The Salvation Army Farmington Hills Corps Community Center Collects School Supplies to Help Students Succeed

Applications open for those in need of back-to-school assistance; school supplies to be distributed on Sept. 16

SOUTHFIELD, Mich., (Aug. 9, 2022) — The Salvation Army Farmington Hills Corps Community Center is collecting new school supplies for local students in need through Monday, Aug. 22.

As shoppers take care of their back-to-school shopping at their local Walmart, they can refer to The Salvation Army's online registry of supplies – including pencils, backpacks, calculators, erasers, books, paper, flash cards, glue sticks, planners, folders, rulers, scissors, notebooks and more – to set students up for a successful school year.

Once purchased, donations may be dropped off at the main entrance of The Salvation Army Farmington Hills Corps Community Center located at 27500 Shiawassee St. in Farmington Hills. Donations will be accepted from 9:30 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

Those in need of back-to-school assistance can fill out an application over the phone or by appointment at 248-477-1153 to receive donated supplies. Applicants must be school-age children (5-17 years old) living in The Salvation Army Farmington Hills Corps Community Center's service area – Farmington, Farmington Hills, Lathrup Village, Southfield, Novi, Wixom, South Lyon or Lyon Township.

School supplies will be distributed on Friday, Sept. 16. Applicants must bring proof of ID for everyone receiving school supplies, including driver's license or state ID for adults, and birth certificate or school record for students.
