter is issued.

¶2.—When members move away from the church of which they are members and fail for one year to report their spiritual standing, and fail to send their financial support to the church, their names shall be dropped from the roll; provided a letter has been mailed to them notifying them of intention to drop their names from the roll.

¶3.—Members of a church who, over a period of one year, wilfully fail to attend its services or who fail to support it financially as they are able, shall be liable to charges.

¶4.—As soon as any member of the Pilgrim Holiness Church unites with another denomination his membership in the Pilgrim Holiness Church will automatically be discontinued.

Church Business Meetings

Section 39, ¶1.—The pastor of the church, or, in the absence or disqualification of the pastor, any person whom the meeting may select, shall preside. In this connection, let the example of the apostles be prayerfully followed, who in setting apart men to have charge of the temporal affairs of the Church, saw to it that they were "of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom." (See also in this connection the words of Paul in 1 Tim. 3:8-13.)

§2—No juvenile under the age of fourteen years shall be allowed to vote at any church meeting and all such juveniles shall be listed as non-assessable members.

§3—Order of Business:

2. Reading of minutes of previous meeting.
3. Reports.
4. Reports of committees.

Section 41.—Matters to be considered at the annual church meeting shall be:

¶1—A general inquiry as to the particular state of the church and its members.

¶2—The Covenant should be read and expounded so that the very least may understand its significance and ask themselves whether they are faithfully and honestly observing the solemn promises and vows which they have taken upon themselves in becoming members of the Pilgrim Holiness Church.

¶3—The church should also have the reports of the pastor, secretary, treasurer, Sunday school superintendent, and a report from the young people's society.

¶4—Consideration should be given to the financial obligations of the church to the pastor and all others for the forthcoming year.

¶5—Particular attention should be given to what the church is doing for the support of missions and other general interests included in the general church budget.

Section 42. ¶1—The annual church meeting shall elect a secretary, treasurer, Sunday school superintendent, and not more than five elders and five deacons, or deaconesses. These officers shall be elected by secret ballot. If there be no election on the first ballot, the two names receiving the highest number of votes shall be voted for on the second ballot. Said officers are to enter upon their duties the first day of the conference year, and continue until the first day of the next year, or until they are removed, as hereinafter provided.

Each delegate shall be provided with a certificate of his appointment signed by the pastor and secretary.

Section 46—Secretary. He shall record all proceedings and decisions in church meetings and church board meetings; shall make true entries of the same in a journal kept for that purpose; shall keep a record of all members; all transfers of memberships; all baptisms; and have the custody of all record books of all departments of the church after such books are full or in disuse.

Section 47—Treasurer. He shall have the custody of the finances of the church, and make disbursements as directed by the local church board; shall keep accurate books of account; shall sign all checks given by the church, and shall perform such other duties as are usually incidental to the office. Money raised for special objects may be received and disbursed by special committees, provided the local church board so directs.

Section 52—Missionary Committee. A committee on missions shall be either elected or appointed to work in conjunction with the pastor, the district council and the General Board in arranging missionary meetings and distributing missionary literature.

Call and Dismissal of Pastor

Section 53, ¶1—An ordained or licensed minister may be called to the pastorate of a local church, or circuit, by a two-thirds vote of all the church members of voting age, voting at a church meeting duly called for that purpose, provided that said minister has been recommended to the church by the district superintendent and a two-thirds vote of the local church board. The minister's term of office as pastor shall continue until and including the first Sunday following the district conference.

112—The call of a pastor may be renewed for the second and each succeeding year of his pastorate, without the nomination of the church board, by a two-thirds vote by ballot of all church members voting, at a meeting duly called for this purpose.

113—It is hereby provided that a local church may, when renewing pastoral relations at a church meeting duly called for that purpose, by a two-thirds vote by secret ballot of the church members of voting age voting, extended the call for two or three years, on condition that such extended call has been recommended by the district superintendent and a majority vote of the church board.

115—The election of a pastor shall be subject to the approval of the district council (Section 106, 112).

117—A pastor may be dismissed by a majority vote of the church upon recommendation of a two-thirds vote of the local church board. No pastor shall be dismissed by a church between district conferences unless his life and character are not in harmony with the Word of God and the Church Manual (Section 173). For procedure in such case see Section 168, ¶1, 172.

¶8—We recommend that each charge support its pastor and that he devote his entire time to the same; that the local church board meet with the district superintendent and pastor who in conference shall agree upon a minimum amount for his support, this amount to include food, clothing, books, rents, and unexpected incidentals (Section 67).

¶9—We recommend that each church calling a pastor pay transportation charges on household goods and the car fare of the pastor and his family; if there be no parsonage that the local church board provide a suitable house for him.

§7—To have the general oversight of all preachers and deaconesses engaged in the work of the local church of which he is pastor, and whenever possible to secure opportunities for them to exercise their gifts. He can do this by establishing prayer meetings, Sunday schools, and preaching points in adjacent communities. Cottage prayer meetings among his own members may also be established in this way.

A majority of resident members shall constitute a quorum.
District Superintendent's Meeting

Section 57—The coming of the district superintendent or his assistant (Section 92, §3) should be well advertised and his visit should be made helpful to all concerned. This end will be best met through at least two services, one of which will be on a week day, the other, if convenient, on the Sabbath. The latter should consist of preaching, testimony, and, if so desired, the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper may be administered. The former service should be a business meeting, presided over by the superintendent, and consisting, besides himself, of the pastor, the local church board, and all other officers of the church. Let the meeting close with all present on their knees before God, earnestly entreat ing Him for grace to aid in future unity and service.

Local Church Board

Section 58—How constituted: The pastor, assistant pastor, secretary, treasurer, Sunday school superintendent and not more than five elders and five deacons or deaconesses shall be the governing officers of the church and shall constitute the local church board (Section 42, §1). Section 59—When the teaching or conduct of any member of the local church board (except that of the pastor or assistant pastor which is provided for elsewhere, Section 53, §7) becomes such that three-fourths of the entire board votes to have the offending member vacate the office, the office is vacated at once, and is to be filled by a majority vote of the Board.
Section 60—The duties of the local church board shall be as follows:

1. To provide place of worship.

2. To nominate pastor and assistant pastor and to recommend all changes of pastors (Sections 53, §§1, 54, §§15).

3. The local church board shall not nominate a minister from outside the bounds of the district organization in which it is located without previous consultation with the district superintendent; nor shall it call such a minister over the protest of the superintendent, together with two other members of the district council (Section 92, §§1).

4. To supply the pulpit when any temporary vacancy arises or when without a regular pastor.

5. To collect all finances and disburse the same.

6. To examine candidates for membership and pass on them.

7. To attend to all matters pertaining to the government and interests of the local church not otherwise provided for.

8. The local church board shall appoint a committee to examine, audit, and correct all local church and Sunday school records shortly before each quarterly and annual meeting.

