CHRISTMAS ASSISTANCE APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN

Help available to qualifying families and seniors.

KANSAS CITY, MO (Oct. 11th, 2018) -- The Salvation Army of Kansas and Western Missouri is now accepting Christmas assistance applications in the Kansas City metro area for the upcoming holiday season.

Income-eligible families and seniors, age 65 years and older, are welcome to apply in person at their nearest Salvation Army community center. Families and seniors who qualify for Christmas assistance may receive food for holiday meals and toys for children in the family.

To find their local Salvation Army location, applicants can call 816-756-3678. Their local Salvation Army will provide specific information, including what to bring to provide proof of eligibility. This includes items such as a photo ID, proof of income, proof of residency – such as a current utility bill – and verification of children age 14 or younger in the household.

Applications will be accepted at the following Kansas City-area Salvation Army locations, dates and times:

About The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army of Kansas and Western Missouri is an evangelical part of the universal Christian church established in 1865, and has been supporting those in need in His name without discrimination. The organization provides assistance through a broad array of social services ranging from food for the hungry, relief for disaster victims, assistance for the disabled, outreach for the elderly and ill, clothing and shelter to the homeless, and opportunities for underprivileged children.
