A LOOK AT THE BREWERS

The Brewers continue their Liberty League weekend this afternoon against the Bombers of Ithaca College in the first meeting between the two teams as conference foes. Vassar is fresh off a 3-0 win over Rochester Institute of Technology last evening, as Devan Gallagher finished with a team-best 15 kills, while sophomore Jane McLeod finished with 10 kills. Freshman Anna Zucchini added 13 digs, while junior Annie Mac-Millian handed out 30 assists. Vassar hit .237 for the match, adding to its Liberty League hitting percentage of .251.

The Brewers are the Liberty League leaders in hitting percentage, but also hold opposition to the lowest hitting clip in the conference at .136. Vassar tops the Liberty League in assists per set with 12.26, while its 122 service aces this season are also the most in the conference.

A LOOK AT THE BOMBERS

The newest Liberty League member comes to Kenyon Hall for the first time this evening, as the preseason conference pick to win the Liberty League is currently earning votes in the AVCA Top 25 Poll. Ithaca knocked off Bard College last night in three games, as freshman Reagan Stone led the way with seven kills. Ithaca is riding high right now, winning its last six matches, including wins over ranked teams Swarthmore College and University of Mary Washington.

The Bombers are holding teams to just a .144 hitting percentage this season, while posting 1.59 blocks per game. Ithaca is last in the conference in aces per set with just 1.61, but that can be attributed to the very strong schedule the Bombers have played thus far. Today also marks the return to Vassar for head coach Johan Dufier, who is back in the Liberty League after a successful stint at Clarkson University.

BREWER BIO ON ...

JANE MCLEOD

Sophomore Jane McLeod burst onto the scene in 2016, as the then freshman was one of the best newcomers in all of Division III volleyball. The outside hitter from New York was named as the 2016 Liberty League Rookie of the Year last season, also earning AVCA New York Region Rookie of the Year while garnering AVCA All-American Honorable Mention honors. McLeod has improved her game this season, as she has started to play all the way around, but her offensive game has continued to be very strong. Through 12 matches this season, McLeod has posted 104 kills while averaging 3.59 kills per set, hitting .248. McLeod is second in the conference behind teammate Devan Gallagher in kills per set, while also sitting 10th in hitting percentage, which is strong for an outside hitter.