9. It shall be the duty of the local church board to nominate one or more candidates for Sunday school superintendent prior to the annual church meeting (Section 42, §3).

10. For duties relative to Sunday schools, see Sections 43 and 77, and for standing committees see Sections 52 and 60, §§8.
111—The local church board shall, at any regular meeting, have power to fill vacancies in the offices of secretary, treasurer, Sunday school superintendent, deacons, and elders, for the remainder of the year.

All other vacancies may be filled at the pleasure of the board.

112—The board shall not permit fairs, festivals, dramatic exercises, nor so-called sociables, nor anything of like nature to be held in connection with the church or any department of its work.

113—The local church board shall recommend candidates for local preacher’s license (Section 144, 112) to the district superintendent; also candidates for license and renewal of license, as ministers, deaconesses, evangelists or song evangelists to the district conference (Section 148, 111; 151); it shall also perform any other duties required of it by this Manual with reference to the ministry.

114—The local church board shall direct the board of trustees in attending to all legal matters of the church according to Section 51.

115—No board of trustees or church board may divert property from the Pilgrim Holiness Church (Sections 51, 14; 106, 115).

Section 61, 11—Regular monthly business meetings shall be held and the majority of the local board shall constitute a quorum. The secretary or treasurer shall give an itemized report of all receipts and disbursements.

112—Special meetings of the local church board shall be called by the secretary upon request of the pastor or three members of the board. No special meetings of the board shall be called in the absence of the pastor. All members of the board must be present at a specially called meeting or shall have been notified personally, or by mailing a notice to their residence, at least forty-eight hours previous to the time set for the meeting.

Section 62—If at any time the local church board should feel the need of counsel, or difficulty should arise in which it feels incompetent to reach the best conclusions, it may refer the same to the district council.

Special Rules

Section 63—All persons holding office should be known for their piety, sanctified character, and ability for the particular work to which the church calls them. They should give satisfactory evidence of love for souls and the determination to be useful to their fellow men. Let all the officers carefully instruct themselves in their respective duties from the pages of our Manual (Sections 46-52).

Section 64—Let no one be elected as a leader who is careless of our Covenant and the obligations imposed therein. A leader should be an example to the flock of Christ, and if it be known that a candidate for an office is a divorced person, and is living in a state of wedlock with another party, or is married to a divorced person of such state, or vain in his attire, or in debt to such a degree as to cause stumbling, or is boastful, haughty, overbearing, or otherwise un-Christlike in his temper or behavior, let the local church board see that he is not elected to any church office, or if elected, that he be speedily removed.
Section 65—Whereas the present trend toward immodesty of dress is so evidently out of keeping with the Word of God, the girls and women who are members of the Pilgrim Holiness Church are not to appear in public wearing the immodest forms of dress so current today; such as sun suits, shorts, anklets and no stockings, dresses of inmodest lengths, slacks, or similar garments. Men and boys of the church should not appear in public in shorts or without shirts. And further, parents are strongly urged to dress their children in accordance with this standard.

Section 66—After three consecutive meetings of the local church board of any church resulting in a failure to nominate a candidate for pastor, the district superintendent is empowered to call a church meeting and such meeting shall nominate and elect a pastor. In the event that more than two candidates are nominated only the two receiving the highest number of votes shall be voted upon on the second ballot, and of these two the one receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected; provided that when the district council deems it necessary to protect the life and interests of the church it may select such pastor as provided by Section 53, ¶6.

Section 67—Since the Scriptures so plainly teach us that he who preaches the Gospel shall live by the Gospel, and that it is the duty of the pastor to feed the flock of God over which the Holy Spirit has appointed him, and knowing that he can not be at his best in so doing unless he devotes his whole time to it, we therefore emphasize the support of the pastor as an imperative duty of the church (Section 53, ¶8).

Section 68—Let public free-will offerings be taken each Sunday, or as often as there are preaching services, the pastor instructing the people to remember that their first financial duty is to their own home church, assisting with the necessities there until they are relieved, for the Scriptures plainly say, "But if any provide not for his own, and especially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel."

Section 69—Let all our members tithe their income into the local treasury of the church in which their respective memberships are held and let each pastor strongly urge this so that all expenses may be paid therefrom. We further urge that the needs of the pastor receive first consideration.

Section 70—We recommend that the churches take adequate measures to provide their proportionate amount annually for the support of our foreign missions, home missions and general budget, thus taking care of our general interests. The money shall be sent to the district treasurer and he in turn shall forward same to the General Treasurer.

Section 71—Each local church should carefully regard its relation and duty in connection with the district organization in which it is located and be subject to the cooperation and advice of its district superintendent.

§2—No Pilgrim Holiness Church, nor any minister or member of the church, shall buy property or erect a building for the purpose of establishing a place of worship without first having the approval of the district council for its location (Section 106, §7).

Section 72—All our people are expected to patrize the book and Bible department of our Publishing House.

Section 73, ¶1—All money, or pledges, raised by missionaries or religious workers representing district or general interests shall be taken in charge by the local church treasurer and sent through the district treasurer to its proper destination.

¶2—When a local church has raised the quota asked of it by the district, such local church shall be permitted to stipulate the interest, or interests, to which said surplus shall be directed (Section 133, ¶14).

Section 74—In order that people may be enlightened concerning our church institutions, local churches shall open their doors at least once annually to representatives of the Department of Foreign Missions, Department of Home Missions, our schools, and Beulah Redemption Home. At such gatherings the representatives may present the needs of their institutions, and an offering shall be taken for their maintenance. In arranging for such promotional visits the administrations shall co-operate with both district and local officials.

Section 75—We are opposed to organizations, either of labor or capital, which involve Christians in unscriptural alliances.

Section 76—Inasmuch as many of our people believe that military warfare is contrary to the teaching of the New Testament and their conscience is therefore violated by being compelled to take part in such; while others believe that their obligation to the State is such as to require them to take their place in the armed forces, or otherwise support the war effort, when asked to do so in times of national emergency:
We therefore agree to lend our moral support to the cause of all who are members, in good standing, of the Pilgrim Holiness Church that their conscience be not violated.

The Sunday School

Section 77, ¶1—It shall be the duty of the local church board to maintain a Sunday school for the purpose of teaching the Holy Scriptures and leading the pupils to a saving knowledge of Christ.

¶2—One Sunday each year shall be set aside for a Sunday school rally. On that day a special effort shall be made to raise funds for the use of the General Committee on Sunday School Extension Work.

