Call to Worship
Come, Now is the Time to Worship
Brian Doerksen

Come, now is the time to worship. Come, now is the time to give your heart.
Come, just as you are to worship. Come, just as you are before your God. Come.
One day ev'ry tongue will confess You are God. One day ev'ry knee will bow.
Still, the greatest treasure remains for those who gladly choose You now.

Come, now is the time to worship. Come, now is the time to give your heart.
Come, just as you are to worship. Come, just as you are before your God.
Come. Come. Come, just as you are, come. Come.

Hymn
Thousand Tongues
Arr. Dan Galbraith

O, for a thousand tongues to sing my great Redeemer's praise.
The glories of my God and King, the triumphs of His grace.
Jesus, the name that charms our fears, that bids our sorrows cease,
'Tis music in the sinner's ears, 'tis life, and health, and peace.

(chorus)
Jesus, You're the Name above all names, Jesus, Lamb of God.
Jesus, You're the King of salvation; Who was and is to come.

He breaks the pow'r of cancelled sin, He sets the pris'ner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean, His blood availed for me.
My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad the honors of Your Name.

Jesus, You're the Name above all names, Jesus, Lamb of God.
Jesus, You're the King of salvation; Who was and is to come, Who was and is to come,
Who was and is to come.

READ: Luke 13:10-17

Jesus Heals a Crippled Woman

“Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, ‘Woman, you are set free from your ailment.’ When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, ‘There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the Sabbath day.’ But the Lord answered him and said, ‘You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?’ When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.”

REFLECT: What stands out to you in this passage?

What do you think Jesus’ touch meant to the woman he healed?

What restrictions do we foolishly put on God’s work? What good deeds do we sometimes restrict because of traditions or rules?

RESPOND: What self-imposed rule or tradition do you need to modify to allow for God’s work? How can you help or comfort a person in pain this week?

REQUEST: Share one insight and a prayer request with the others in your group. Pray for one another.

Darfur, an area about the size of Texas, lies in western Sudan and borders Libya, Chad and the Central African Republic. It has only the most basic infrastructure or development. The approximately six million inhabitants of Darfur are among the poorest in Africa. They exist largely on either subsistence farming or nomadic herding. Even in good times, the Darfuri people face a very harsh and difficult life; these are not good times in Darfur. No portion of Darfur’s civilian population has been spared violence, murder, rape and torture. This scorched earth campaign by the Sudanese government against Darfur’s sedentary farming population has, by direct violence, disease and starvation, already claimed as many as 400,000 lives. It has crossed over into neighboring Chad and the Central African Republic. In all, about 2.3 million Darfuris have fled their homes and communities and now reside in a network of Internally Displaced Persons (IDP) camps in Darfur, with at least 200,000 more living in refugee camps in Chad. These refugees and IDP’s are completely dependent on the United Nations and other humanitarian organizations for their very livelihood - food, water, shelter, and health care. The people of this area are all Muslims.

Ask God to raise up prayer teams through worship and intercession.

Pray for God’s favor to be on missions agencies and humanitarian groups ministering to the people of this area.

Ask God to raise up linguists to translate the Bible
