A Message from the United Way Worldwide
Board of Trustees

At the core, to care for one another, we have to trust one another.

As Volunteers, employees, and representatives of United Way Worldwide, we have a responsibility to uphold the highest of ethical standards—both for ourselves and for the benefit of our communities. We believe these standards go beyond compliance with laws and regulations—calling us to fulfill higher obligations as stewards of the public trust. Upholding these ethical standards is at the heart of what we do and who we are as a worldwide organization. Conducting our activities with honesty, integrity, and in the best interests of the organization we serve, is essential to preserving and growing the United Way network, brand, and reputation.

As we move forward in a worldwide environment, we must revisit and renew our ethical commitments. Because our success as a worldwide organization requires a high degree of accountability and ethical behavior, we have aligned internal policies to reflect our commitment to ethical practices and to provide sanctions for noncompliance.

In order to effectively address ethical challenges, there must be a mutual commitment between the organization and its volunteers and staff to seek and provide guidance and clarification when there are questions about applying our principles and standards. Only by continuing to work together on these issues can we ensure a strong United Way culture that fulfills its commitment to build and maintain the public trust.

Our Core Values

The mission of United Way Worldwide is to improve lives by mobilizing the caring power of communities around the world to advance the common good.

This critical role requires that all of us involved in United Way Worldwide, who foster such an essential public good, must assume the responsibility of earning public trust.

Accordingly, United Way Worldwide plays a unique role both as a leader in the health and human services sector and as a major resource to member United Way organizations to build trust through all that we do. This bond of trust goes far beyond legal or regulatory requirements to include our core values, and ethics.

To fulfill this special obligation, our core values provide the foundation on which we base our actions and decisions.

1. Impact and commitment to community success
   - We make a positive difference and have a measurable impact of enduring consequence.
• We make a difference in our community and collectively in our world. Our efforts change lives.
• We are committed to a United Way that is relevant to all people, all cultures, all communities, and the times.
• We assume responsibility as good stewards of and are accountable for our work and sustainable results.

2. Volunteerism
• We are made relevant and impactful through the spirit of volunteerism.
• United Way is outstanding in the way it invites volunteers to express their philanthropic beliefs.
• We believe that the most effective models of service and excellence are created through the leadership of volunteers.

3. Inclusiveness
• We are strong only when we are inclusive.
• We aspire to involve every segment of the community in every aspect of our work.
• We are committed to understanding the political, economic, social, and cultural context of our work and activities.
• We act in ways that respect the dignity, uniqueness, and intrinsic worth of every person—the community, the donors, our own staff and families, boards, and volunteers.
• We believe in a movement built from the rich diversity and gifts of all people in all systems.

4. Integrity and accountability
• We act with integrity that justifies trust.
• We uphold our core mission in a manner that promotes the trust of our volunteers, donors, and stakeholders.
• We maintain the highest standards of excellence and accountability, including prudent use of finances, and accurate and honest disclosures of information.

5. Innovation
• We value innovation in community building to effect positive change.
• We are effective educators and conveners—bringing all segments of the community together to promote individual wellbeing and common good.
• We are leaders of a process that multiplies the impact of people’s innate desire and capacity to care for one another.
• We help transform visions of compassion and giving into dynamic reality.
Code of Ethics

United Way Worldwide is committed to the highest ethical standards. Indeed, based on the unique trust placed in United Way Worldwide to serve the public good, we have a special obligation to act ethically.

The success of the United Way system and our reputation depend upon the ethical conduct of everyone affiliated with the United Way Worldwide. Volunteers, staff, and representatives set an example for each other, and for member United Way organizations, by their pursuit of excellence in high standards of performance, professionalism, and ethical conduct.

This United Way Worldwide Code of Ethics is based on our mission and guided by our fundamental values (see our core values): impact and commitment to community success, volunteerism, inclusiveness, innovation and integrity and accountability.

