Words and Music by: David Shay

INTRO:

C G/B Am7 G X2

VERSE:

C G/B Am7 G
We were there when they took Your body down

C G/B Am7 G
And we saw them put You in the ground.

C G/B Am7
We were bringing spices to Your grave

C G/B Am7 G
That is where we heard the angel say:

CHORUS:

Em7 D G/D
“Don’t be afraid; don’t let your hearts be so weighed down,

C D
The Lord is awake our new hope’s risen from the grave.

Em7 D G/D
Come see the place where our once dead Savior lay,

C D
But know that today our new life’s risen from the grave.”

BRIDGE:

C G/B Am7 G
We never truly live till we learn to die with You.

C G/B Am7 G
We never truly live till we learn to die with You.

C G/B Am7
We seek life and we all seek the truth.

C G/B Am7 G
But we’ll never truly live till we learn to die with You.

Matthew 28:1-7

Early on Sunday morning, as the new day was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went out to visit the tomb. Suddenly there was a great earthquake! For an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled aside the stone, and sat on it. His face shone like lightning, and his clothing was as white as snow. The guards shook with fear when they saw him, and they fell into a dead faint.

Then the angel spoke to the women. “Don’t be afraid!” he said. “I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He isn’t here! He is risen from the dead, just as he said would happen. Come, see where his body was lying. And now, go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and he is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there. Remember what I have told you.”