Section 78—As the Church in all ages has been mainly dependent on its children for its future, we admonish our people to give due diligence that, like our Savior’s precept concerning the Sabbath, the Sunday school may be regarded for the children, and not the children for the Sunday school. Let it be the constant aim of every pastor to so co-operate with the Sunday school that it may prove, under God, the greatest agency of the church outside the regular preaching services.

Section 79, ¶1—The Sunday school board, of which the pastor shall be the regular chairman, and which shall consist of himself, the Sunday school superintendent, the assistant superintendent, secretary, treasurer, librarian, and teachers, shall have direct oversight of the school. (For manner of election see Section 42, ¶1 and Section 43.)

¶2—No person shall hold office or teach who is not in the experience of entire sanctification, or who does not teach the cardinal doctrines of our Church.

Section 80—Our Sunday schools are requested to purchase from our Publishing House the literature recommended by the General Board.

Section 81—Because of the pernicious and trashy books which are being so freely circulated, every Sunday school should provide a library of books suitable to the youthful understanding. Such books should be purchased as will point toward the highest possible success, not from a worldly standpoint, but in helpful service to our fellow men and perfect love toward God.

CHAPTER 2
Young People’s Society

Section 82, ¶1—There shall be an organization for young people embracing both local and district features. Provisions are hereby made for the existence and work of such organization in the following particulars as set forth in this Section 82 of the Manual, paragraphs 2 to 5 inclusive.

¶2—The name of the young people’s organization shall be the Pilgrim Holiness Young People’s Society, hereinafter referred to as the Young People’s Society or Society.

¶3—The objects of the Young People’s Society shall be the same as the great objects of the Pilgrim Holiness Church as set forth in this Manual, except that the pursuit of such objects shall be adapted to young people.
The membership of the Young People's Society shall be held locally, that is, there shall be local Young People's Societies each with its own membership roll. There shall also be a district Young People's Society comprised of the Young People's Societies within the bounds of each church district; and such district organizations shall be known by the name of their respective districts, as, for instance, those in Indiana shall be known as the Indiana District Pilgrim Holiness Young People's Society, those in California, as the California District Pilgrim Holiness Young People's Society, etc. Thus there are two units of the Young People's Society, namely, the local unit made up of individual members and the district unit comprised of the several Young People's Societies within such district. The membership of the local Young People's Society is divided into three classes as designated in the following divisions of this paragraph that are marked (a) to (d) inclusive:

(a) Active members shall be persons between the ages of twelve and thirty-five who are Christians and members of the Pilgrim Holiness Church. Such members shall have the right to vote in the business meetings of the Young People's Society and are eligible for office in the Society. (This voting refers only to the business meetings of the local Society. Any zone or district business meetings together with any voting privileges or other eligibility in such meetings shall be as provided for by the district council.) Such members shall be urged to place their tithe in the local church.
(b) Associate members shall be persons who wish to be affiliated with the Young People's Society, who are Christians and interested in the work of the Society but who are not members of the Pilgrim Holiness Church. Such members have the right to attend all meetings of the Society but do not have the right to vote in business meetings of the Society or to hold office.

(c) Honorary members shall be those who are Christians and members of the Pilgrim Holiness Church but who are excluded from active membership by the age limit. (This does not include the president of the society nor the pastor.) Such members may attend all meetings of the Society but may not vote nor hold office.

(d) Dismissal of members. Active and Honorary members may only be dismissed from such membership when they are no longer members of the Pilgrim Holiness Church in good and regular standing. Associate members may only be dropped when they fail to live in harmony with the qualifications of associate membership.

§5—There shall be district officers and local officers and, if the district council of any district deems it advisable, zone officers. These officers, their manner of election or selection, and their duties are as set forth by the following paragraphs, (a) to (e) inclusive:

(a) The district superintendent shall be the chief officer and head of the work of the Young People's Society in his district. He is elected to this office when elected as district superintendent by the Annual Conference. His duties in connection with the Young People's Society shall be that of a superintendent and as such he shall have the right and privilege of attending any or all meetings, district, zone or local, of the Society within the bounds of his district whether such meetings be devotional services, business meetings or the official meetings of any group of officers, or of any committee. And it is the duty of such district superintendent to advise, counsel or correct in harmony with the provisions of the Manual.

(b) There shall be an officer known as the Young People's Executive Secretary who shall be appointed to his office for each conference year by the District Council. It shall be the duty of the executive secretary to assist the district superintendent in the district work of the Young People's Society and in this manner the district superintendent and the executive secretary shall have charge of the work of such Society within the bounds of the district. In the absence of the district superintendent the executive secretary shall be recognized as the supervisor of the district activities of the Young People's Society, provided that all policies and programs proposed or followed by such executive secretary shall have the approval of the district superintendent; it being also understood in this connection that in the event of any difference of opinion the decision of the district superintendent shall be final. The executive secretary shall also have the duty of receiving and distributing reports of the activities of the Young People's Societies, to gather and distribute other information and literature of interest and value to the Society. Such executive secretary shall also, as a supervisor, assist the zone chairmen (in the event such officers as zone chairmen are provided by the District Council).

(c) There shall be a district treasurer for the year. It shall be the duty of this officer to receive and disburse all district funds of the Society as directed by the Society, subject to the approval of the district council. to keep an accurate record of the same and to render accounts to the Society and/or the District Conference as the district council may require. Such accounts shall also be open to the district superintendent and executive secretary at all times. Such district treasurer is amenable to the district superintendent and to the district council.

(d) Whenever the district council deems it advisable, that council may appoint one or more zone chairmen for the work of the Young People's Societies within certain areas of the district. In doing this the council shall first recognize certain areas as district zones for the work of the Young People's Societies and set the bounds of such zones. Then the council shall appoint or arrange otherwise for the selection of an officer to be known as a zone chairman who shall hold office for the conference year. It shall be the duty of such officer to act as chairman of zone meetings or rallies of the Young People's Societies within such zone. Further zone organization shall be as authorized by the district council from time to time.

(e) The officers of the local Young People's Society shall be the pastor of the church to which such local society belongs, the president of the society, the vice president, the secretary, and the treasurer. These officers, including the pastor, shall constitute the local executive council. The duty of this local executive council shall be similar, in its sphere, to the duty of the church board in its sphere. The duties of the officers of the local Young People's Society shall be similar in their sphere to the duties of the church officers in their sphere. All these officers, except the pastor and the president, shall be elected by ballot just as the officers of the church are elected. The pastor is, of course, an officer by virtue of his position. The president shall be nominated by the local church board but shall be elected by ballot. The rules that govern the parliamentary proceedings of the church shall govern the same kind of proceedings of the Young People's Society in conformity with the provisions of this Manual for this Society. In nominating the president of the Young People's Society the church board shall not be limited by the age limit of active members.
This organization shall hold no meetings that are not strictly religious and spiritual. All social meetings for visiting and feasting are prohibited.

