

No More! No More!

Words by ALBERT ORSBORN
(The Song Book of The Salvation Army 724)

Music by WILFRED KITCHING

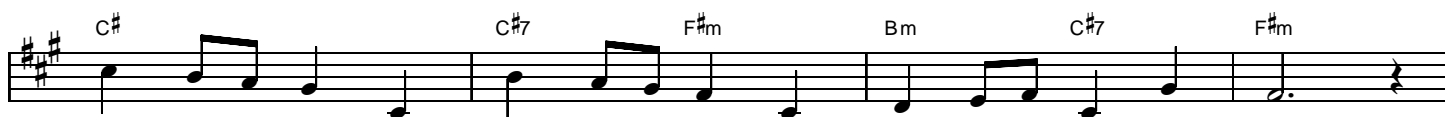

Joyfully ♩ = 80

1. Have we not known it, have we not heard it? Pow'r un-to God be - longs.
2. Joy - bursts of sing - ing gail - y are spring - ing With ev - 'ry day that starts;
3. Safe in the dark day; safe in the bright day; Safe till my lat - est breath;

Yet do we dail - y find in his mer - cy Themes for the sweet - est songs;
If we were sil - ent then would the stones cry Shame on our faint - ing hearts.
There is en - dur - ance in this as - sur - ance, Strong - er than fear of death.

Hea - ling the wound - ed, rais - ing the fall - en, Mak - ing the blind to see,
O ban - ish sad - ness, sing now for glad - ness Glo - ry in Christ, the Lord!
When the ac - cus - er comes to the judg - ment, Seek - ing my soul to claim,

Say - ing to all who seek his face These pre - cious words of re - deem - ing grace:
Who is a God like un - to thee, One who can par - don in - i - qui - ty?
I have a tok - en in the blood. I have the word of a par - doning God.

CHORUS With spirit ♩ = 132

No more! No more! He re - mem - bers sins no more, They are par - doned for ev - er,

And he will nev - er Bring them up a - gainst me an - y more. I'll hear no more Of the ev - il days of yore; I'm a par - doned of - fend - er, And God will re - mem - ber them no more.
