

UNITED STATES TENNIS ASSOCIATION

USTA BY THE NUMBERS

- In 2011, USTA directed $49 million to communities across America to build, expand and refurbish public tennis courts, fund scholarships, programs and grants to help serve America's youth.
- The USTA's Public Facility Funding Program has helped build and/or renovate over 25,000 tennis courts since 2005 in over 350 communities throughout the U.S.
- The USTA works with over 1,400 park agencies investing approximately $1.5 million in 2011 to support tennis programming, training and infrastructure.
- The USTA's School Tennis Initiative helped to deliver tennis programs to over 1,200,000 kids in 2011.
- The USTA has over 600 National Junior Tennis and Learning chapters throughout the U.S. offering Tennis and Educational programming to more than 250,000 underserved youth each year.
- USTA has provided over 170,000 racquets to hundreds of after school programs that serve up much more than just tennis.

USTA SERVES* BY THE NUMBERS

- For over 10 years, USTA Serves*, the national charitable foundation of the USTA, has served at risk youth through the powerful integration of tennis, health, and education.
- Since its creation, USTA Serves* has awarded close to $14 million in education scholarships and program grants. These grants help fund mentoring, tutoring and nutritional guidance programs for children and people with disabilities – serving up a real difference.
- USTA Serves funds over 226 programs in over 172 cities in 43 states.
- USTA Serves funded programs provide 18 million hours of mentoring, tutoring, and nutritional guidance to more than 225,000 children.
- Over 90% of high school seniors in USTA Serves programs graduate from high school.
- Over 90% of USTA Serves scholarship recipients attend college for four years.

USTA Serves Incorporated is a separate not-for-profit corporation from United States Tennis Association Incorporated. USTA Serves is a 501 ©(3), tax-exempted, not-for-profit, charitable and educational organization. To learn more about USTA Serves Incorporated, please go to USTAServes.com*