A LOOK AT THE BREWERS

The Brewers are undefeated in league play through their first five games, their best start to conference play since joining the Liberty League. Last time out, VC faced Clarkson and topped the conference foe 2-1. Senior Jose Novas and freshman Jonathan Bow recorded goals to give the Brewers their fourth league win of the season. Bow’s goal in the 73rd minute was the first of his career and proved the game-winner.

The Brewers continue their strong offensive presence, totaling 181 shot attempts and 64 corner kicks on the season thus far.

Jose Novas, Hayden Van Brewer and Mattie Mrlak all have four or more goals for the Brewers so far this season, leading the offense. Novas leads the team in points (13) while the three of them are tied in assists (3).

Kevin Ballant is the team leader with four assists this season.
The Brewers are first in the league in assists (20), revealing an unselfish team and a versatile roster of players who can contribute to the game, with 10 players contributing to the assist stat.

Sophomore goalkeeper Will Marment has only allowed 6 goals this season while picking up 31 saves. His save percentage sits at 0.838 with a goals against average of 0.73.

A LOOK AT THE SAINTS

The Saints currently lead the league in points (73), goals (26), and assists (21), making them a tough opponent for the Brewers.

Brendan McNamara, the Saints leading goal scorer, is ranked third in the Liberty League for goals (6) and third in the league in shots (42).

Tapshak Augustine, totaling four assists so far, is fourth in the league for assists. 12 players have scored for the Saints and 12 have assisted, which reveals a strong offensive line for the Saints and depth up top.

The team has combined for 198 shots and 26 goals, giving them a goals per game average of 2.00, the most in this league.

The Saints are 2-3 on penalty kicks and have had 62 corner kicks throughout the season.

Goalkeeper Mike Smith has a goals against average of 1.54 and a save percentage of 0.696, ranking him 9th in the league in both categories.

NATHANIEL LINDLEY

Nathaniel Lindley has appeared in just one game for the Brewers this season, he logged 10 minutes in a 4-0 win for Vassar over Western Connecticut on September 1.

In total, the defender has seen game action 11 times through his three plus years as a member of the Vassar Men’s Soccer team.

Prior to Vassar, Lindley lettered and started four years at Marcus Whitman High School in Rushville, New York. He was named the team captain for one season, and named a first team all-league selection as a sophomore, junior, and senior.

As a junior and a senior he led his team in scoring. Lindley also led his club team to the 2012 regional championship and helped them advance to the national finals. He also lettered three years in indoor track and was the NHS treasurer and class treasurer.
