These operations commenced early in June. Vaubois forced the British from Leghorn while Augereau bullied the Papal States into an armistice and out of 34 million francs.

Lead elements crossed on 7 May

Detached from Army of the Alps and attached to the Army of Italy.

New French lines of communication.