A REMINDER... The NCAA, the Liberty League and Vassar College promote good sportsmanship by student-athletes, coaches and spectators. We request your cooperation by supporting the participants and officials in a positive manner. Profanity, racial or sexist comments or other intimidating actions directed at officials, student-athletes, coaches or team representatives - as well as public intoxication, the consumption or possession of alcoholic beverages and tobacco products are grounds for removal from the site of competition and other disciplinary actions. Thank you!
A Look at the Brewers

- The Vassar men’s tennis team was picked fourth in the Liberty League Pre-season Poll on Monday.
- Newly paired doubles team Nicholas Demaria and Nick Zuczek are undefeated this spring, going 3-0 so far including a nice win over Skidmore College last weekend.
- David Gandham is 7-2 on the season, the best singles record on the team at No. 2 and No. 5 singles.
- Jeremy Auh and Adam Krueger lead the team in doubles record, going 5-3 on the season and playing No. 1 doubles.
- Auh also has the second-best record in singles, going 5-2, playing No. 3.
- Vassar has had great success at No. 2 and No. 3, going 5-1 at those positions this season in dual matches.
- The No. 3 position has wielded a 5-1 record in doubles this year.

A Look at the Cougars

- This weekend marks Clark University’s first match in 2018.
- In their last competition in October, Clark fell 7-0 to Holy Cross.
- Clark University is tied with Wheaton College for the No. 5 position in the New England Women’s and Men’s Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Preseason Coaches’ Poll.
- A young team, Clark’s five freshman will look for an opportunity to prove themselves in their first contest of the spring.
- Lenny Siegel, the team’s sole senior, notched four wins apiece in singles and doubles last season, and will look to get his final season off to a strong start.
- Sophomore Jack Han was the highest-scoring returning singles player on the team last season, with an 8-5 record.
- Head coach Mickey Cahoon is in his 11th season with the Cougars, going 4-10 last season, while posting a 75-95 overall mark.
