BREWER BIO ON...

STORM SIDELEAU

Senior Storm Sideleau, from Contoocook, New Hampshire, has been a steady and effective forward for the Brewers over the last four seasons. Sideleau is the lone senior on this year’s squad, and has been of the winningest player in the history of the program, as she has the chance to go down as the winningest player in program history. Sideleau has posted three goals this season, and now has 45 points for her career, moving her into No. 10 on the all-time list at VC. Last season, Sideleau chalked up 15 points on five goals and five assists.

Since getting her first start of the season last weekend at Brockport, she has tallied three times while putting all seven of her shots on cage. Sideleau also ranks in the top five all-time in assists with 13 career helpers, while scoring 16 times as a member of the Brewers.
