And together we sing, ev’ryone sing.
Holy is the Lord God Almighty. The earth is filled with His glory.

May our homes be filled with dancing, may our streets be filled with joy;
May injustice bow to Jesus, as the people turn and pray.

From the mountain to the valley, hear our praises rise to You;
From the heavens to the nations, hear our singing fill the air.

May our light shine in the darkness, as we walk before the cross;
May Your glory fill the whole earth, as the water over the seas. (chorus 2x’s)
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! (sing 3x’s)
From the mountains to the valley, hear our praises rise to You;
From the heavens to the nations, hear our singing fill the air. (repeat)

Prayer of Confession and Assurance of Pardon

Lord, our God, great eternal, wonderful in glory, who keeps covenant and promises for those that love You with their whole heart, who are the Life of all, the Help of those that flee unto You, the Hope of those who cry unto You, cleanse us from our sins, secret and open; and from every thought displeasing to thy goodness, cleanse our bodies and souls, our hearts and consciences, that with a pure heart, and a clean soul, with perfect love and calm hope, we may venture confidently and fearlessly to pray unto You, through Jesus Christ our Lord. WORD-SHARE-PRAYER
For personal and small group study

READ: Ephesians 2:1-10

You were dead through the trespasses and sins in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness towards us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God— not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

REFLECT: What stands out to you in this passage?

What were you like before you became a Christian?

When did you receive the gift of God’s grace and new life?

Describe God’s grace to you?

RESPOND: Dallas Willard defines grace as “God accomplishing for you what you cannot accomplish on your own.” What are ways you see God’s grace being worked out in your life?

Where do you sense the need for God’s grace?

REQUEST: With thanksgiving, share how you see God’s grace being worked out in your life with those in your group. As a prayer request, share where you sense the need for God’s grace?

Fair trade is an organized social movement and market-based model of international commerce which promotes the payment of a fair price as well as social and environmental standards in areas related to the production of a wide variety of goods.

Fair trade’s strategic intent is to deliberately work with marginalized producers and workers in order to help them move from a position of vulnerability to security and economic self-sufficiency. It also aims at empowering them to become stakeholders in their own organizations and actively play a wider role in the global arena to achieve greater equity in international trade.

Greater Gift/SERRV International works with thousands of small-scale artisans and farmers in Africa, Asia, Latin America and other developing regions of the world by marketing their handicrafts and agricultural products. Through their work with 90 community-based organizations in 34 countries, they create economic opportunity so these producers can support their families.
