

University of Utah @ Eccles Tennis Center

Adult Programs

Heading up the programming and overseeing all the details pertaining to the programs, is Jason Weir-Smith, former Top 100 ATP Doubles Player and TCU All American. With his personality, tennis experience and expertise, business background and organizational skills, the facility is supremely confident that this will be a massive success for our tennis community.

Eccles will be offering tennis classes for adult players of all skill levels. In addition to providing key fundamentals for your strokes and serves, our programs primary goals are to make your experience at Eccles fun, educational, and rewarding.
