

I'm not robot

Continue

Ielts academic speaking topics and answers

IELTS speaking part 1 topics and questions. Prepare for your test by developing ideas for topics and practicing answers to questions. Download a free copy of most topics and questions on this page: IELTS Speaking Part 1 Themes &quot;&quot;Questions&quot; what is IELTS speaking part 1? A face-to-face interview with the examiner (4-5 minutes) 12 Questions based on 3 Topics Questions about yourself, life and your country below is a list of topics and questions that the examiner can ask you in Part 1 of the IELTS language test. Speaking Part 1 Common Themes List Work Training Home Art Birthday Children's Clothes Computers Daily Routine Dictionaries Family &quot;&quot;Friends Flowers Food Going to Happiness Entertainment Internet Leisure TimeMusic Neighbors &quot;&quot;Neighbors &quot;&quot;Pets Pets ShoppingSport TV Transport Time These four themes are most common in IELTS talking part 1. You need to prepare ideas and practice in response to these questions. What's your job? Where do you work? Why did you pick this job? Is this a popular job in your country? Do you like your job? Are you doing well with your colleagues? How was your first day? What responsibilities do you have at work? If you had the chance, would you change jobs? Do you plan to continue your work in the future? What are you studying? Where do you study this? Why did you choose this topic? Is this a popular site in your country? Do you like the subject? Are you dealing with your colleagues? How was your first day? What are the main aspects of your subject? If you had the chance, would you change the subject? Are you planning to get a job in the same area as your subject? Where's your hometown? Do you like hometown? Do you visit your hometown often? What's your hometown? What's the oldest place in your hometown? What's there for a foreigner to do or see in his hometown? How can your hometown be improved? Has your hometown changed since you were a child? Is there good public transport in your hometown? Do you think your hometown is a good place to have children? Where's your home? Do you live in a house or an apartment? Who do you live with? Are there many rooms in your home? What's your favorite room? How are the walls decorated? What would you change in your home? Are you planning on living there in the future? What facilities are there near your home? What's your neighborhood like? Do most people live at home in your country? General questions in speaking Art Part 1 Art Are you good at art? Did you study art at school when you were a kid? What art do you like? Is art popular in your country? Have you ever been to a gallery? Do you think children can benefit from going to art galleries? Birthdays Do you enjoy your birthdays? Are you celebrating your birthday? What did you do on your last birthday? Do you remember a birthday party? who you enjoyed as a child? Do most of the Celebrate your birthdays with a party in your country? Which birthdays are considered important in your country? Did you like your childhood? What's your first memory of your childhood? Did you have many friends when you were a kid? What did you like to do when you were a kid? Do you think it is better for children to grow up in the city or in the countryside? Clothes are important to you? What kind of clothes do you usually wear? Do you ever wear the traditional clothes of your country? Where do you buy your clothes? Have you ever worn a uniform? Most people in your country follow fashion? Do computers often use a computer? How do you usually get out online? Prefer desktops or laptops? What are you using your computer for? Do you think it's important to learn to use a computer? Every day, when do you get up in the morning? Do you repeat yourself every day? What is your daily life? Do you change your habits? Is this your daily routine today, like it was when you were a kid? Do you think it's important to have a daily routine? DictionariesUse a dictionary often? What are you using dictionaries for? What dictionaries do you think are most useful? Do you think dictionaries are useful for learning a language? What information can you find in the dictionary? Useful video tutorial: Dictionary of vocabulary EveningsWhat do you often do in the evening? Do you do the same thing every night? Would you rather spend your evenings with family or friends? Have you worked or studied at night? What is a popular activity for young people in your country in the evening? Do you do the same thing at night as when you were a kid? Family &quot;&quot;with friends Do you spend a lot of time with your family? Who are you closest to in your family? Would you rather spend time with your family or friends? Who's your best friend? Are you still friends with people from your childhood? Is family important in your country? Do you like flowers? What's your favorite flower? When was the last time you gave flowers to someone? Do flowers have a special meaning in your country? Why do women like flowers more than men? FoodWhat is your favorite food? Have you always liked the same food? Is there anything you don't like? What is a common meal in your country? Do you have a healthy diet? What do you think of fast food? Do you go out often at night? What do you like to do when you go out? Would you rather go out alone or with friends? How often do you go out for a week? Where do most young people like to go out in your country? Are you happy? What usually makes you happy? Does time sometimes affect your feelings? Why do you feel unhappy? Do you think people in your country are generally happy people? Do you have hobbies? What