A LOOK AT THE BREWERS

The Brewers have been off for six days before today's game, following a tough 2-0 loss at the University of Rochester last weekend. Vassar hasn't played at home in two weeks, which was its last victory as the Brewers knocked off RPI 5-1 in that contest. Vassar freshman Dara Studnitzer is coming off her first Liberty League Rookie of the Week after a pair of scores last week.

The Brewers have been led offensively by junior Megan Caveny, who has chalked up 11 goals and two assists on the season. Fellow junior Emily Poehlein has tallied six times, while four other players each sport three goals apiece for VC. Sophomores Sam Plante and Cristina Lopez each have four assists, and junior Monica Feeley leads the team with two defensive saves. Sophomore Liz Rotolo has started all 10 games in cage, allowing just nine goals.

A LOOK AT THE HERONS

William Smith comes to Poughkeepsie this afternoon winners in its last three games, including a 5-1 victory on Tuesday afternoon at Oswego State. The Herons’ offense has been on a roll as of late, as they have posted 12 goals over the last three games including scoring six in a home win over Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute last weekend.

Senior forward Hannah Wood has continued her assault on the record books at William Smith, as she became the all-time goals leader at the College on Tuesday with two goals at Oswego. The pair of tallies were her 89th and 90th of her career, as she now sits with 202 points for her career. Fallon Adair leads the Liberty League in assists this season with 10. Senior midfielder Alexandra Frary, whose older sister Whitney coaches women’s soccer at VC, has 12 points in 2017.

BREWER BIO ON...

MOLLY YOUSE

Youse, a junior back from New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, has been a starting contributor for Vassar since her first contest for the Brewers. The steady and consistent defensive player has started all 10 games this year as a junior, taking six shots while putting four on goal. Youse started all 14 games she played as a freshman, and then got the starting nod in 12 of the 18 games last year as a sophomore. Youse was a big part of a defense last year that allowed only 13 goals on the season, which ranked as the best defensive season in program history. Though not quite as stingy this season, Vassar’s back line has still been strong and much is thanks to Youse, as VC has surrendered 11 goals in 11 games which is second-best in the Liberty League coming into the weekend.
