SCUSA 73 Frequently Asked Questions

1. How should I schedule my travel to and from SCUSA 73?

   The SCUSA staff is planning multiple pickups from mass transit locations to facilitate reception on Wednesday, November 2nd.

   Delegates requiring air travel should plan to fly into Newark-Liberty International Airport (EWR), LaGuardia International Airport (LGA), or Stewart International Airport (SWF). Please schedule flights arriving no later than 1 pm on Wednesday, November 2nd to meet ground transportation to West Point.

   Delegates taking a train should plan to arrive at Garrison Station (MTA North) or Croton-Harmon Station (Amtrak) no later than 2 pm on Wednesday, November 2nd to meet ground transportation to West Point.

   The SCUSA staff will provide transportation back to mass transit locations following the conference’s conclusion on Saturday, November 5th. We recommend scheduling your outbound transportation no earlier than 4pm to allow for any traffic or other outbound transportation friction.

2. Can I drive to SCUSA 73?

   Delegates are permitted to drive to SCUSA 73 and the SCUSA staff can provide a temporary entry pass to the installation. However, you must provide personal and vehicle information to facilitate this request, and you must park your vehicle for the duration of the conference. The SCUSA staff will direct you to the designated parking area and provide ground transportation from the parking lot to the conference location.

3. What should I bring to SCUSA 7?
The conference dress code is business casual. Please bring business casual wear; business formal wear for paper presentations and the keynote address events; casual wear; and athletic clothes if you plan on conducting physical activity. Military delegates may wear their seasonal dress uniform.
Please plan to bring preferred bedding, such as a pillow and blanket, toiletries, and flip-flops for showering while residing in the cadet barracks. Additionally, please bring a laptop, notebook, pens, pencils, and anything else you may find necessary to take notes and work at your roundtables.

4. What should I NOT bring to SCUSA 73?
The United States Military Academy is a federal military installation and SCUSA participants will be visiting the United States Corps of Cadets area and mess hall. Illicit items prohibited on a federal military installation are prohibited at this conference. These include, but are not limited to, weapons of any kind (guns, knives, tasers, etc.) and any illicit drug that is illegal in federal facilities (including marijuana). SCUSA participants are guests in the cadet area, require escorts when moving around the area, and must adhere to all USMA and USCC guidance for behavior in these spaces. Participants cannot bring or consume alcohol in the cadet area. If a participant as a question on whether they can bring an item to SCUSA, please reach out to the table CPOC or the SCUSA cadet commander.

5. Where will I stay during the conference?
All delegates will stay in the cadet barracks with an assigned cadet host. Visitors to the cadet barracks must adhere to all USMA and USCC guidance for behavior in the barracks.

6. How do I sign up for SCUSA?
The SCUSA 73 staff has already delivered Invitations for this year’s SCUSA. SCUSA invites institutions to attend, and those institutions pick their delegates internally. Please engage with your academic institution to request a position at this conference or future SCUSA’s.

7. How will I receive additional information once I’ve registered for SCUSA 73?
Upon registration, the SCUSA staff will assign delegates to a roundtable. Roundtable Cadet Points of Contact (CPOCs) will reach out to each roundtable to disseminate information to include additional transportation details, how to prepare for the conference, and any adjusted scheduling or “Know Before You Go” details. CPOCs will also request specific in- and out-bound transportation details to best plan for your arrival and departure.