equipment do you need for it? Do you think your hobbies are too much? be shared with others? Did you have a hobby as a child? What hobbies are popular in your country? Why do you think people have hobbies? InternetHow often do they rotate online? What are you using the Internet for? How to get online? Do you have your own computer? What is your favorite website? Do you think children should be allowed unattended internet access? LeisureWhat is your favorite leisure time? What were you happy to do in your spare time as a child? Would you rather spend your free time with others or alone? What is the usual leisure activity in your country? Most people in your country get two days off a week? Do you think leisure is important? Music Do you like music? What's your favorite music? Can you sing? Did you study music at school? If you could learn a musical instrument, what would it be? Do you think music is important? Neighbors and neighbors Do you like your neighbors? Are your neighbors usually close? What's your neighborhood like? Do you think this neighborhood is a good place for kids? How can your neighborhood improve? Do you think it's important to have a good relationship with your neighbors? How do you usually get the news? Do you read newspapers often? What news do you usually follow? How do most people get the news in your country? Do you think international news is important? Pets Do you have a pet? Do you like animals? What's your favorite animal? What is a popular pet to have in your country? Did you have a pet as a child? Why do people have pets? Do you read often? What's your favorite kind of book to read? Do you read newspapers often? Do you have e-books? What books did you read as a child? Do you think it is important to encourage children to read? Do you like to shop? What's your favorite store? Would you rather shop alone or with other people? What kind of shops are there where you live? Have you ever bought anything online? Do you think men and women have different opinions about shopping? Sport Do you like sports? What's your favorite sport? Do you watch sports on TV a lot? Did you play sports when you were a kid? What is the most popular sport in your country? How are most people in your country in shape? Do you watch TV a lot? What kind of stuff are you watching on TV? What's your favorite TV program? Have you seen other people's programs or movies? What did you watch on TV when you were a kid? Do you think kids should watch TV? Transport what arrived today? What is your favorite mode of transport? Have you ever used public transport? Do you like the transport system in your country? What's the difference between taking a bus and taking a train? Time is the time, like today? What's your favorite time? Do you like the weather in your country? Is the weather the same in all parts of your country? Whether the time is how are you feeling? Does the weather in your country ever affect transport? More topics for speaking and speaking questions part 1 and part 2. IELTS Part 2 Themes and Questions IELTS Speaking Part 3 Themes &quot;&quot;Recommend &quot;&quot;... Free Subscribe to receive my new tutorials by email 50 Recent IELTS Talking Topics 2020 Part 2 &quot;&quot;3 with sample group 9 sample responses for all topics part 1,2,3 in 2020. You can look at IELTS Speaking Actual Tests 2020 &quot;&quot;Sample Answers (Ebook)&quot;&quot;The reviewer will give you a replica card along with paper and pencil, and as soon as you receive the replica card, you need to start preparing for the topic. You will be given 1 minute to prepare for the given topic. Then you will need to talk for about 1-2 minutes. The reviewer will let you know when to start talking. He talks all the time until the examiner wants you to stop. Latest IELTS speaking Part 2 Themes in 2020 (Jan - September 2020) - Updating the speaking test in IELTS is a test for which many students get nervous. The reason for this may be that most of them are afraid of the questions the examiner may ask them. They can also worry about pausing for too long while talking and seem less confident. So, it is better to think about your answer first, and for this, you will need to practice well. So for your practice, we provide you with some of the most frequently asked questions about IELTS in 2020.1. A house or apartment in which you would like to live in IELTS Speaking Part 2, Describe a house or apartment in which you would like to live. You have to say: where is/ where would it be to do there who (you want) to live with it and explain why you would like to live in this place. $18 $37 Written by professional IELTS teachers to help applicants on the big day IELTS IELTS Speaking Part 3 You think it's better to rent or buy a place to live? How easy is it to find a place to live in your country? Do you agree that young people have the right age to stop living with their parents? What options are available for young couples seeking accommodation in your country? What are some of the pleasures that are involved in creating a home for themselves? 