▲ Worship Song
Shout to the Lord (see pages 6-7 for music)

My Jesus, my Savior, Lord there is none like You;
All of my days I want to praise the wonders of Your mighty love.
My comfort, my shelter, tower of refuge and strength;
Let every breath, all that I am, never cease to worship You.
Shout to the Lord, all the earth, let us sing. Power and majesty, praise to the King.
Mountains bow down and the seas will roar at the sound of Your name.
I sing for joy at the work of Your hands, forever I’ll love You, forever I’ll stand,
Nothing compares to the promise I have in You.

Worship Song
In Christ Alone (see page 8 for music)

In Christ alone my hope is found, He is my light, my strength my song;
This Cornerstone, this solid ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace, when fears are stilled, when strivings cease.
My comforter, my All in all, here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone, Who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe!
This gift of love and righteousness, scorned by the ones He came to save.
‘Till on the cross as Jesus died, the wrath of God was satisfied.
For every sin on Him was laid; here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground His body lay, Light of the world, by darkness slain;
Then, bursting forth in glorious day, up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory, sin’s curse has lost its grip on me;
For I am His and He is mine, bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life, no fear in death, this is the power of Christ in me;
From life’s first cry to final breath, Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man, can ever pluck me from His hand;
‘Till He returns or calls me home, here in the power of Christ I’ll stand!

READ: Matthew 9:9-13

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, ‘Follow me.’ And he got up and followed him.

And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax-collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, ‘Why does your teacher eat with tax-collectors and sinners?’ But when he heard this, he said, ‘Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, “I desire mercy, not sacrifice.” For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.’

REFLECT: What stands out to you in this passage?

What differences do you see between Matthew and the Pharisees?

Whom do you relate to most and why?

How does Jesus’ response to the Pharisees speak to you?

What might it look like for you to “learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice’”?

RESPOND: How is God speaking to you in this passage?

REQUEST: Share whatever needs you are experiencing and pray for one another.

You are invited to the Local Missions Fair, TODAY, from 8:30 am – 12:30 pm, located in the Great Hall. All are invited to enjoy the food and there will be balloons for the children. Visit the displays and find out how you can serve in your community.

Here is one way that you can serve: Join the CROP Hunger Walk! The Presbyterian Church (USA) is one of 36 denominations which fund Church World Service (CWS) through the CROP Walk. Last year, VPC raised $23,000 to help the hurricane victims and fund disaster relief, refugee resettlement, social and economic development and nourishment programs worldwide. Twenty-five percent of these funds went to help local people in need through CHO. The CROP Walk is TODAY, at 2 pm., a round-trip walk of 3.5 miles (5K) through Vienna from VPC. According to CWS, 850 million people in the world suffer from hunger, and every 5 seconds a child dies from a hunger-related cause. Won’t you help? Contact Betty Rahal, 703.281.4032 or viennacropwalk@yahoo.com, to sign up to walk or to give.

Habitat for Humanity of Northern Virginia has, as its main goal, to eliminate poverty and homelessness from the face of the earth by building adequate and basic housing. In Northern Virginia the motto is “We build more than homes, we transform lives.” The lives transformed are both the families who commit to 500 hours of sweat equity in the construction of their home, and the volunteers who work beside them on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

By 2010, Habitat hopes to have accomplished its goal of building 49 more homes which will bring our total to 100 homes since we began in Northern Virginia.

Volunteers may serve in many capacities: By helping on the construction site, making lunches for volunteers, helping out in our ReStore in Alexandria or visiting www.habitatnova.org for other volunteer opportunities.
