

Donor Privacy Policy

The USTA Foundation Incorporated respects the privacy of all donors. We believe in safeguarding personal information and ensuring that donor privacy is protected. Your name, address and any other personal data you provide will be used only by the USTA Foundation Incorporated to keep you informed of our activities including our programs, special events, and funding needs. If at any time you choose not to receive these communications, you may contact the USTA Foundation Incorporated and we will gladly remove your name from our mailing list.

The USTA Foundation Incorporated publishes an Honor Roll of donors in various publications that are available on our website. In addition, the United States Tennis Association Incorporated (“USTA”) as the Sole Member of the USTA Foundation Incorporated has access to the information for corporate governance and compliance purposes only, in no event shall the USTA rent, sell, give away, or trade the donor lists of the USTA Foundation Incorporated or any information contained on those lists. Traditionally an Honor Roll is printed within the Gala package and on publications printed for various special events as well as end of the year mailings and annual financial statements. All donor requests to remain anonymous are respected.

Electronic Personal Records

Donor information is maintained in a secured database, and only authorized personnel have access to this information and only for appropriate business purposes.

Mailing Lists

The USTA Foundation Incorporated does not rent, sell, give away, or trade its donor lists or any information contained on those lists. Donor information is used by the USTA Foundation Incorporated for charitable purposes only as described above and will not be used by any entity outside of the USTA Foundation Incorporated. To review personal information collected and/or request changes, please contact Ginalyse Ingles at Ingles@usta.com

Authorized Release of Information

The USTA Foundation Incorporated may be legally required to disclose information on occasion. The USTA Foundation Incorporated complies with all applicable legal requirements and standards.