2. Interesting animal that you have seen IELTS Speaking Part 2 Describe an interesting animal you have seen You must say: What animal was when and where you saw it and explain how you feel about this animal IELTS Speaking Part 3 What animals have people in their homes? A lot of animals disappear these days. What do you think of that? Why is it happening? Previously, humans used animals for their work. What do people use to do their job? It's a good idea. Successful Small Business IELTS Speaking Part 2 Describe a successful small business you know You need to say: what business/company is what this business does, how you know about this business and explain why you think this business/company is successful. IELTS Speaking Part 3 What qualities are needed to become a company leader (or CEO or manager)? In general, what factors do you think to determine whether a small company will become successful or not? Do you think the latest technologies play an important role in the development of the company? What do you think of charities? What do you think is better, start your own business or work for someone else? Also check: 4. Crowded place that you want to IELTS Talking Part 2 Describe a crowded place that you were. You must say: when you went where the place was (or, who you were there and who went there and explained how you felt about the place. IELTS Speaking Part 3 Why are many people happy to go crowded places? Where (or what) would you say it's the most crowded place in your city? Would you say that it is important for a city to have amusement (and/or leisure) facilities? Why do you think people choose to live in big cities (despite certain problems)? How do you think cities abroad are different from those in your country? Is urban planning important? 5. A family member you spend with IELTS Speaking Part 2 Describe a family member with which you spend a lot of time, you should say: who is that person you usually do together, what kind of person he/she is and explain why you spend the most time with him/her. IELTS Speaking Part 3 What are the advantages of strong family relationships? How many generations usually live under the same roof in your country? What are the benefits and disadvantages of a family of several generations living together? Do both parents have the same responsibilities in caring for their children? 6. A person often in the news IELTS Talking part 2 Describe a person who is often in the news and who you want to meet. You have to tell who this person is, how do you know why he/she is often in the news and explain why you would like to meet him/ IELTS Speaking Part 3 What is the difference between new media and old media? Do you think the content in the newspapers is reliable? Do you think it's necessary for people to watch other people's news? How has social media changed the way we consume news? What (famous) people are usually in the news in your country? 7. The desired change in the local IELTS area Speaking part 2 Describe a change that can improve your area. You must say: what will be the change that could be made this change, what problems are causing the need for this change, and explain how this change would improve your local area. IELTS Speaking Part 3 Why don't old people like change? Do you think it's important for people to communicate with are you? How people communicate your neighbors? 8. Performance you liked watching IELTS Speaking Part 2 Describe a performance you enjoyed watching. You have to say: what is the performance when and where you watched the performance you performed (or who performed) and explain why you enjoyed the performance. IELTS Speaking Part 3 Do you think traditional performances are important? What's the difference between watching live and watching it on TV? How do you plan on watching a dance performance or a stage game affect children? IELTS Speaking Part 2 Describe an important text message that you received. You should say: who sent the message, which is in the message who the person sent the message, and explain why the message is important to you. IELTS Speaking Part 3 Why don't some people like using text messages? Have they changed much in recent decades? Why do people prefer text messages over phone calls? Do you think modern technologies have a negative impact on communication? What do you think are some of the main differences between written communication and spoken communication? 10. Uniform you wear IELTS Speaking Part 2 Describe a uniform you have worn (such as a school or company uniform). You have to say: what it looked like when and where you should wear that uniform that paid for that uniform and explain how you felt about that uniform. IELTS Speaking Part 3 What are the advantages and disadvantages of wearing a uniform? In your country, do schools provide similar uniforms to their students? What types of professionals should wear uniforms? Do you think people wear clothes that reflect their personality? Do you think women's clothes show a greater variety of men's clothes? 11. Time when someone apologizes to you IELTS speaking part 2 Describe a time when someone apologizes to you. You have to say: when this happens, who does, who apologizes to you and explains why they apologized to you. IELTS Speaking Part 3 Which people are most likely to apologize? In what situations do you think people need (or should) apologize? What do you think of those people who don't apologize often? 12. Article that helps people improve their health IELTS Part 2 Describe an article you read in a magazine or on the Internet that can help people improve their health. You have to say: when you read it where you read it about what it is and explain why (you think) it can improve people's health. IELTS Speaking Part 3 How do you think people can become healthier? Are there any differences between the way older people and young people try to be healthy? Do schools in your country have any special activities to improve students' fitness? Do you think people in the future will do more and eat healthier than Today? 