Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. MISSIONS FEATURE

Jim Larson, President, of Community for Helping Others wrote in the last newsletter:

“CHO was founded almost 40 years ago. In the nature of a community, most of the founders and early leaders are no longer involved. Similarly, there has been turnover in the membership and staff of the churches which support and make use of CHO. I am reminded of this when members of my own church ask basic questions about CHO or are found trying to cope with requests that CHO is tasked to provide for its member churches. This column, coming at the time of startup of Church Programs, provided me an opportunity to review how we came about, how we operate and how the community may best put us to work.

- Needy people naturally approach churches for help.
- Government Social Services take some time to execute their “due process” before providing ongoing help.
- CHO was created by the local church community to provide a quick and efficient “safety net” for needy people known to our churches, Social Services and other parts of the Community.
- Member churches call CHO to provide help to people who come to them looking for food, lodging or medical care. Fairfax County and other Social Service providers call to ask our help in tiding people over while they apply for longer term help. We also receive referrals from Realtors, Schools and other sources.
- CHO does not replace church organizations assigned the role of Christian help and support (i.e., Deacons); it does allow these organizations to focus on help to their own membership or in providing focused, longer range support to the Community.
- CHO provides its services in Vienna, Oakton, Merrifield and Dunn Loring. We routinely exchange referrals with our sister “safety net” organizations in adjoining parts of the county (i.e., McLean SHARE).
- Our help normally takes the form of emergency family services (payment for medical bills, fuel, rent, mortgage - normally on a one time basis), food from the Food Closet (or market coupons), clothing, furniture, transportation or Meals-on-Wheels.

As Chairman of CHO, I recognize that I need to improve our communication with member organizations. During the coming months, I plan to publish here the most current list of CHO Officers and church liaison people. In the meantime, if you are not sure who your coordinator is or would like a more detailed description of CHO, please contact us at 703.281.7614, WWW.CHO-VA.COM or me at jimclarson@cox.net.”

For VPC’s Ministry and Missions plans to go forward, we need your help in two important ways:

Our planning for next year depends on the total amount pledged by the congregation by December 31. Thanks to the 500+ individuals and families who have submitted pledges to let the church leaders know their estimated giving support for the 2008 Annual Budget. It is very important to know from the congregation what level of resources can be expected. To move forward with the plans, we need to receive approx. $300,000 in additional pledges from the congregation as soon as possible. Pledge cards are in the pew racks as well as on the Welcome Table, Sign Up Table and the Information Wall in the Gathering Space. Cards may be placed in the offering plate or mailed to the office.

</table>

We need your help to close the gap in this year’s budget! As of November 30, giving to support the 2007 church annual budget has been generous, yet is behind budget by 17%. A shortfall in this year’s funding will have direct consequences on programs and staffing. If you haven’t already fulfilled your giving, please prayerfully consider an offering today to help end the year as planned.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

UPCOMING EVENTS

Presbyterians have traditionally supported, through the Christmas Joy Offering, the unmet needs of families who have given their lives to the mission of the Presbyterian Church (PCUSA), some of them, after their retirement, others while they continue to serve. Our support also helps students at racially ethnic schools and colleges develop their gifts and find their calling. As we celebrate the birth of Jesus, may this year’s Christmas Joy Offering witness boldly to the unconditional and uncontainable love received from that baby born in Bethlehem.

The next opportunity for those choosing to become members of VPC will be on Jan 19, (8:30 am – 2:30 pm, includes lunch) and Jan 20, (11 am – 12 N) (both days). If you have questions about VPC, come on Saturday and learn more about the church. Please help us plan for your participation by calling Linda Kemple (703.938.9050) to register or with questions. Childcare is available for ages 6 and under by reservation (ext. 351) no less than 48 hours in advance. Recognition Sunday will be Feb 17.

Are you in the process of planning your wedding? We hope that one step on your way to the altar will be the Marriage Prep Classes at VPC. Held in the parlor from 11 am -12:15 pm on Sundays, Jan 6 – 27, these free sessions are required for those being married by our pastors, but are open to others also. Please call Linda Kemple, 703.938.9050 with questions, or enroll at www.viennapres.org – “on-line sign-up forms” ASAP! Next class April, 2008.

