Above All             LeBlanc and Baloche

Above all powers, above all kings,
Above all nature and all created things.
Above all wisdom and all the ways of man,
You were here before the world began.

Above all kingdoms, above all thrones,
Above all wonders the world has ever known.
Above all wealth, and treasure of the earth,
There's no way to measure what You're worth.

Crucified, laid behind a stone.
You lived to die, rejected and alone.
Like a rose trampled on the ground
You took the fall and thought of me above all. (repeat all)
Heidelberg Catechism, Question #1
What is thy only comfort in life and death?

That I with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Savior Jesus Christ; who, with his precious blood, hath fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me that without the will of my heavenly Father, not a hair can fall from my head; yea, that all things must be subservient to my salvation, and therefore, by his Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me sincerely willing and ready, henceforth, to live unto him.

Worship Song
Ancient Words

Holy words long preserved for our walk in this world;
They resound with God's own heart, O let the ancient words impart;

Words of life, words of hope, give us strength help us cope;
In this world where'er we roam, ancient words will guide us home.

(Chorus)
Ancient words, ever true, changing me, changing you;
We have come with open hearts, O let the ancient words impart.

Holy words of our faith handed down to this age,
Came to us through sacrifice; O, heed the faithful words of Christ;

Holy words long preserved for our walk in this world;
The resound with God's own heart; O let the ancient words impart. (chorus)

We have come with open hearts, O let the ancient words impart.

Prayer of Confession and Assurance of Pardon

God of mercy, we confess that the faith we profess and the ancient words we believe are not always reflected in the way we live our lives. You have called us to run this race of life in a manner that is worthy of our calling, but we are prone to wander, forgetting that we belong to you. We seek comfort and ease over your holy presence. When life is demanding, we are tempted to give up or simply push you to the margins. Forgive us we pray, for the sake of Jesus, in whose name we pray.

If you, or anyone you know, would like prayer for spiritual, emotional or physical well-being, a pastor will be available at the front of the sanctuary.

For rest!
Zelienople, Pennsylvania - Andrew Swope, GMU senior, and 9 other participants embarked from PA to Wyoming not knowing what to expect other than the fact they were going to be in the woods for about 6 weeks with nothing but 90lb backpacks and mountains ahead of them. Little did they know the trials, challenges, and amazing experiences that were in store! Here is Andrew’s thoughts on his Leadership and Discipleship in the Wilderness (LDW) trip:

“Going into this trip I wanted to make an intentional effort to see the bigger picture of why I was out there and take time to be still and listen to what God wanted to do with me. Through the snow, the mountains, and the general effort that it took to live in a wilderness environment, I think that I was able to create the space for just that.

One major thing that I feel I was able to bring back from this trip is a better perspective on servant leadership. In order to lead others I need to first allow God to lead me. I really am happy that I invested the time to participate in this once in a lifetime experience of LDW!”

Prayer Requests:
- Praise for our Wednesday discipleship prayer and study time with 6 college interns. We have had a great few weeks learning, growing, and serving together.
- For continued partnership between Christian organizations including the details of planning a VERITAS Forum at GMU in the Fall.
- For our CCO leadership team composed of students interested in starting new initiatives with Sports, prayer, athletics, families, commuter, and music/theater outreach.
- For students as they prepare to transition into the fall semester, especially for first year students beginning a new chapter!
- For rest and joy as I enter my 4th yr,

Georgian Bay, Canada - Adrian Zwarz’i, GMU senior, shares a brief description of her experience kayaking with a purpose:

“I stood there barefoot on the edge of the island as the sun’s last light silhouetted the scraggly pines against a deep blue sky. The moon had already risen, the waves quietly lapped the rocks, and I stood there feeling incredibly small. Kind of lost in the wide world that surrounded me. I stood there on that island, one of the many that are scattered throughout the Georgian Bay in Canada, and marveled at the beauty of it all.

I stood there as a product of a question poised over coffee. “You kayak?” Indeed I did. And luckily enough for me, so does the CCO. As a part of their leadership and Discipleship in the Wilderness, I was privileged enough to spend some time with eleven other people paddling, camping, waiting out lightning storms, and holding discussions on what godly wisdom looked like and what it meant to flourish in the moment when looking toward the future. It was a refreshing experience that reminded me of God’s spectacular creativity that can be found in the wilderness and in the people around me. And I feel blessed to be able to stand there on a big rock in the middle of a big lake and be reminded of my size in the world, but also His love regardless of my size.”
