A LOOK AT THE BREWERS

The Brewers extended their winning streak to four games with a 6-0 victory over New Paltz on Tuesday afternoon. Savannah Cutler knocked in the first Brewer hat trick since 2011, while Audrey Pillsbury tallied a pair of goals. Two-time reigning Liberty League Rookie of the Week Ashley Ferry tallied a goal and an assist. Ally Thayer, Sara Seper, and Hannah Daley all contributed an assist as well.

During Vassar’s winning streak they have outscored their opponents 19-1. The team has been stronger in the second half, with eight more goals, 22 more shots, and nine more corners than in the first half.

Freshman Ashley Ferry ranks in the top three in the Liberty League in goals (5), assists (6), and points (16). The freshmen class as a whole has had an immediate impact on this team with 9 goals and 12 assists offensively.

Midfielders Sara Seper and Amanda McFarland have both started all seven games for the Brewers while chipping in on offense with two goals and four assists between them.

In net, Fiona Walsh has played all but 19 minutes this season, racking up 38 saves while posting a 0.99 goals against average.

A LOOK AT THE TIGERS

Senior goalie Kelly Rogers has started all seven games for the Tigers while posting a 0.99 goals against average.

In net, Fiona Walsh has played all but 19 minutes this season, racking up 38 saves while posting a 0.99 goals against average.
