How Deep The Father’s Love For Us
Stuart Townend

See page 6 for music

How deep the Father’s love for us, how vast beyond all measure
That He should give His only Son to make a wretch His treasure.
How great the pain of searing loss. The Father turns His face away
As wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory.

Behold the Man upon a cross, my sin upon His shoulders.
Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers.
It was my sin that held Him there until it was accomplished;
His dying breath has brought me life. I know that it is finished.

I will not boast in anything: no gifts, no pow’r, no wisdom.
But I will boast in Jesus Christ: His death and resurrection.
Why should I gain from His reward? I cannot give an answer.
But this I know with all my heart: His wounds have paid my ransom.

Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus answered, “Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?” Pilate replied, “I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?” Jesus answered, “My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.” Pilate asked him, “So you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.” Pilate asked him, “What is truth?” After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, “I find no case against him.”

If you, or anyone you know, would like prayer for spiritual, emotional or physical well-being, a pastor will be available at the front of the sanctuary.
After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, “Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ just say this, ‘The Lord needs it.’” So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, “Why are you untying the colt?” They said, “The Lord needs it.” Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!” Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, order your disciples to stop.” He answered, “I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.”

LENTEN RESOLVE

Today, I’m crossing the line. I’m going God’s way. I’m living the rest of my life for God’s kingdom and God’s glory.

From this time forward, I declare Jesus Christ as Sovereign Lord and acknowledge that I am not. I commit to live as Jesus’ disciple. I promise to follow His teachings, cultivate His character and live His life of love.

From now on, I endeavor to invite the Holy Spirit to fill me and use me.

I pledge myself to this body of believers. I will resist idle gossip, stupid controversies and hurtful slander. I will thwart back-stabbing and back-biting. I promise to build up and encourage. I will speak the truth in love and hold fast to what is good. I will love extravagantly, forgive freely and live faithfully.

I will live this way until God calls me home.

Readings for Holy Week; March 16-23

Listen to God’s voice and allow Him to use the word to speak to you as you the passage slowly, prayerfully, and attentively. What do you hear God saying to you today. Take time to meditate on these words from God.

NEW HOPE – FROM COUNT DRACULA’S NEIGHBORHOOD

Did you know that one of VPC’s ministry partners is located in Transylvania? Yes, right down the road from the famous Count Dracula’s haunt (pardon the pun). New Hope Romania, led by Rei and Ramona Abrudan, works with children, youth and young adults from any and all Christian denominations throughout the country, from their base in Cluj-Napoca, a university city located in northwestern Romania.

Rei and Ramona have two teenage sons, and literally hundreds of “adopted” kids from their years of youth work. In addition to their work with New Hope, Rei is director of youth and young adult ministry at his home church in Cluj. Ramona’s ministry focuses particularly on young married couples and women who are drawn to her as a model for a life of freedom in faith.

The New Hope Romania ministry is considered the “ministry test bed” for innovative ideas coming from the Abrudans’ team, and from throughout the 6 (and soon to be 7) Eastern European countries that have New Hope national ministries. While Rei will not have time to talk about the creativity that marks the Romania ministry during his Minute for Witness time with us this morning, see him and Ramona during coffee hour if you want to explore. Ask about “Fresh Air” (“Aercurat” in Romanian), the virtual city on the Internet that New Hope runs, attracting tens of thousands of “hits” monthly from throughout Romania and far beyond...Or you might want to know more about their marriage enrichment seminars; don’t hesitate to ask!
Music in March

DON’T MISS THESE CONCERTS!

TRIUMPHANT SOUNDS OF EASTER
On Palm Sunday, our own VPC music ministry, under the direction of Lance Vining, will present the Requiem by Maurice Duruflé. Its timeless meditative spirituality, sensuous harmonies and plainsong melodies, combined with the glorious acoustic of the church sanctuary, will provide the audience with an experience they’ll not soon forget.

Performed by choir and organ, the Requiem will provide an opportunity to reflect on the historical events of Holy Week that led to the death of Jesus Christ on the cross. Featured soloists for the performance include award-winning vocalist, Danielle Talamantes. Concert is Sunday, March 16th at 7 pm. The event is free and open to the community.

U.S. ARMY CHORUS . . . and more than a dozen other men’s choruses from all over the country will be at VPC for the 2008 Intercollegiate Men's Chorus National Seminar. The opening concert on Thursday, March 27th, at 8 pm, features the Army Chorus and the Virginia Glee Club of the University of Virginia. Additional concert sessions Friday and Saturday at 3 pm and 7:30 pm. For more detailed information, please visit http://imc.weebly.com. All concert sessions will be free and open to the public.
RICO TICE IS BACK!!
2 Nights – April 14 and April 23.

SHARING THE SWEET TRUTH: Reverend Rico Tice, international evangelist from London is coming back to VPC! If you saw him last year, we’re sure you’ll want to see him again. A friend may have told you of his visit last year and if you didn’t get to see him, NOW is your opportunity.