Section 83—All the work of the Young People's Society, whether district, zone or local, shall conform to the spirit and teaching of the Manual of the Pilgrim Holiness Church. The district council has the right to remove or cause to be removed any officer of the Young People's Society who, in the judgment of such council, is not in harmony with the teaching and practice of this Manual.

No policies or plans shall be put into practice by any department until agreed upon by the majority of the General Board.

Section 138, ¶1—The provinces of the several committees are, in a general way, outlined by the following:

The Department Committee on Foreign Missions shall deal with all matters coming under the head of Foreign Missions, including publicity and deputation work in the interests of Foreign Missions, and the applications of prospective workers.

The following statement from the "Policy of the General Board with Reference to Foreign Missions" sets forth the general principles upon which administrative and legislative action in connection with the work of our Foreign Missions shall be based.

"It has been stated in our Manual that the purpose of the Pilgrim Holiness Church is to glorify God, our Father; exalt Jesus Christ, our Savior; and to honor the Holy Spirit. Secondly, to carry out the great commission of our Heaven-ascended Head by publishing a Full Gospel to every nation. As this is our object in our work in the United States so often referred to as the 'Homeland,' it is our object in our work in lands beyond the borders of this, our own nation.

"It is evident to all that in carrying out the Great Commission, it is necessary for the Church to send workers into foreign lands. These workers are called Foreign Missionaries. However, we understand that while they are foreign missionaries to us and to those to whom they may minister, in a very real sense, before God, there are no 'Foreign Fields'—the whole world is 'The Field.'

"Our great obligation is, first of all, to preach the Gospel in all its fullness to all men everywhere as God may give us opportunity.

"We shall plan to establish indigenous churches in each foreign land to which our missionaries shall go.

"We shall endeavor to multiply our efforts and effect the evangelization of the fields by a trained native ministry.

"In keeping with the policy of using a trained native ministry we shall undertake to open and maintain native training schools in strategically located centers. Our educational institutions located in foreign lands shall be operated solely for the purpose of training Christian workers and we shall not attempt to maintain institutions such as orphanages, hospitals, etc., unless fully convinced that these are essential to the evangelization of the area in which they are located and we shall ever deem them as secondary to the preaching of the Gospel.

"It shall be our purpose to put all churches on a basis of self-support and self-government and to organize them into districts as soon as possible. We propose not to hold native congregations in dependency any longer than it is necessary. On the other hand, we shall guard against releasing our control over them before they are able to properly take care of the work. If we do not do this we fear that the natives may become confused as to sound doctrine and may become victims of designing and ambitious native leaders who wish to control them.

"The foregoing statements outline in a broad way the general principles of the policy of the General Board of the Pilgrim Holiness Church with reference to the Foreign Missionary work. Missionary leaders, both at home and abroad, shall conduct their work and settle their problems in harmony with these statements."

¶4—The Department Committee on Home Missions and Church Extension deals with all matters pertaining to the work of the General Church in the U. S. A. and Canada not a part of the regularly organized districts. It is the duty of the Department Committee on Home Missions and Church Extension to recommend for appointment superintendents and advisory council for church territory not in regularly organized districts which shall be known as Home Missionary Districts, and shall recommend the changing of any person or persons as such superintendents or as members of such advisory councils (Section 133, ¶25).

¶5—The Department Committee on Publications shall deal with the matters pertaining to the publishing interests of the General Church.

¶6—The Department Committee on Education shall deal with all matters pertaining to educational work of the General Church including the educational institutions recognized by the General Board; and shall have power to standardize recognized church schools, as to entrance requirements, scholarship, doctrinal statements, and credentials required of the faculty, (especially requiring of proposed faculty members recommendations from schools where they were formerly employed) as to character, moral and spiritual standing.

Department Committee Chairmen and Clerks

Section 139, ¶1—Each Department Committee shall have an officer known as the Chairman of the Committee. It shall be the duty of all the Department Committee Chairmen to preside over the meetings of their respective committees, to report, or cause to be reported, the findings and recommendations of such committees to the General Board and to assist in any way desired by the Board to put into execution the plans adopted.
§2—The department committee may also select one of its number to serve as clerk whose duty it shall be to keep a record of the committee's proceedings and to report, for the chairman, to the General Board, if such service is desired by the chairman.

§3—The department committee chairman and clerk shall be chosen by the committee from within its own ranks.

§4—The chairman of any department committee shall be empowered to call any emergency meeting of his respective committee during the interim of the General Board meetings. No action shall be taken by any committee at any time, however, that is not in harmony with the General Board's policies and programs.

The Finance Committee

Section 140, §1—The chairmen of the department committees of the General Board shall constitute a committee known as the Finance Committee which shall have the special responsibility of financing the general interests of the Church. In this connection the duties of this Committee shall be as follows:

§2—To estimate the total amount that it is thought best to raise for the various departments and submit this budget to the General Board for approval or revision.

§3—To submit plans to the Board for the collection of the General Church Budget and the Foreign Missionary funds.

§4—To assist in every way possible for the raising of the finance as directed by the Board.

PART FOUR—THE MINISTRY

CHAPTER 1

The Ministerial Order

Section 143, ¶1.—We assert our belief that God has especially called some to devote their time and talents entirely to His peculiar service, and that human ordination is simply our recognition of that which has already been conferred by the Divine Head of the Church. To prevent the many and grievous evils which arise from thrusting forth the unestablished and the mistaken, we feel that this office must be safeguarded by carefully testing the candidate therefor, as well as by causing him to be trained in the knowledge of the truth as it is in Christ Jesus.

¶2.—Credentials shall be issued to all ministers both licensed and ordained as well as to licensed and ordained deaconesses and those under special appointment as missionaries, evangelists or song evangelists. All certificates issued in accordance with the foregoing shall be valid only when properly signed and bearing endorsement of proper authorities for the current year.

Local Preachers

Section 144, ¶1.—A local preacher's license shall be issued to such as have a call for local church work. A similar license shall also be granted to those called to the regular ministry, for two successive years previous to the granting of license as a minister by the district conference, except as provided for in Section 148, ¶3. A local preacher's license is good for only one year and is renewed providing the applicant has shown a satisfactory improvement in spirit and in practice.

¶2—This license shall be furnished by the General Secretary, but issued by the district superintendent, upon the recommendation of the local church board in counsel with the district superintendent (Section 60, ¶13).

Section 145—Said local preacher shall be under the personal supervision of the resident pastor, who shall secure openings for him where possible.

Section 146, ¶1—The local preacher shall not have authority to solemnize marriages, nor to administer the Sacraments; neither shall he or she have either voice or vote in any district or General Conference or in any local church board unless elected thereto, but shall not be debarred from doing evangelistic work.