We are mindful that these core values must be clearly articulated, communicated and continuously reinforced. In addition, more detailed policies, guidelines, explanations, definitions, and examples are often needed to bring these values into actual practice. While no document can anticipate all of the challenges that may arise, the Code of Ethics communicates key guidelines and will assist United Way Worldwide Volunteers, staff, and representatives in making good decisions that are ethical and in accordance with applicable legal requirements. All are encouraged to discuss any questions or concerns they have with a supervisor or with the United Way Worldwide General Counsel and Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer.

1. Personal and professional integrity
   A personal and organizational commitment to integrity in all circumstances benefits each individual as well as the organization. We, therefore:
   • Strive to meet the highest standards of performance, quality, service, and achievement in working towards the United Way Worldwide mission.
   • Communicate honestly and openly and avoid misrepresentation.
   • Promote a working environment where honesty, open communication, and minority opinions are valued.
   • Exhibit respect and fairness toward all those with whom we come into contact.

2. Accountability
   United Way Worldwide is responsible to its stakeholders, which include member United Way Worldwide organizations, donors and all those who have placed faith in United Way Worldwide. To uphold this trust, we:
   • Promote good stewardship of United Way Worldwide resources, including membership fees, grants and other contributions that are used to pay operating expenses, salaries, and employee benefits.
• Refrain from using organizational resources for non-United Way Worldwide purposes.
• Observe and comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations and with United Way Worldwide internal policies.

3. Solicitations and voluntary giving
The most responsive contributors are those who have the opportunity to become informed and involved. We therefore:
• Promote voluntary giving in dealing with donors and vendors.
• Refrain from any use of coercion in fundraising activities, including predicking professional advancement on response to solicitations.

4. Inclusion
United Way Worldwide is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to the principle of inclusion. We, therefore:
• Value, champion, and embrace inclusion in all aspects of United Way Worldwide activities and respect others without regard to race, color, religion, creed, age, sex, gender identity, gender expression, national origin or ancestry, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, and accessibility status as a qualified disabled or handicapped individual.
• Support affirmative action and equal employment opportunity programs throughout United Way Worldwide.
• Refuse to engage in or tolerate in any other form of discrimination or harassment.

5. Conflicts of interest
To avoid any conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest which could tarnish the reputation of United Way Worldwide as well as undermine the public’s trust in all United Way organizations, United Way Worldwide staff and representatives:
• Avoid any activity or outside interest which conflicts or appears to conflict with the best interest of United Way Worldwide, including involvement with a current or potential United Way Worldwide vendor, grantee, or competing organization unless disclosed to and not deemed to be inappropriate by the United Way Worldwide General Counsel and Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer or, for Volunteers, to the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees in accordance with the United Way Worldwide Conflict of Interest Policy.
• Ensure that outside employment and other activities do not adversely affect the performance of their United Way Worldwide duties or the achievement of United Way Worldwide’s mission.
• Ensure that travel, entertainment, and related expenses are incurred on a basis consistent with the mission of United Way Worldwide and not for personal gain or interests.
• Decline any gift, gratuity, or favor in the performance of United Way Worldwide duties except for:
  (1) promotional items of nominal value,
  (2) food, transportation, lodging or entertainment directly related to United Way Worldwide business, and
  (3) occasional food, beverage, and/or entertainment of nominal value that are shared with the person who has offered to pay (unless offered in the process of selecting or extending a contract). Gifts should be declined in a manner that is respectful of the customs or manners in the particular country, or where turning down a gift would be culturally discourteous, accepted on behalf of United Way Worldwide and shared with the organization.

• Refrain from influencing the selection of staff, consultants, or vendors who are relatives or personal friends or affiliated with, employ, or employed by a person with whom they have a relationship that adversely affects the appearance of impartiality.

• Avoid appearances of impropriety.

• Refrain from making any payment that may improperly influence government officials, business partners, or other individuals. Exercise due diligence to ensure funds are not used or diverted to illegal payments of any kind. Ensure payments are in accordance with United Way Worldwide financial policies.