On April 14, Rico’s presentation “The Gospel in 4 Words” will focus on a natural and engaging extension of Christianity to others. Rico will provide tools and insight on how to effectively share our faith. Then, on April 23, bring a friend, as Rico will present “The Bible on the Back of A Napkin” on who Jesus was, what his aims were, and what it means to follow him from his informal course Christianity Explored.

Both events will begin at 7:30 P.M. Childcare can be reserved by calling 703.938.9050, ext. 351, at least 48 hours in advance. If you have questions, please contact either Maria Abdullah at 703.715.0964 or Marty Thomas at 703.319.1979.

If you have not heard Rico speak, you will thoroughly enjoy his combination of humor and insight! Plan on being in attendance both nights by marking these dates on your calendar NOW!

Rico Tice is Associate Minister (Evangelism) at All Souls Church in London, England, and internationally known developer and co-author of Christianity Explored, a course that explores Jesus’ identity, mission and call. Numerous churches around the world, including VPC, have adopted the course. A former captain of his university rugby team, Reverend Tice also serves as a National Director of Christians in Sport in Great Britain.

UPCOMING EVENTS

In the spirit of Sunday morning “radical hospitality” … if you are able, would you be willing to park at one of the lots around the church, leaving the VPC parking lot open to those for whom access is a bit more challenging? Help those with disabilities, families with very young children, our seniors, and guests who aren’t familiar with VPC. Parking lot maps can be viewed at www.viennapres.org/parking.

Kathie Rawson is leaving the Finance and Operations Director church staff position that she has ably held for the past year. We thank her for serving God and this church community in the time of transition and truly appreciate the accomplishments of this past year. Please help get the word out and if you know any interested parties, please contact Dick Eagan 703.938.9050, ext, 117 or dick.eagan@viennapres.org. The position description is posted on the church website www.viennapres.org for more details.

A small group task force is gathering information. We would ask each existing group to designate someone to e-mail us at smallgroups@viennapres.org, to provide a list of members, the point person, and the focus of the group. Thanks for your help.

The Men’s Dinner will be held on April 2 in the Great Hall at 7 pm. Our speaker is Daveed Gartenstein-Ross, vice president of research at the Foundation for Defense of Democracies. He consults for a number of clients who need to be at the forefront of understanding terrorism and Islamic extremism, including the Manhattan Institute’s Center for Policing Terrorism, the Christian Broadcasting Network, and law enforcement. Please sign up in the Narthex or send an email to alarcuni1@verizon.net.

Could you use some help in parenting? Come to the Parenting seminar on April 4-5. Our speaker is Steve Cort, former VPC youth director and engaging communicator. Topics covered include: Parenting Styles, Problem Ownership, Giving Choices and Defining Parental Success. Friday night is for parents of adolescents and Saturday morning for parents of young children. Forms are available at the welcome table in the narthex, and many other places! More questions? Call Daryl at 703.938.9050 x126.

Want to get connected? Or to find out what’s going on in the life of our church community? Pick up a copy of the purple CONNECTIONS booklet at the Welcome Table or on the Gathering Space Wall. And remember, the most current version is always available at www.viennapres.org/connections.

Request from the Endowment Board: If you already have created an estate plan and have made provisions for a future gift to VPC, thank you! The Endowment Board would love to hear from you in order to recognize you and discuss the legacy gift you are providing. Please contact the Board by calling 703.938.9050 ext. 311, or by email at endowment@viennapres.org.

Are you in the process of planning your wedding? We hope that one step on your way to the altar will be the Marriage Prep classes at VPC. Held in the parlor from 11:00 – 12:15 on Sundays, April 6 – 27, these free sessions are required for those being married by our pastors, but open to others also. Please call Linda Kemple at 703.938.9050 with questions, or enroll at www.viennapres.org – “on-line sign-up forms” ASAP!.

For those of you who attended or missed the Francis Collins seminar and wish to purchase a DVD - Good News! We will be making copies available for purchase for just the cost of making the DVD. Please let Linda Kemple know who you are by calling her at 703.938.9050, ext. 100 or email her at linda.kemple@viennapres.org. We will be taking names until March 21st and then having the DVDs made. We will notify you when they arrive.

The VPC Book Discussion Group meets every 3rd Wednesday of the month, 7:30 - 8:30 pm in the parlor, to discuss both non-fiction and fiction books selected by group members. Everyone is invited! Contact: Ronniejean Irvin, 703.273.4113, or email rbirvin@cox.net.
The Library and Resource Center (LARC) is open on the second floor of the Ministry Center. We have many new audio books, several versions of the full Bible on CD’s, Boundaries small group materials, Faith Lessons materials, and Bible study series. Check out the used book cart. Come in for a free bookmark.

Sunday, 9:00 am - 11:00 am
Monday, 10:30 am - 12:30 pm
Thursday, 9:30 am -12:30 pm

Attention all Leaders of VPC Ministry Groups! We are beginning the information phase of the Open Doors...Open Hearts campaign with the goal of making sure everyone is up to date on how God is working in the life of the church and the essential purpose of the campaign. We have assembled a team of talented folks who want to bring this exciting news to your ministry group, fellowship, or Bible study. When you are contacted by one of these committed brothers or sisters, please say “Yes!” to having them give a brief presentation during one of your upcoming meetings. Thank you!

