USA CYCLING'S COLLEGIATE PROGRAM

What is Collegiate Cycling?

- Collegiate Cycling is a fully integrated division of USA Cycling designed around creating comradery, fun and a competitive atmosphere for racing and team building.
- USA Cycling provides racing opportunities for collegiate riders in track, mountain biking, cyclocross, BMX, and road disciplines in 11 conferences nationwide, with national championships occurring once a year for each discipline.
- Collegiate Cycling is open to all full-time students, who are members in good standing of the cycling team on campus, as determined by the registrar of the university that you pay tuition to.

Why Collegiate Cycling

- Collegiate Cycling allows you to compete as a student athlete for your school and represent their colors throughout the region and nationally.
- Collegiate Cycling builds relationships with peers and the community. Lifelong friendships are created with your teammates and competitors from other schools.
- Student leadership positions are available. These positions look great on resumes for life after school when looking for jobs and offer real organization and leadership experience.
- Merit scholarships, the John Stenner and the Joshua Kuck Memorial, are available from the USA Cycling Foundation.