¶2—Local preachers shall make a report of their work to the local church each quarter.

¶3—If a local preacher shall do supply work as pastor of a local organized work, he shall make a report of the same to the district conference in which his congregation is represented.

Section 147—There shall be a course of study for local preachers, the extent and content of which shall be determined by the Department Committee on Education as approved by the General Board (Section 193).
Licensed Ministers

Section 148. ¶1—Any brother or sister presenting a recommendation from the local church of which he or she is a member, certifying to his or her holy character and conversation, as well as spiritual gifts and calling, may be recommended by the district council to the district conference for minister's license (Section 88, ¶11).

¶2—Such license shall not be granted over the protest of the examining board, except by consent of three-fourths of all the delegates present at the annual conference. The district conference shall reject any recommendation for the licensing of any minister who does not tithe and teach tithing into the Pilgrim Holiness Church. In case of a favorable report, license shall be granted on a simple majority (Section 99, ¶2).

¶3—No person shall be recommended to the annual district conference for license as a minister until such party shall have served two years as a local preacher and completed the course of study for local preachers, or its equivalent (Section 193). Exception to this rule may be made in the case of a person who has satisfactorily passed the examining board and has been recommended by them as a minister (Section 144, ¶1).

¶4—Candidates for license who do not reside within the bounds of any district organization shall confer with the Secretary of Home Missions and Church Extension and shall be referred by him to the most convenient district conference.

¶5—Before granting this license a report shall be heard from the examining board, as provided under Section 99, ¶2.

¶6—License shall be granted by the district conference and shall be signed by the General Superintendent, the General Secretary, the district superintendent, and district secretary. It may be renewed each year upon the passage of the licentiate's character and the report from the examining board as to his or her gifts and growth in grace (Section 99, ¶3, 4) and from the educational board as to his or her progress in the course of study (Section 101, ¶2). For Course of Study see Section 195.

¶7—Careful attention will be given to doctrine, and no unorthodox and unscriptural teaching will be passed unchallenged, by either the Examining or the Educational Boards, or by the principals of our schools.

Section 149, ¶1—All licensed ministers failing to complete and report on at least two subjects a year in their required Course of Study, for two consecutive years, will automatically forfeit their licenses, unless in the judgment of the educational board an exception shall be made. The district council shall have power to review and pass upon such action when it deems it advisable (Section 106, ¶2).

¶2—When an applicant cannot be present at an annual conference, due to unusual circumstances, the educational board and other boards may pass on such cases provided such absentee has sent in a satisfactory report and also has a recommendation from his local church board and district superintendent.
Deaconesses and Deaconess Work

Section 150—We affirm that as God has called some to the work of ministering His Word, so has He also placed His peculiar approval, in numberless instances, upon the setting apart of women for labor in the interest of the souls and bodies of the poor, the afflicted, and for other necessary services in the various departments of Home and Foreign Missions.

Section 151—Any sister may be licensed for deaconess work in the same general manner as candidates are licensed as ministers of the Gospel (Section 88, §11), except that they are not required to take the Local Preacher’s Course of Study.

Section 152—After her license, she shall report quarterly to the district superintendent and with her third quarterly report she shall enclose such a recommendation from the local church board of the church with which she is connected, as that ordered for all ministers (Section 92, ¶6).

Section 153—The candidate for license as a deaconess shall be examined by the examining board, according to Section 99, ¶2. In the course of study she shall be under the direction of the District Educational Board (Section 101, ¶2), as in the case of licensed ministers, and after being licensed for three years, she shall be reported to the district conference, with recommendation for or against her ordination, which recommendation shall receive primary consideration in deciding as to whether it shall be granted or refused. Her ordination shall, in general, be conducted exactly as though she were to be ordained to the ministry of the Gospel, except that she shall be set apart for deaconess work as provided in Section 88, ¶12.

Ordained Ministers

Section 154—No person shall be eligible for ordination until first having served at least two years in active ministry.

Section 155—The licentiate who has held his license at least three years and has successfully completed the required course of study, shall be eligible for ordination as a minister of the Gospel, unless the district council will have deemed it wise to have ordained before the expiration of the three year period.

Section 156, ¶1—In considering the case of a candidate for ordination, the district conference shall hear: (1) the report of the examining board as to the candidate's religious experience and personal character (Section 99, ¶2); (2) the report of the educational board on his or her standing in the course of study (Section 101, ¶2); (3) the candidate's personal testimony; (4) any recommendation from the district council regarding him or her.

¶2—The report of the boards having been received by the conference, the said conference shall earnestly seek divine guidance, waiting upon God in prayer; then, if the conference so orders, it shall recommend the candidate for ordination to the district council, which shall appoint a body of at least five ministers, that by the laying on of hands and by prayer he may be set apart for the work whereunto God has called him (Section 106, ¶3).

Section 157—Certificate of Ordination shall be issued and shall bear the signatures of at least five or-
CHAPTER 2

Ministerial Regulations

Rules

Section 158, ¶1—All licensed or ordained ministers and deaconesses, whether acting as pastors or otherwise or without regular employment, shall make a quarterly report to the district superintendent of the conference with which they are allied, said report to be made out on blanks sent out by the district secretary, and furnished by the General Secretary.

¶2—With the third quarterly report each minister and deaconess shall mail the district superintendent the recommendation from the local church board required for the renewal of credentials (Section 92, ¶6).

Section 159—If any licensed minister or deaconess shall fail for three successive quarters to forward his or her report to the district superintendent, the latter shall make an investigation, and if no reasonable cause shall be found for his or her failure, as above mentioned, the district superintendent shall be justified in referring the case to the examining board. This failure shall be considered before deciding to recommend for renewal of license.

Section 160—Any ordained or licensed minister of the Pilgrim Holiness Church interfering with the work of, or influencing anyone against any pastor, shall be answerable to the district council. Should the offender be a member of another district the offended shall make charges to his district council, they in turn to the council of the district to which the offender is a member.

Section 161—All ministers shall place their church letter in some local church within sixty days after receiving the same, and if they fail to do so their letter becomes void. Each pastor shall become a member of the church or one of the churches which he serves, and such membership shall move automatically when he moves to another charge. The membership of such pastor's wife shall be automatically transferred with her husband's membership provided she is a member in good and regular standing in the Pilgrim Holiness Church.

Section 162—No minister shall entertain a pastoral call from a church within the bounds of the district conference other than the one with which he is connected, except by agreement with the General Superintendent in concurrence with the district superintendent of the district in which the church is located.

Section 163—No minister shall enter a town or city where there is an organized Pilgrim Holiness Church to hold a revival meeting over the protest of the local Pilgrim Holiness Church pastor and the district superintendent.

