Hymn
God of Our Fathers, Whose Almighty Hand
NATIONAL HYMN

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise

Thy love divine hath led us in the past;
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
Be Thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay;
Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

From war’s alarms, from deadly pestilence,
Be Thy strong arm our ever sure defense;
Thy true religion in our hearts increase;
Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine.

1. God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
   Trumpets may be played
   Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
   Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
   Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

2. Thy love divine hath led us in the past;
   In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
   Be Thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay;
   Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

3. From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
   Be Thy strong arm our ever sure defense;
   Thy true religion in our hearts increase;
   Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

4. Refresh Thy people on their toil-some way,
   Lead us from night to never-ending day;

“Tornadoes in the United States, a cyclone in Myanmar, and an earthquake in China — all within the past few weeks and all with deadly and devastating outcomes. Thousands upon thousands of people have lost their lives. Literally millions have been affected directly and are at ongoing risk for diseases and other adversities in the aftermath.

To have one such disaster is overwhelming; to have so many in such a short period of time is beyond comprehension.

The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is responding to these disasters in several ways by working with our overseas church partners, as well as Presbyteries and congregations here at home, to offer immediate, on-the-ground help, and make preparations for long-term assistance.

Please join us in prayer for the countless people affected by these disasters: Those killed or injured and their families, those who await word on the missing, those left homeless, on-site rescue workers, medical personnel, chaplains and pastors, congregations, relief agencies, government officials, and so many more.

Explanations are impossible and words themselves seem so difficult to come by when such heart-wrenching tragedies happen. Yet, it is through the words of the Psalmist that we are reminded of the constant and abiding presence of God:

“God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore, we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea; though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble with its tumult....”

“Be still, and know that I am God....”

“The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.” (Ps. 46, selected)

“May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ, which passes all understanding, be with you.”

Written by General Assembly Stated Clerk Clifton Kirkpatrick and General Assembly Council Executive Director Linda Bryant Valentine
