Course Description

This course is intended for brokers in California who act as supervising brokers. It examines the different tools a supervising broker needs to know to be an effective supervising broker, including trust accounting, disclosures and relationships, and how to create an effective policy and procedures manual that both instructs salespeople of their obligations and teaches them how to effectively perform their job while ensuring the public is protected. Completion of this course will help to ensure that you meet the Management and Supervision Requirement, a three-hour continuing education course in managing real estate offices and supervising real estate activities.

Additional School Exam Policies and Procedures

Although course materials may be printed for student reference, final exams are delivered through the system and may not be downloaded or printed. The course final exam is a closed-book exam. Upon time expiration, the exam is graded as-is, and the student will receive the results immediately. If you do not pass the first exam attempt, you may review the course again and make a second attempt, but you will not get credit for the course until you successfully pass the exam. The final exam questions are randomly selected from a pool of questions. After a second failed attempt you will be re-enrolled in the course and you will need to go through the course again and pass the course final exam in order to receive credit.

DRE Disclaimer Statement

This course is approved for continuing education credit by the California Department of Real Estate. However, this approval does not constitute an endorsement of the views or opinions which are expressed by the course sponsor, instructors, authors, or lecturers.

Course Identification Statement

Participants shall present one of the following forms of identification immediately before the administration of the final exam:

- A current California driver's license.
- A current identification card described in Section 13000 of the California Vehicle Code
- Any identification of the participant issued by a governmental agency or a recognized real estate related trade organization within the immediately preceding five years which bears a photograph, signature and identification number of the participant.

Examination Regulatory Notes

- Participants taking a correspondence offering or package of offerings shall be limited to completion of final examinations for a maximum of fifteen (15) credit hours during any one 24-hour period. A participant shall not be granted access to additional segments of the final examination for offerings or a package of offerings that exceed fifteen (15) credit hours until the appropriate 24-hour period has elapsed.
- An offering may include a provision for one retaking of a different final examination by a participant who failed the original examination provided the questions in the re-examination are different questions than those contained in the original examination. A participant who fails the re-examination cannot receive credit for the course. Such a participant is not barred from enrolling in and completing the same course, but must retake the course and pass the final examination with a score of 70% or better to receive credit.

- Questions used in a final examination shall not duplicate any more than 10% of questions used in any other quiz or examination utilized during the presentation of the course.
- Final examinations for CE courses consisting only of multiple choice, true/false and/or fill-in the blank questions shall be limited to a maximum of 10% true/false questions.
- Time calculations for a final examination consisting of multiple choice, true/false and/or fill-in the blank questions should be allowed a maximum amount of one (1) minute per question. The minimum number of questions for a continuing education final examination consisting only of multiple choice, true/false and/or fill-in the blank questions is:

•	1 credit hour = 5	19-23 credit hours = 50
	2 credit hours = 10	4-27 credit hours = 60
	3-5 credit hours = 15	28-31 credit hours = 70
	6-8 credit hours = 20	32-35 credit hours = 80
	9-11 credit hours = 25	6-39 credit hours = 90
	12-14 credit hours = 30	40 credit hours and over = 100
	15-18 credit hours = 40	questions

Evaluation & Completion Instructions

Once a course final exam has been passed, a survey page will be displayed. This survey was developed by our school and helps us to monitor the quality of our courses to ensure we offer education that is consistent with the online courses we present.

Recordkeeping

Completion results are kept both in an online database and in our office at 218 Liberty Street, Warren, PA 16365 for a minimum of five (5) years. Our database records are logged to show all relevant information for each student and are backed up nightly, weekly and monthly to ensure we never lose information regarding students certificates, etc. Upon passing the course final exam, a course completion certificate will be issued to the student indicating that the student has successfully completed the course. Certificates of completion will be posted directly to the “ student dashboard.