6. United Way Worldwide Volunteers, Senior Administrative Personnel and Key Employees Conflict of Interest Disclosures
Volunteers, Senior Administrative Personnel and Key Employees have fiduciary duties to United Way Worldwide to always act in good faith, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of United Way Worldwide (the “duty of care” and the “duty of loyalty”). Persons occupying these positions of trust are subject to United Way Worldwide’s Conflict of Interest Policy for Directors, Officers and Key Persons, as that policy may be amended from time to time (the "Conflict of Interest Policy"). The Conflict of Interest Policy provides, generally, that such persons:

• Should not knowingly take any action, or make any statement, intended to influence the conduct of United Way Worldwide in such a way to confer any financial benefit on themselves, their immediate family members, or any organization in which they or their immediate family members have a significant interest as stakeholders, directors, or officers; and

• Must disclose all known conflicts or potential conflicts of interest in any matter before the board of trustees, if they are board members, or any committee upon which they serve, and withdraw from the meeting room during any discussion, review and voting in connection with such matter.
In accordance with the Conflict of Interest Policy, Volunteers, Senior Administrative Personnel and Key Employees shall complete and submit, on at least an annual basis, a Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form ("form"). The form and the disclosures made on the form are subject to amendment, as needed, including whenever there is a material change in the circumstances of the reporting person that would make the disclosure then on file materially false or misleading.

7. Confidentiality and privacy
Confidentiality is a hallmark of professionalism. We, therefore:

- Ensure that all information, which is confidential, privileged, or nonpublic, is not disclosed inappropriately.
- Refrain from use of information acquired in the course of work for personal gain.
- Respect the privacy rights of all individuals in the performance of their United Way Worldwide duties.

8. Political contributions
United Way Worldwide encourages individual participation in civic affairs. However, as a charitable organization, United Way Worldwide may not make contributions to any candidate for public office or political committee and may not intervene in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. We, therefore:

- Refrain from making any contributions to any candidate for public office or political committee on behalf of United Way Worldwide.
- Refrain from making any contributions to any candidate for public office or political committee in a manner that may create the appearance that the contribution is on behalf of United Way Worldwide.
- Refrain from using any organizational financial resources, facilities, or personnel to endorse or oppose a candidate for public office.
- Clearly communicate that we are not acting on behalf of the organization, if identified as an official of United Way Worldwide, while engaging in political activities in an individual capacity.
- Refrain from engaging in political activities in a manner that may create the appearance that such activity is by or on behalf of United Way Worldwide.

9. Guidance and disclosure
Volunteers, Senior Administrative Personnel, Key Persons, staff, and representatives are encouraged to seek guidance from the Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer concerning the interpretation or application of this Code of Ethics. Each member of the United Way Worldwide Community is expected to uphold the standards of United Way Worldwide and to report observed or suspected violations of the Code or any other apparent irregularity to either his or her supervisor, Chief People and Culture Officer, the Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer or if a member prefers, they may make the report anonymously and confidentially to Navex Global/ EthicsPoint toll free 888-559-8519 or online at https://secure.ethicspoint.com.
Reports of possible breaches will be handled in the following manner:

- All reports of possible breaches will be treated in confidence as much as the organization’s duty to investigate and the law allow. If confidentiality cannot be maintained, the individual disclosing the possible breach will be notified.
- All reported breaches will be investigated and, if needed, appropriate action taken based upon the policies of the organization, including termination of employment for serious misconduct, fraud, theft, falsification of records, dishonesty, or violation of United Way Worldwide policies.
- Any report of suspected or known accounting, auditing or financial impropriety or fraud shall be reported to the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees. If a member of the United Way Worldwide suspects or knows of financial impropriety or fraud, such a report may be made anonymously and confidentially through Navex/ EthicsPoint toll free 888-559-8519 or online at https://secure.ethicspoint.com so that it may be routed to the Audit Committee.
- Retaliation against a person who suspects and reports a breach in good faith will be treated as an independent breach of the Code of Ethics.
- United Way Worldwide affirms prompt and fair resolution of all reported breaches.
