The USHL has announced the dates and formats for its invite-only 2023 USHL Combines to be held this spring and summer at the Arctic Ice Arena in Orland Park, Ill.

"The USHL Combine is an outstanding opportunity for young players to showcase their skills and learn from USHL coaches," said Doug Christiansen, USHL Deputy Commissioner. "The USHL Combine has featured current NHL players on their way to the USHL. We are excited to bring many of the best players in the world to Chicago Southland."

USHL Combines provide players exposure and education on their path to the USHL and beyond. Invitees of each combine will practice and play in front of USHL coaches, USHL scouts and NCAA coaches. Off-ice physical and cognitive testing will also take place. View the dates and format for each combine below.

"For 2005–2007 birth years, this is the last opportunity to be seen prior to the USHL Draft. For the 2008–2010 birth years, attending a USHL Combine is a great step before draft eligibility."