Section 164—Every minister shall be duly registered with the secretary of some district council, preferably that nearest to his own location, and if he shall permanently enter the bounds of any other district organization, he shall present a letter from his own district secretary, certifying to his standing, and shall thereafter be acknowledged as a member thereof.
Section 165—Any minister or deaconess who has been divorced from one companion and has married another without the former having died should not be licensed nor ordained.

Section 166—As there are questions and conditions known to a district work that are not generally known, therefore when outside workers come within the bounds of such districts they shall fully recognize the decision of the district officials in said questions and conditions.

Section 167—The Sacraments are usually administered by ordained ministers, but licensed ministers having charge of congregations shall have power to do so. Bread and unfermented wine shall be used at the Lord's Supper.

Section 168—in these days of multiplied divorces and great laxity relative to the marriage question, it is fully agreed that no minister shall unite in holy wedlock any who have been divorced.

Special Advice to Ministers

Section 169—John Wesley's "Twelve Rules of a Helper" have perhaps never been excelled as counsel to ministers, whether young or old. These "Rules" are, in part, as follows:

1. Be diligent. Never be unemployed. Never trifle away time; neither spend any more time at any place than is strictly necessary.

2. Be serious. Let your motto be: "Holiness to the Lord." Avoid all lightness, jesting, and foolish talking.

3. Converse sparingly and conduct yourself with prudence in the presence of the opposite sex (1 Tim. 5:2).

4. Be honest. Keep out of debt; preach your own sermons.

5. Believe evil of no one unless you see it done; take heed how you credit it. Put the best construction on everything.

6. Speak evil of no one; else your words especially will eat as doth a canker; keep your thoughts within your breast till you come to the person concerned.

7. Be courageous. Fear not to rebuke sin to its face and privately as well as in the public congregation.

8. Flee all affectation. A preacher of the Gospel should regard himself as the servant of all.

9. Be ashamed of nothing but sin. Let your industry, as well as your humility, commend itself to all.

10. Be punctual. Do everything exactly at the time; and keep your Covenant, not as a heavy duty, but for conscience sake.

11. You have nothing to do but to save souls; therefore spend and be spent in this work; and go always not only to those who want you, but to those who need you most.

12. It is not your business to preach merely a certain number of times, nor take care of this or that church: but to get as many souls saved as you can; to bring as many sinners as you possibly can to repentance, and with all your power to build them up in “holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord.”

Section 169-A—Adam Clarke, the Commentator, in "A Letter to a Preacher," makes many exceedingly pertinent observations, which we summarize here-with:

1. Concerning Choice of Texts.—Never take a text which you do not fully understand. Remember, you are called not only to explain the things of God, but also the words of God. Seldom take a very short text. Never take a text out of its setting, but always give the meaning intended by the Holy Spirit. Beware of allegorizing on one side and literalizing on the other.

2. Concerning Your Behavior in the Pulpit and Mode of Conducting the Public Service.—Go from your knees to the service. Be careful how you say things to make your congregation laugh. Never assume an air of importance while in the pulpit. Avoid fantastic attitudes. Endeavor to gain the attention of your congregation. You are a witness for God and are bound to tell the 'truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.' Keep your eyes closed while you pray. Read your text distinctly and begin to speak about the middle of your voice. Be sure to have the matter of your text well arranged in your own mind before you come into the pulpit. Preach Jesus Christ. Never ape any person, however prominent he may be for piety or ministerial ability.

3. Concerning Your Behavior on Your Circuit or at the Place Where You Exercise Your Ministry.—Never disappoint a place. Be punctual in getting in proper time to the place where you are to be entertained. Do not make the whole family wait upon you. Never leave any place you visit without reading a portion of the Scripture and praying with the family. Take heed that while you avoid levity on the one hand you fall not into sour godliness on the other. Tell your secret trials and temptations to very few. Never go in debt for food, clothes or anything else; it is no sin to die in a ditch through hunger or cold; but it is a crime to go in debt when there is not the fullest prospect of being able to pay. Get a genuine friend whenever you can. Beware of forming hasty friendships.

§4—"Concerning Your Behavior in the House Where You Lodge.—On your arrival, get as speedily as possible to private prayer. Show yourself satisfied with everything you receive. Be punctual at meals and rise when called. Be not over-particular about your food. Give the family where you lodge as little trouble as possible. Keep your room in such an orderly manner that everything will have its place and that even your absence will testify to the regularity of your habits. Go out as little as possible to eat and drink. Go not from house to house. (Luke 10:7).

§5—"Concerning the Cultivation of Your Mind.—Pray much, read much, write much. Have always some essay, dissertation, or similar work upon the anvil; and be sure you finish whatever you undertake. Read the Bible regularly through at least once in the year; and take down in order every text you think you have light sufficient to preach from. Always carry a New Testament with you. No man can fully explain the Bible who has not a general acquaintance with the most important sciences and arts.
There are multitudes of texts in that blessed Book which no man can explain who has not a tolerable knowledge of history, chronology, geography, astronomy, anatomy and chemistry. Illiterate piety may be useful in exhorting sinners to return to God, but it certainly cannot, without immediate inspiration, explain and apply the deep things of God. I think it of great consequence to a preacher of the Gospel to be able to read the Old and New Covenants of his God in those languages in which they were originally given. The indolent preacher is soon known by his preaching; he has little or no variety. That knowledge which has for its object God and His works can never rob you of your religion nor deprive you of your simplicity; but, on the contrary, will be a powerful means of increasing both."

* * *

Section 170, ¶1—Systematic giving will never receive proper attention from the people unless clearly and frequently enunciated from the pulpit.

¶2—Special days, such as Christmas, New Year's, Easter, etc., should be made the occasion for appropriate discourses.

¶3—Decency and cleanliness must not only be practiced by the preacher, but should be inculcated in his public preaching.

¶4—Congregational singing should receive careful attention. It should be lively, spiritual, and varied as to selection.

¶5—The pastor should be careful whom he permits to occupy his pulpit in his absence. Every preacher should control his pulpit.
¶6—Frequent sermons to the children are of great value.
¶7—The pastor must not neglect his Sunday school.
¶8—When children are converted they should have their own meetings and should receive special instruction so that they will grow up not only good Christians, but also good Pilgrim Holiness Christians.
¶9—Pastors will receive large returns in good done by circulating our Manual among their members. A copy should be in every home. The pastors should also constitute themselves agents for our holiness literature such as the books and periodicals to be procured at the Pilgrim Publishing House, Indianapolis, Indiana.

CHAPTER 3
Ministers From Other Evangelical Churches

Section 171.—Ordained ministers from other evangelical churches desiring to unite with us may be admitted, receiving due credit for their standing, provided that they publicly assent to our beliefs, practices and system of government, are able to give evidence of holy character and a sanctified experience, and have pursued a course of study at least equal to the one prescribed for our ministers.

