

via680® Privacy Policy

Updated 1/1/2018

Our Commitment to Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. Via680® (aka Ving) does not sell, rent or lease its customer lists to third parties.

EU Privacy Shield

Via680, LLC complies with the EU-US Privacy Shield Framework as set forth by the US Department of Commerce regarding the collection, use, and retention of personal information from European Union member countries. Via680, LLC has certified that it adheres to the Privacy Shield Principles of notice, choice, accountability for onward transfer, security, data integrity, and purpose limitation, access, recourse, enforcement and liability. To learn more about the Privacy Shield Program, and to view our certification page, please visit <http://www.privacyshield.gov/>.

The Information We Collect:

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted on the Ving® website (vingapp.com, vingnow.com, go.vingapp.com and via680.com). The type of personal information required on the sites is limited to your email address, name and industry type/role (optional). You may edit your Ving Account Information, including your personal profile through your user profile.

The Way We Use Information:

- “via680 utilizes 3rd party tools in order to assist users with items such as: personalized experiences, facilitation of product usage, and enforcement of terms of service. This data is -and always will be - solely used by via680.
- In cases of onward transfer to third parties of data of EU individuals received pursuant to the EU-US Privacy Shield, via680 is potentially liable.
- From time-to-time our site requests information via surveys and assessments. Participation in these surveys or contests is completely voluntary unless otherwise specified, and you may choose whether or not to participate and therefore disclose certain information. Survey information will be used for purposes of monitoring or improving the use and satisfaction of this site and the services provided to you by via680 and its partner organizations.
- To respond to subpoenas, court orders, or legal process, or to establish or exercise our legal rights or defend against legal claims.
- If we believe it is necessary to share information in order to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, situations involving potential threats to the physical safety of any person, violations of via680’s Terms and Conditions of Use, or as otherwise required by law.
- We also may be required to disclose an individual’s personal information in response to a lawful request by public authorities, including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements.
- We will transfer information about you if via680 is acquired by or merged with another company. We will post a notice on our site before this occurs and/or if a new privacy policy will be applicable as a result.
- Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

Google User Data

We use your email as your Ving username, your first and last name is used to complete your Ving profile, and our read only access to your Google contacts are used to prepopulate your Ving contact list.

Cookies, Web Beacons, and Shared Objects:

- Cookies: We use “cookies” on these sites. A cookie is a piece of data stored on a site visitor’s hard drive to help us improve your access to our site and identify repeat visitors to our site. Usage of a cookie is in no way linked to any personally identifiable information on our site.
- Web beacons, also known as clear GIFs or single-pixel GIFs, are small image files that we may place on Web pages and within certain email. Working in conjunction with cookies, Web beacons allow us to accurately count the number of unique users who have visited a specific page and the number of times those pages are displayed. We can also use Web beacons to let us know how many people opened certain types of email. This information is only collected in aggregate form and will not be linked to your personally identifiable information. Keep in mind that any image file on a Web page can act as a Web beacon.
- Shared Objects are used to store data on your computer in much the same way that data is stored in a cookie created through a web browser. Various uses of Shared Objects include remembering a user’s favorite color, or the last frame of a video watched. The data can only be read by files originating from the same domain that created the Shared Object. Shared Objects cannot remember a user’s e-mail address or other personal information unless they willingly provide such information.

Ving uses cookies, Web beacons, and Shared Objects to enable us to know which services you are currently signed for or to offer you all the services and functionality that we do. Cookies enable us to identify you upon login so you are taken to the correct sub web site with the corresponding set of controls.

Our Commitment to Data Security:

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Our Commitment to Children’s Privacy:

Protecting the privacy of the very young is especially important. For that reason, no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.

How You Can Access or Correct Your Information:

- You can access all your personally identifiable information that we collect online and maintain by viewing your Ving profile. We use this procedure to better safeguard your information.
- You can correct factual errors in your personally identifiable information by changing your profile or sending us a request that credibly shows error.
- To protect your privacy and security, we will also take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.
