Days of Elijah                   Robin Mark

These are the days of Elijah, declaring the Word of the Lord;
And these are the days of Your servant, Moses, righteousness being restored;
And though these are days of great trials, of famine and darkness and sword;
Still we are the voice in the desert crying, “Prepare ye the way of the Lord.”

(chorus)
Behold He comes, riding on the clouds, shining like the sun at the trumpet call;
Lift your voice, it’s the year of Jubilee, and out of Zion’s hill salvation comes.

And these are the day of Ezekiel, the dry bones becoming as flesh;
And these are the days of Your servant, David, re-building a temple of praise;
And these are the days of the harvest, the fields are as white in the world;
And we are the laborers in Your vineyard, declaring the Word of the Lord. (chorus)

There’s no god like Jehovah,
There’s no god like Jehovah;
There’s no god like Jehovah,
There’s no god like Jehovah. (repeat 2x’s)

Behold He comes, riding on the clouds, shining like the sun at the trumpet call;
Lift your voice, it’s the year of Jubilee, and out of Zion’s hill salvation comes.

Hymn                              Getty & Townend
In Christ Alone

In Christ alone my hope is found, He is my Light, my strength, my song;
This Cornerstone, this solid ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace, when fears are stilled, when strivings cease.
My Comforter, my All in all, here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone, Who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe!
This gift of love and righteousness, scorned by the ones He came to save.
'Till on the cross as Jesus died, the wrath of God was satisfied.
For ev'ry sin on Him was laid; here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground His body lay, Light of the world, by darkness slain;
Then, bursting forth in glorious day, up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory, sin’s curse has lost its grip on me;
For I am His and He is mine, bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life, no fear in death, this is the power of Christ in me;
From life’s first cry to final breath, Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man, can ever pluck me from His hand;
‘Till He returns or calls me home, here in the power of Christ I’ll stand.

Many of you have met Oleg and his wife or heard Oleg give a Minute for Witness. So, when he wrote and asked for help, I told him we would provide an opportunity for the congregation to reach out to the people of Moldova.

Sheila Breuer, Director of Missions

Late July and early August were devastating for Moldova, the poorest country in Europe. Flooding caused thousands of people to evacuate their homes and hundreds of towns were under water. People lost their crops and are lacking food, water, clothes and shelter. New Hope is able to help in the area of “Food Bags.” Just $25 will help a family survive and provide enough food for one week. All donations should be sent through New Hope International in Colorado Springs www.newhopeinternational.com, 1.800.297.9591 and reference “Moldova Flood Relief” (or you can designate on your VPC envelope or on your check, Moldova Flood Relief. The money will be used to purchase food then distributed by Oleg Reutki through youth group community outreach projects. Please pray that the message of these food bags will convey that “Jesus Cares” and be Christ’s hand extended in a critical time of need.

“Discover Your Role in God’s Great Epic Drama”
A personal reflection from Frank Kifer, VPC member for 21 years

“Last summer, along with 2000 other men, I was given an opportunity—similar to what you are being offered here at VPC – to hear Dan Allender in person. Years earlier I had read and appreciated a number of his books, and thus, I came with an eagerness to hear him in person.

To be honest I had pictured him as a possible be-speckled crusty academic and therefore was unprepared when what looked like a larger-than-life NBA player walked to the podium. Right off, his engaging, humorous and entertaining stories, relating his own “life story” captivated me from the start. Through the fascinating medium of storytelling, he challenged us men to be daring enough to see God’s uncanny, behind-the-scenes inter-workings throughout our childhood, adolescent and adult life experiences.

Somehow Dan Allender enabled each of us to vividly recall our own joyful, safe feelings elicited from our individual childhoods, as well as to remember our confusing and frustrating painful losses of adolescence and even adulthood. He showed us how all of these experiences inevitably fit into recurring themes and repetitious patterns and were used to form us into the adults and parents we have become today. We left his seminar with a certain comfort and an exhilaration in seeing God’s Personal Touch throughout our lives. Allender had an engaging and stimulating way of giving us a new hope that God’s Desire is to actually orchestrate all the joys, the mistakes, the disappointments and struggles within our individual “life stories” as a part of His far more adventuresome and meaningful “Larger Story” – a Great Epic Drama, of which He wants us to have a significant role. We discovered that God is a lot wilder, riskier, daring, playful, concerned, involved and wiser than we can imagine!

VPC is bringing to you this life-changing opportunity! I shall be there with my wife, family and friends. Email me if you have any questions at judithck@earthlink.net. Don’t you dare miss this. Register today!”

- Frank Kifer
