A LOOK AT THE BREWERS
The Brewers extended their winning streak to three games with a 2-1 win over Oneonta on Saturday afternoon. Freshmen Ally Tahyer, Ashley Ferry, and Emily Longo led the team on the offensive end having a hand in each of the Brewers’ goals. Tahyer buried her first career goal off Longo’s first career assist in the 51st minute. Then in the 78th minute, Ferry put one away to give Vassar the lead for good.
Ferry now ranks in the top three in the League in goals (4), assists (5), and points (13). Along with Ferry, the Vassar freshmen class has had an immediate impact on the team with 8 goals and 9 assists offensively. And on the defensive end, Fiona Walsh has made all six starts while picking up 36 saves.
Vassar has continued to mix and match their starting lineup this season having 15 different players earn starts. Only six players have started all six games so far this season.
The Brewers get better as time goes on as they have proved to be a second half team so far. They have scored two more goals, taken 10 more shots, and had eight more corners in the second half of games then they have had in the first half this season.
Junior Sara Seper has been a workhorse in the midfield, logging 469 minutes and two assists.

A LOOK AT THE HAWKS
New Paltz comes into Tuesday with two consecutive victories under their belt, defeating John Jay and Manhattanville by a combined score of 11-0. The Hawks have been strong offensively averaging 13.9 shots a game with 2.57 of those resulting in goals. Although, much of this is accounted for in their 8-0 victory over John Jay in which they recorded 29 shots.
New Paltz’s offensive production has been very even and widespread with no player having more than eight points this season but seven with at least four.
The two offensive leaders for the Hawks are Gabriela Cabello and Danielle Grossi. Both have tallied three goals and assisted on another two this season.
There has been a legitimate competition in net for the Hawks as both Megan Tornatore and Katelyn Cordero have started at least three games between the pipes this season.
New Paltz does not have a single player who has started all seven games this season and only six who have started six games.
