The Salvation Army 2012 National Fact Sheet
Doing the Most Good

The Salvation Army is one of the world’s largest faith-based charities. Originally established in London in 1865, the Army has been helping people for more than 130 years in the United States.

- Last year, The Salvation Army’s 3,600 officers, 64,000 employees and 3.3 million volunteers served nearly 30 million Americans in need. That’s about one person every second.
- The Army has nearly 7,600 centers of operation covering virtually every ZIP code in the country.
- We also have a worldwide presence, providing assistance to people in more than 120 countries and territories around the world.
- Our Mission is to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and meet human needs in His name without discrimination.
- In the words of Evangeline Booth, one of the Army’s earliest leaders, “There is no reward equal to that of doing the most good to the most people in the most need.”

The Salvation Army serves millions of people through dozens of services directly targeting the needs of local communities -- from homelessness to disaster relief to substance abuse rehabilitation.

- Through the public’s generosity in 2011 in the United States alone:
  - The Salvation Army served nearly 58 million meals to the needy – that’s like making lunch for the entire populations of California and Texas combined.
  - 180,000 people received rehabilitation services through donations to Family Stores.
  - More than 183,000 underprivileged children attended summer and day camps.
  - The Army provided nearly 10 million nights of shelter.
  - 560,000 people received help during times of disaster.
  - More than 4 million families and children were served during the holidays.
  - More than 1.75 million people received help through senior, medical and institutional services.

The Salvation Army is a responsible steward of generosity in your community.

- 82 cents of every dollar The Salvation Army spends goes directly to support community service programs – far exceeding the Better Business Bureau’s guideline of 65 percent.
- According to The New York Times, “The Salvation Army is widely considered exemplary among nonprofits in handling cash collections.”
- The Salvation Army enjoys and appreciates the support of many major corporate donors at the national and local levels. Nationally, major supporters include Walmart Stores, JCPenney, The Dallas Cowboys and Target Corporation.
- All donations remain in communities where they originate.
- To donate or learn more, please visit www.SalvationArmyUSA.org, call 1-800-SAL-ARMY or contact your local Salvation Army office.
- To learn more, visit Facebook.com/SalvationArmyUSA, follow us on Twitter at Twitter.com/SalvationArmyUS, or visit our blog at Blog.SalvationArmyUSA.org.