We do not recognize the credentials of ministers who have been divorced from one companion and have married another without the former having died.
PART FIVE—JUDICIARY PREAMBLE

Section 172, §1—The purpose of church government and discipline is for the vindication of the truth, to preserve the integrity of the body, a warning to the careless and the salvation and restoration of the wayward.

§2—Members of the Pilgrim Holiness Church who violate the rules of the church, or who hold doctrines contrary to this Manual or are guilty of breach of covenant, shall be dealt with kindly, yet faithfully, and according to the seriousness of their offense. Each case shall have immediate and thorough attention on the part of the proper church authorities having jurisdiction, either local, district or general. The teaching and standards of the church are to be maintained at all times.

§3—Sincere and reasonable effort shall first be made to deal with each case without the formality of a church trial. In case a trial is deemed necessary by the church authorities or is requested by the accused, the same shall be held in accordance with the Judiciary as authorized by the General Conference. (Copies of the Judiciary may be had upon application to the Headquarters Office of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, 1609 North Delaware St., Indianapolis, Ind.)

§4—The following charges shall constitute the offenses for which any member, minister, deaconess, district or general officer of the Pilgrim Holiness Church may be dealt with and tried:

a) Holding or teaching any doctrine contrary to the Word of God or the Manual of the Pilgrim Holiness Church.
b) Breach of Covenant or breaking the Special Rules of the Church.
c) Insubordination or wilful refusal to recognize Church authority.
d) Conduct unbecoming a member or minister of the Pilgrim Holiness Church.
e) Immoral conduct.
§5—The right of a fair and impartial trial of a layman or minister shall not be denied. No charges against any layman or minister shall be entertained unless submitted in written form and signed by the accuser.
§6—A layman or a minister who has been convicted by trial shall not be denied the right of appeal as provided for by the Judiciary.
§7—All the provisions of the Judiciary are as authoritative and binding as the Manual itself, to which it is an official supplement.
PART SIX—RITUAL AND FORMS

CHAPTER 1

Ritual

Section 173—Marriage Ceremony.

(At the day and time appointed for the solemnization of matrimony, the persons to be married—having been qualified according to law—standing together, the man on the right hand and the woman on the left, the minister shall say:)

Dearly Beloved: We are gathered together in the sight of God, and in the presence of these witnesses, to join together this man and this woman in holy matrimony, which is an honorable estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that exists between Christ and His Church; which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with His presence and first miracle that He wrought in Cana of Galilee, and is commanded of St. Paul to be honorable among all men; and, therefore, is not to be entered into unadvisedly, but reverently, discreetly, and in the fear of God.

Into this holy estate these persons present now come to be joined. Therefore, if any can show just cause why they may not lawfully be joined together, let him now speak, or else forever hold his peace.

(And also speaking unto the persons who are to be married, the minister shall say:)
I require and charge you both that if either of you knows any impediment why you may not be lawfully joined together in matrimony, you do now confess it; for be ye well assured that as many as are united otherwise than as God's Word doth allow are not joined together by God.

(If no impediment is alleged, then shall the minister say unto the man:) Wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honor and keep her in sickness and in health, and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto her as long as ye both shall live?

(The man shall answer:) I will.

(Then shall the minister say unto the woman:) Wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love, honor, and keep him in sickness and in health, and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him as long as ye both shall live?

(The woman shall answer:) I will.

(Then shall the minister join their right hands together and say:) Forasmuch as this man and this woman have consented together in holy wedlock and have witnessed the same before God and this company and have clared the same by joining of hands, I pronounce that they are husband and wife, in the name of God the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Those whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder. Amen.

(Then shall the minister pray thus:)

May the blessing of the Triune God rest upon this husband and wife. Grant unto them Thy presence and guidance along the pathway of life, and grace to fulfill Thy thought concerning their lives. Grant unto them and this company a place hereafter at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. And unto Thee we will ascribe the praise, and the honor, and the glory, now and evermore, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Section 174—Baptism

Let the minister read Matt. 3; John 3:1-8.

Prayer.

Let the candidates be questioned as follows:

Dost thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not be led by them?

Ans. I renounce them all.

Dost thou believe in God the Father and in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord; in the Holy Ghost, and in the Church of God in general; the remission of sins, the resurrection of the body, and everlasting life after death?

Ans. All this I steadfastly believe.
Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?

Ans. This is my desire.

Wilt thou obediently keep God's holy commandments and walk in them daily?

Ans. I will do so, God being my helper.

The minister, asking the name of the candidate, shall baptize him, saying:

N......, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Repeat the Lord's Prayer, closing with extemporary prayer.

Section 175—Baptism of Children.

Where parents so desire, let baptism be administered, using the following form:

Read Mark 15:13-16 and Matthew 18:1-6. Then shall the minister take the child into his hands and say to the parents:

Name this child.

And then naming it after them, he shall baptize it, saying:

N......, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then shall the Lord's Prayer be repeated, closing with extemporary prayer.

Section 176—Dedication of Children.

When parents desire to dedicate their children the following form may be used:

Read from Mark 10:13-16; Matthew 18:1-6.
After the reading let there be prayer as follows:

Almighty God, we here and now dedicate this child unto Thee, praying that he (or she) may be endued with heavenly virtues, taught by Thy Holy Spirit, nourished by Thy Word, kept by divine grace and everlastingly rewarded through Thy eternal mercies. In the name of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Be pleased, O God, to grant unto this child an understanding mind. May Thy providence lead him (or her) through the dangers, temptations and ignorance of youth; may he (or she) never run into folly nor into the evils of unbridled appetite; may he (or she) be led to serve Thee faithfully, so that, when he (or she) has glorified Thee in his (or her) generation and has served Thy cause on earth, he (or she) may be received into Thy eternal kingdom. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Benediction (2 Cor. 13:14).

Section 177—Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper.

No person shall be admitted to the Lord’s Supper who is guilty of any practice for which we would exclude a member of our church.

Prayer of consecration, extemporary.

Then let the people be invited to partake, and as the bread is delivered, let the minister say:

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy soul and body unto everlasting life. Take and eat in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on Him in thine heart by faith, with thanksgiving.

As the cup is delivered, let the minister say:

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy soul and body unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ’s blood was shed for thee, and be thou thankful.

In closing, let the people unite with the minister in repeating the Lord’s Prayer, to be followed by dismissal as follows:

May the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God and His Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Section 178—Burial of the Dead.

In the house or at the church let some of the following Scriptures be read:

“I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth on me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.”—John 11:25, 26.

“I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth; and though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another.”—Job 19:25-27.
"We brought nothing into the world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out." "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."—1 Tim. 6:7; Job 1:21.

"Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men. For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning it is cut down and withereth. In the morning it flourisheth and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down and withereth."—Ps. 90:1-6.