Families who were photographed by Olan Mills for the pictorial directory may pick up their copies in the office after services on March 30. Additional copies will be distributed during April, at times to be announced.

CHILDREN’S MINISTRIES

All children’s classes for Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday will continue as normal at 9:30 and 11:00am.

We are searching for summer interns in Children’s Ministries! This would be a 10-week commitment from June 2-August 10, and is geared towards college students who want a meaningful ministry experience working closely with children and volunteers. It is a paid position. Contact Daryl Wright, 703.938.9050 x126 or daryl.wright@viennapres.org, for more information.

There are many summer camps and opportunities for children at VPC during the summer months. Please go to the church website, www.viennapres.org, for more details. Registration forms can also be found on the 3rd floor. Contact clare.maynard@viennapres.org with questions.

Sacraments Classes are being offered for 3rd and 4th grade children, at 11 am, during the four Sundays in April. First communion and a reception will be held on May 4. This is a great opportunity for children to learn about communion, and to consider their readiness to participate. Registrations forms can be found on the 3rd floor, or email clare.maynard@viennapres.org.

Children’s Ministries Administrative Position: Children’s Ministries is seeking an administrative assistant for up to 20 hours per week. The position requires someone with a heart for children, and great administrative/organizational and computer skills. Hours to be agreed - probably 4 hours 5 days a week, or 5 hours 4 days a week. Contact clare.maynard@viennapres.org for a job description. Closing date for applications is April 11th.

One Great Hour of Sharing: Parents, please help your child return their fish money bank by Sunday, March 30. Contact Eleanor Hay at nimickhay@aol.com with questions.

STUDENT MINISTRIES

No Sunday School March 16 or 23. Enjoy services with your friends and family. Youth Sunday is coming April 13th. Sign ups available March 30th. Students need to be at all 3 services. The 30- Hour Famine has been rescheduled for April 4-5. Check out www.vpcstudents.org for upcoming events.

High School: No Youth Group March 16 or 23. Enjoy Spring Break! We’ll see you back in the Underground on March 30.

Middle School: Enjoy your Spring Break! No Youth group on March 21. Come back and see us in the Underground on March 28.
ANNOUNCEMENTS

CARE & SUPPORT

Christian Cancer Companions was formed a few years ago by members of VPC who were all cancer survivors. These survivors felt called to outreach to individuals newly diagnosed with cancer, letting them know there were people who had been through what they were facing. If you know of a friend or loved one who would benefit from this support, feel free to invite them. If you have any questions, please contact Rita Lockwood for more information, 703.573.6168.

Passages, a program for people experiencing the pain of separation or divorce, offering an initial path towards recovery, will begin a new series on April 3, 2008, for ten weeks on Thursdays, 7 to 9 pm. Informational brochures are available on the wall in the Gathering Space or contact Romey McPherson at passages@viennapres.org.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Our Daily Bread (ODB) is a volunteer-based organization focused on easing the plight of low income residents in Fairfax County. Pick up your bag today and return them March 23 or March 30. For more information contact Sheila.Breuer@viennapres.org.

Are you a professional in the fields of Education and Child Development, Accounting and Financial Services, Health Care, or Information Technology? VPC’s new ESOL for Employment class needs career information on these most-desired fields! Your information can help our 19 participants transform their families’ lives and helps employers tap into new sources of entry-level talent. Email your field and contact information to Bill Browning at bbrowning99@verizon.net, or call him at 703.281.6695.

Bethany Women’s Center is a shelter for the homeless which regularly needs our food support. VPC has provided meals twice a month for over 20 years. The easy-to-prepare recipes and a sign-up sheet are available on the bulletin board in the narthex. Please sign-up so that we can continue the wonderful support that we have given Bethany Women’s Center. Please call Cindy Alls, 703.222.3657, with any questions.

Drivers are needed to deliver meals to the Bethany Women’s Center located at 1333 N Street, Washington, D.C. Deliveries can be made between Tuesday-Friday (depending on your schedule) on scheduled weeks. Drivers need to remove food from the VPC freezer marked for BWC and drop off at the center. Please call Cindy Alls, 703.222.3657, with any questions.

More service opportunities listed at www.viennapres.org/connections.

STUDY OPPORTUNITIES

You are invited to join the Thursday Morning Bible Study as we do Ray Vander Laan’s Faith Lessons: The Death and Resurrection of the Messiah. Faith Lessons is an in-depth video tour of the buried, distant, or otherwise forgotten places where the stories of the Bible actually happened. We meet from 9:30-11:15 am on Thursday mornings in the lower level, Room L1, 3, 5 Please e-mail Chris Chun if you have any questions at chrischun58@aol.com.

Young Adult study: Thursday evenings, 7 pm. Come out for this not-so-normal six-week study during Lent. This will be a co-ed, open study (that means come whenever you want) to talk about issues of faith, work and justice. Bring a Bible if you have one and an open mind and heart to discuss what the Kingdom of God is all about. Group facilitator will be Kelly Gould. To get directions or if you have any questions, kelly.gould@viennapres.org.
