SALVATION ARMY EMERGENCY DISASTER SERVICES RESPONDING TO CHEMTOOL FIRE

Supporting first responders and evacuees with food and drinks

ROCKTON – The Salvation Army Emergency Disaster Services (“EDS”) staff and volunteers are responding to the Chemtool fire in Rockton. EDS is deploying a mobile feeding unit, as well as a field kitchen and rapid response unit to provide meals, snacks, and hydration to first responders.

Salvation Army EDS staff and volunteers will be prepared to provide Emotional and Spiritual Care to first responders and evacuees as requested. EDS is prepared to assist further, and deploy additional personnel and resources, as requested.
