The Coming of the Kingdom

“Once Jesus was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, and he answered, ‘The kingdom of God is not coming with things that can be observed; nor will they say, ‘Look, here it is!’ or ‘There it is!’ For, in fact, the kingdom of God is among you.’”

REFLECT: Read this passage two or three times.

What stands out to you in this passage?

What prompted Jesus’ response?

Where is the kingdom of God?

What does that mean for our lives?

RESPOND: How will you apply one insight from this text to your own life?

REQUEST: Jot down a blessing in your life and prayer requests that you and others may have. Share blessings and prayer requests and pray for one another!

Everything Must Change!
Brian McLaren

On Mar 7 & 8, Christian author and pastor, Brian McLaren, will appear at VPC as part of an interactive, interdenominational, national speaking tour supporting his new book, Everything Must Change: Jesus, Global Crises, and a Revolution of Hope.

The book addresses two questions: What are our world’s top global crises? What does the message of Jesus say to those crises?

The format of this 24-hour “participatory experience,” which begins at 6:00 pm on Mar 7, will include new music, guided reflection, and dialogue and conversation groups about faith, art, justice, mission, spiritual formation, worship and community.

The registration fee, normally $99, is available for $79 to the VPC community through Mar 7. For information and to register, visit www.deepshift.org.

Please help! We need 50-60 people with servant hearts to support this exciting two-day event. Volunteers can help with registration, greeting, parking, hospitality, food preparation, room set-up, clean-up, and more. We will joyfully work with your available time and talents.

Please contact Ginni Richards, 703.938.9050, ext. 123 or ginni.richards@viennapres.org.

ESL for Employment

Beginning on Feb 4, VPC will host a new “ESL for Employment” evening course, and needs volunteers for this innovative pilot program. The “ESL for Employment” course is a pioneering community collaborative for 15 ESOL participants (from VPC and 3 other church ESOL programs, who have the English skills needed to launch new careers), NOVA, employers who will recruit successful graduates – and VPC volunteers. Volunteers are needed from Feb - April for specific evening class activities and as “Telephone Job Coaches” to assist program graduates in their new job search. If you want to help make a life-changing difference for participants as a one-time or regular volunteer during this course, contact Bill Browning at bbrowning99@verizon.net, or 703.281.6695.
Francis Collins: Man of Science, Man of Faith. Dr. Francis Collins, an eminent scientist, Presidential Medal of Freedom winner and head of the successful effort to map and sequence the human genome, will present a Forum on Sunday, Feb 10, from 12:30 - 2:30 pm at VPC. Dr. Collins will discuss his latest book, The Language of God: A Scientist Presents Evidence for Belief, in which he describes how science enriched his journey from atheism to Christianity.

Currently the director of the National Human Genome Research Institute at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Md., Dr. Collins became a Christian after observing the faith of his critically ill patients and reading Mere Christianity by C.S. Lewis.

The Forum will be open to the community; registration is not required. A light lunch will be available for $5.00 if ordered in advance on one of the lunch-order forms at the sign-up tables in the narthex and bookstore, or by calling the VPC r at 703.938.9050.

CARE & SUPPORT

Christian Cancer Companions was formed a few years ago by members of VPC who were all cancer survivors. These survivors felt called to outreach to individuals newly-diagnosed with cancer, letting them know there were people who had been through what they were facing. If you know of a friend or loved one who would benefit from this support, feel free to invite them. For more information please contact Rita Lockwood, 703.573.6168.

Every year, 74,715 women in Virginia face an unplanned pregnancy. Many are afraid, alone and have nowhere to turn. You can help. BIRTHMOTHERS trains volunteer friends to walk with a birth mom or a birth dad, providing one-on-one support, information and resources, so that birth parents can make the best choice for themselves and their children. Find out how you can be a part of this powerful ministry to families. BIRTHMOTHERS will be at coffee hour TODAY, in the Gathering Space or e-mail Diane Phillips at dphillips_va@yahoo.com.