Other appropriate selections will be found in Ps. 39; 1 Cor. 15:41-58; 2 Cor. 5:1-10; 1 Thess. 4:13-18, and Rev. 21:21-27.

For the death of a child the following Scriptures may be read: Mark 10:13-16; Matthew 18:1-6, 10; 2 Sam. 12:16-23.

At the grave, as the body is laid away, let the minister say:

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God in His wise providence to take out of the world the soul of the departed, we therefore commit his (or her) body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, looking for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, when He shall burst the bands of death and gather to Himself in the skies to the Marriage Supper of the Lamb all those who have made a covenant with Him by sacrifice.

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God the Father, and the communion of the Holy Spirit abide with us now and evermore. Amen.

Section 179—Form for Ordination of Ministers.

As the congregation enters let the Council of Ordination take their places on the platform.

Candidates for Ordination shall be seated before the altar.

Singing: “A Charge To Keep I Have.”

Prayer by a member of the Council.

Singing: “Rock of Ages.”

Scripture Lesson: 1 Tim. 3; 2 Tim. 4:1-8; Titus 3:1-11.

Charge to the candidates, and sermon on the call and work of the ministry. Candidates shall then kneel at the altar, and while prayer is being offered, the members of the Council shall severally lay their hands on the head of each candidate, after which the General Superintendent (or one authorized to act in his place) shall place the Bible in the hand of the candidate, saying:

Take thou authority to preach the Word of God, to administer the Sacraments and to perform all the duties of an ordained minister in the Church of God, in the name of God the Father, and of God the Son, and of God the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Doxology and Benediction.
Section 180—Form for Ordination of Deaconesses.
Singing: “Take My Life and Let It Be.”
Prayer.
Singing: “Rescue the Perishing.”
Address to the Candidates.
Questions:
Do you believe that you are called of God to do the work of a Deaconess?
Do you promise to faithfully perform the duties of this office as taught in the Word of God?
Will you strive to represent your Lord and Master wherever you are needed, and to go where you are needed the most?
The minister in charge shall then lead in prayer, candidates kneeling at the altar, after which he shall take each candidate by the hand, and say:
Thou art admitted to the office of Deaconess in the Church of God in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.
Doxology and Benediction.

Section 181—Form for Dedication of a Church. The following order of service may be used:
1. Singing.
2. Prayer.
4. Scripture Reading.
5. Sermon.
6. Offering.

8. Address to the Congregation:

Dearly beloved, the Scriptures teach us that God is well pleased with those who build temples in His name. We have heard how He filled the temple of Solomon with His glory and how in the second temple He manifested Himself still more gloriously. And the Gospel approves and commends the centurion who built a synagogue for the people. Let us not doubt that He will also favorably approve our purpose of dedicating this place in solemn manner, for the performance of the several offices of religious worship.

For such a dedication we are now assembled. With gratitude, therefore, to Almighty God who has signally blessed His servants in their holy enterprise of erecting this Church, we dedicate it to His service for the reading of the Holy Scriptures, the preaching of the Word of God, the administration of the Holy Sacraments, and for all other exercises of religious worship and service, according to the Manual and usages of the Pilgrim Holiness Church. And as the dedication of the temple is vain without the solemn consecration of the worshippers also, I now call upon you all to dedicate yourselves anew to the service of God. To Him let our souls be dedicated that they may be renewed after the image of Christ; to Him let our bodies be dedicated, that we may be fit temples for the indwelling of the Holy Ghost; to Him may our labors and business be dedicated, that their fruit may tend to the glory of His great name and to the advancement of His Kingdom.

9. Address to the Trustees:

Brethren: You have been selected by the Church to hold the honorable and responsible place of trustees of this house of worship now being dedicated to the service of Almighty God. In this office you represent the Church, and will act on its behalf and for its welfare.

The house of God is sacred; it is God's holy temple, where He is to be worshipped in the beauty of holiness and love; therefore nothing should enter this sacred place that will defile the temple of God.

By your official relation you are vitally interested in this temple. Protect it at all times; preserve it for constant service; improve it as needs arise. As assistants of the pastor, help to make this a holy place. As representatives of the Church in the com-community, win men to it, and through it to the Lord Jesus Christ.

In the name of the Holy Trinity I now give this key to the President of the Board of Trustees as the symbol of your authority, to hold this property in trust for God and the Pilgrim Holiness Church. I pray that Christian faith and hope and love may dwell in your hearts, and that the Holy Spirit may be your guide and comfort.

10. Dedicatory Prayer.

11. Doxology.

Study Course Regulations for Ministers
Section 197, ¶1—Men of this world demand a trained mind as well as a willing heart. In offering ourselves to the service of the Gospel ministry we should not be less diligent, that we may show ourselves approved unto God, workmen that need not to be ashamed.

¶2—Habits of study, together with Biblical and other knowledge secured through them are invaluable to the ministers of our Church. Therefore, to promote the same the General Conference has provided that a course of study shall be arranged for applicants for license as a minister and for ordination as deaconess and ordination as a minister.

Section 198, ¶1—Persons pursuing the courses of study as given hereinbefore shall be governed by the following regulations:

¶2—Those entering a ministerial office shall immEDIATELY enter upon the prescribed course of study and pursue same until completed. To this end they shall place themselves under the direction of the district educational board which has charge of this work, unless the same course, or its equivalent, is taken in school.

¶3—Examinations required by the district educational board shall be submitted in writing and shall be conducted at the time and place of the district conference or during the year upon completion of a book or subject, either personally or through the mails.

¶4—The passing grade of any study shall not be less than an average of 70 per cent.

¶5—If a course in either Bible or theology is taken in school the chairman of the district educational board may at his discretion require a transcript of credits yearly. If a course of study in Bible or theology has been completed in school a transcript of credit shall be presented to the chairman of the educational board by the candidate.

¶6—No course of study shall be accepted unless it is the equivalent of every subject required in the course of study given in this Manual, except when said course or the equivalent thereof is taken by the candidate in an approved school either by correspondence or resident work.

CHAPTER 5

Section 199—Teacher Training Class Course. We recommend that each local church provide for a Teacher Training Class for the purpose of better fitting our Sunday school teachers and workers for service. Said class shall be taught by the pastor or some other person suitable for this work. Examinations will be furnished by the General Office, and upon completion of the course prescribed, certificates will be granted to those receiving a passing grade. Passing grade shall be 75 per cent.

We recommend as a text "Hurlbut's Teacher Training Lessons for the Sunday School," by Jesse Lyman Hurlbut, together with the two following books to be read: "The Sunday School in Action" (Benson) and "When Do Teachers Teach?" by Campbell. These books may be secured from the Pilgrim Publishing House.
