

CLOSING THE CAMPAIGN

The need is visible. The Salvation Army is visible. This is our time.

The issue of homelessness and homeless services currently has the attention of both the media and the community. This makes now an ideal time to deliver a message of urgency.

The Salvation Army has not given up on Charlottesville in the last 114 years, and there is no reason to believe we will now.

MEDIA HIGHLIGHTS THIS WEEK

Each image below links to the full story.

Charlottesville Salvation Army requests donations to reach goal for new facilities

The Charlottesville Salvation Army is $6.3 million short of its $28 million goal to build a new Center of Hope on Ridge Street.

29 News / Aug 10

Salvation Army stresses need for new Center of Hope

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (CBS19 NEWS) — The Salvation Army says it needs $6.3 million to get started on a new Center of Hope as its current facility struggles with aging infrastructure

CBS 19 News /

With buildings in 'disrepair,' Salvation Army faces fundraising challenge

The organization needs to raise $6.3 million in 21 days to move forward with its new Center of Hope homeless facility in Charlottesville.

Cville Right Now / 01:57 AM

GIVE
NOW

