Chibi moon transformation crystal

Comments Share Moon Prism Power, Makeup is the 1st team Chibiusa Tsukino used to transform into sailor chibi moon. It was first used in episode 104 of the anime and law 25 manga. Anime Chibiusa's transformation into his usual Sailor form had two versions, both of which were shorter and less comprehensive than Usagi's regular transformation into Sailor Moon. In the first version, chibiusa compact and white hearts disappear into the pink heart in a compact, and at the top you are crown gems. Then Chibiusa is shown standing at the end of sailor moon posing in the first and second transformation of Sailor Moon. Pink hearts emerge from the compact and spin back into a compact one, while giving sailor Chibi Moon his entire sailor uniform. The second version first featured Sailor Moon S: The Movie and then shown only in episode 129, Chibiusa's compact scene from the first transformation is shown. In a second, the entire screen is pink until the pink and red hearts glid across the screen, splitting the screen into two parts and showing Chibiusa's eyes. The screen then splits into two parts, showing the whole Chibiusa. Chibiusa jumps into the air as the pink worm swirls around her body, giving her her leotard, and makes her look older. Then she turns back, giving her the rest of her uniform. Then she pops back to the screen as the heart give her a choker, leathery covers, tiara, and choker pendant. Then she assumes a different finishing posturing than in the first version. Crystal Gallery Sailor Chibi Moon final poses anime.
