THE UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY
SEEKS
DIRECTOR, ARMY CYBER INSTITUTE

The United States Military Academy is accepting applications for an Academy Professor in the Army Cyber Institute (ACI). The ACI is a team of military and civilian faculty and staff members who are a national resource for outreach, research, advice, and education in the cyber domain—engaging military, government, academic, non-profit, and industrial cyber communities for the purpose of enabling effective Army cyber operations. The position to be filled is the Director of the Army Cyber Institute. All applicants should have a demonstrated capacity for high academic achievement and scholarship. Principal responsibilities include leading an interdisciplinary team of civilian and military subject matter experts in cyber operations, along with administrative and IT support staff to accomplish Army and National objectives relating to cyber operations and cyber security. Architects and guides specialized research programs to build intellectual capital in support of Army requirements. Builds Public/private partnerships to solve pressing national security problems in the cyber domain. Teaches undergraduate courses in one or more programs. Dedication to excellence in teaching is an absolute requirement of this position. Best qualified candidates have previous college-level or professional teaching experience. Applicants should hold a Ph.D. degree in electrical engineering, computer engineering, computer science, information technology, mathematics, cyber policy, cyber law, strategic intelligence, or a closely related discipline. Multi-disciplinary breadth is a plus. Applicants must be available for the assignment in summer 2023. Applicants must have a strong commitment to the educational, military, physical, and ethical development of cadets and faculty. Candidates should possess an exemplary military record, including success in leadership positions, completion of advanced military schooling (minimum of ILE qualified), and cyber-related field experience. Applicants for the director position should be a COL or LTC(P). Current Academy Professors are eligible to apply. If selected as an Academy Professor, officer will be expected to serve at West Point until retirement.

Officers interested in this position should contact Bradley Becker, Office of the Dean, U.S. Military Academy, West Point, New York 10996. Telephone: Commercial (845)938-2105 or DSN: 688-2105; email: bradley.becker@westpoint.edu. Completed applications must be received no later than 7 October 2022.

The United States Military Academy is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.