Gathering Place Quilt: A rainbow made of hundreds of fabric squares now hangs at the top of the Information Wall in the Gathering Place (outside the Great Hall). The scripture below the rainbow expresses Hope for the future. The rainbow has long been a symbol of that Hope. The rainbow is the work of the VPC Quilters, also known as the Piecemakers. The 1-1/2 foot by 12 foot quilt was started in February, 2007, and finished in early November. The quilters invite you to enjoy its beauty and its scripture message.

The next P.W. Council meeting will be Dec 18 at 9:30 am in room 203.

STUDENT MINISTRIES

Bring A Friend on Christmas Eve: During Advent, the children are being asked to think of a friend they might bring to the Christmas Eve services. Each will write their friend’s name on an ornament and hang it on the tree on the 3rd floor activity center, while committing to pray for them during Advent. On Christmas Eve, we’ll move the tree down to the narthex and children can bring their friends to collect their ornaments, or take it home for them. Please encourage your child to begin thinking of and praying for a friend. Eleanor Hay, nimickhay@aol.com.

Children’s Classes on Dec 23: On Dec 23, there will be regular classes at 9:30 and 11 am for all children Kindergarten and younger. There will also be regular classes for Bridges and Gateways children at both hours. All children in grades 1-6 will remain in the service that day.

Children’s Classes on Dec 30: On Dec 30, there will be regular classes at 9:30 and 11 am for all children Kindergarten and younger. All children in grades 1-6, including Gateways will be split into two classes (room 308/9 for 1-3 grade and room 322/3 for 4-6 grade) to watch a suitable movie and have some fun together.

Changes to these classes are being made so that many of our teachers who teach every week can have a week or two off during this busy period. Please also note that many of the Kindergarten and younger classes will combine on these dates for the same reason. Contact clare.maynard@viennapres.org with questions.

We are looking for a few parents to chaperone the High School and Middle School ski trips. If you are interested please contact Barry Hill, Liz Foskey or Kim Snyder, 703.938.9050, ext 130.

Do you believe in the power of drama as a Worship component? We’re looking for someone to help our Middle and High School students prepare dramas for Worship. Please contact Barry Hill for information, 703.938.9050, ext 130.

Do you love Contemporary Worship Music? Can you relate to worship bands like Chris Tomlin, David Crowder and Matt Redmond? We’re looking for someone to help lead a class for students on Contemporary Christian Music in Worship. If you are interested contact Barry Hill 703.938.9050, ext 155.

Sunday School will not meet on Dec 23. We will resume on Dec 30.

Middle School: Ski Trip registration is open. Join us for our last Youth Group of 2007: Christmas Movie and Game Night Friday on Dec 21, from 7-10 pm in the Underground. Bring a wrapped white elephant gift and a $5 donation for The Lamb Center. No Youth Group on Dec 28.

High School: There are still a few spaces left on the ski trip, sign up today! Last Youth Group of 2007 is TONIGHT. Join us at 6:30 pm for our annual White Elephant party. Bring a wrapped gift - the crazier the better- and a $5 donation for The Lamb Center. Youth Group will resume Jan 6.
Confirmation classes for High School students begin with an interest meeting in Jan. Watch your mail in the next few weeks for information.

CARE & SUPPORT

Christian Cancer Companions was formed a few years ago by members of VPC who were all cancer survivors and felt called to outreach to individuals newly diagnosed with cancer, letting them know there were people who had been through what they were facing. If you know someone who would benefit from this support, feel free to invite them. If you have any questions, please contact Rita Lockwood, 703.573.6168.

VPC’s Call and Care Ministry has a big mission: To extend God’s love to our entire congregation. This is being done by phoning the VPC community twice a year to say, “Hello! How are you?” There are 150 families still waiting to be placed on Call Lists. Will you help us? Contact Lisa Baltzer, 703.560.9398, lisa@thebaltzers.com.