13. Travel by public transport IELTS Speaking Part 2 Describe a trip you have made by public transport. You must say: when what means of transport happens, you have taken what you did during the trip and explain how you felt during the trip. IELTS Speaking Part 3 Do you think congestion will be reduced if people can travel by public transport for free? Why do you think more and more people prefer to travel by plane? What obstacles do some local governments have to face when developing transport infrastructure? 14. Challenging thing that you have done IELTS Speaking Part 2, Describe a challenging thing that you have done. You have to say: when you did it, why did you do it, how you handled this challenge and explain why you think it's a challenge. IELTS Part 3 What challenges do young people face today? How do [young people] cope with difficult or challenging tasks? What do you think is better, to deal with these difficulties and challenges on your own, or to seek the help of others? Do you think people should be challenged? 15. Someone who has taught you to speak IELTS Part 2, describe a person who has taught you something important. You have to say: who is this person they taught you how they taught him and explains why you think what he taught is important. IELTS Part 3 In what ways can we encourage others to embrace new ideas and things (to embrace innovation)? Can you suggest how we can make children more interested in learning? Who would you say is more important for the education of a child, parents or teachers? 14. Member of Team IELTS Speaking Part 2 Describe a member of the team you know about. You have to say: what team does this person play and explain why you like IELTS Speaking Part 3 In a team, is it more important to strive for individual development or to achieve the goals of the team? Do you think it's important for children to join teams to learn to collaborate with others? Do you think disagreements between team members have a big impact on teamwork? Can you predict how teamwork can be grown in school hours? 15. Work you would not want to do IELTS Speaking Part 2, Describe the work you would not want to do. You have to say: what is the job you know about it, whether it's an easy job or a difficult job, and explain why you wouldn't want to do it. IELTS Speaking Part 3 How do you think AI (artificial intelligence) will affect people's work? What are the important factors to consider when choosing a career? This technology will cause some people to lose their jobs. How do you think we should deal with this problem? Would you move to work and live in another city? Are there often in your country people to move to other cities because of work? When young people choose their job, which you think is usually more important, the salary or Work? 16. Something exciting that IELTS says part 2 Describe something exciting you have done/Describe an exciting experience you have had. You have to say: when you did it where you were, when you did it with whom you did it, and explain why it's exciting for you. IELTS Speaking Part 3 Do people in your country spend a lot of money celebrating birthdays? Do you think it's necessary to spend a lot of money on a party? People in your country usually go out to celebrate traditional festivals with other people? 17. You are not allowed to use IELTS IELTS Speaking Part 2 Describe a time when you cannot use your mobile phone. You have to say: where was that when you were doing at that point when it was and explain why you couldn't use your mobile phone. IELTS Speaking Part 3 Do you think there should be rules for the use of mobile phones? What do you think of primary school students who own a mobile phone? What (minimum) age do you think is suitable for owning a mobile phone? 18. Time-prevented IELTS Speaking Part 2 Describe the time when time prevents you from doing anything. You have to say: what is your plan, what is the time you hope for what happened and explain how you felt when you needed to change your plans. IELTS Speaking Part 3, people in your country are happy to talk about the weather as a small chat when meeting each other? What types of weather do people prefer (in your country) cold or hot weather? What people are most interested in the weather? Are weather forecasts usually accurate? 19. Something hard to use IELTS Speaking part 2 Describe something you bought, which is difficult to use at first. You need to say: what is it like why you bought it how you use it and explain why it is difficult to use at first. IELTS Speaking Part 3 Do you often buy new things? Would you say that advertising makes people buy more news than if there was no advertising? Do you think old people have difficulty using certain things that young people don't? IELTS Speaking Cue Card themes for 2020 Here are some talking replica cards for making IELTS in 2020: Talk about a famous female leader. Describe a photo in your home. Talk about a business you want to open. Describe a case when you wake up early. Talk about a movie you want to discuss with your friends. Describe a moment when you met someone. Let's talk about an ad you remember. Describe your favorite food. Let's talk about our hometown. A time when you moved to a new house or a new school. Important links: How to sign up for IELTS? Frequently asked questions about IELTS topics or questions are not time-bound. IELTS questions can come from a wide range of topics. IELTS has websites that have questions to answer in Part 1 and Part 2 with answers. You can also visit the website: the website: questions and answers on various speaking topics. These questions are based on Jan-May tests conducted in 2020. There may be new questions. You can find them on: ieltsmaterial.com update will be posted soon. In addition, we have an e-book with the latest questions and answers. You can buy them by visiting: ieltsmaterial.com ieltsmaterial.com