The Salvation Army in Desperate Need of Clothing & Household Good Donations

Donations fund essential recovery services offered by The Salvation Army in Grand Rapids

Grand Rapids, MI (August 6, 2024) – The Salvation Army urgently needs donations of gently used clothing and household goods in West Michigan. The Salvation Army's Thrift Stores rely on public donations of gently used clothing and household goods to fund its Adult Rehabilitation Program. Donations directly support the provision of essential rehabilitation services for those battling substance use.

Gently used clothing and household goods can be dropped off at any Salvation Army Thrift Store. Donations are accepted from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Saturday at our store locations:

3900 Alpine Ave NW, Comstock Park, MI 49321

4160 Plainfield Ave NE, Grand Rapids, MI 49525

4283 28th Street SE, Kentwood, MI 49512

12579 Felch Road, Holland, MI 49424

1269 Michigan 89, Plainwell, MI 49080

5117 Portage Road, Portage, MI 49002

294 Highland Ave, Battle Creek, MI 49015

Pick up may be available in the greater Grand Rapids, Holland and Portage areas.

The Salvation Army Adult Rehabilitation Center (ARC) has been in operation for over 100 years, providing rehabilitation services to communities across the United States. The Salvation Army's Adult Rehabilitation Center is a 180-day residential program providing spiritual, social, and emotional assistance to people who have lost the ability to cope with their problems and provide for themselves.

The Salvation Army provides services at no cost to the program participants and The Salvation Army receives no government funding to operate the program. As such, donations of clothing, household goods, etc. from the community are essential to ensuring the continued provision of services in Grand Rapids.
