Salvation Army Store Donation Guide

Have something to donate? Our stores are always in need of quality, gently-used items. Please contact your local store for donation hours. The following is a general guide for what we can and cannot accept.

Acceptable Items

- Current/modern decor
- Clothing (new or gently used)
- Jackets for the current season
- Shoes
- Purses
- Ladies and men's accessories
- Yarn, thread, material
- Books
- Puzzles, games will all pieces
- Furniture (gently used)
- Linens, curtains, rugs
- Jewelry
- Small, working appliances
- Household items - dishes, knick-knacks, silverware, etc.
- Seasonal items

Items we can’t accept (and why)

- Toys/stuffed animals (safety recalls)
- Baby equipment (safety recalls and contaminants)
- Child car seats (safety issues)
- TVs (must be legally and expensively recycled)
- Entertainment centers for older TVs (lack of customer demand)
• Large household appliances - washers, dryers, stoves, refrigerators/freezers (must be legally and expensively recycled)
• Computers and components (must be expensively recycled)
• Harsh chemicals and paints (must be recycled)
• Gas powered engines and propane tanks (building safety)
• Exercise equipment and weight benches (customer safety)
• Console stereos, organs, pianos (lack of customer demand)
• Sleeper sofas or hide-a-bed couches (safety and lack of customer demand)
• Waterbeds and framing (lack of customer demand)
• Magazines (lack of customer demand)
• Encyclopedias (lack of customer demand)
• Mattresses/boxsprings (health concerns)
• Hospital & medical equipment (safety and health concerns)