Welcome

Worship Song
Wonderful Cross
Watts, Tomlin, Walt

When I survey the wonderous cross On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.

See, from His head, His hands, His feet, Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e’er such love and sorrow meet, Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Chorus:
O the wonderful cross, O the wonderful cross bids me come and die and find that I may truly live.
O the wonderful cross, O the wonderful cross: all who gather here by grace draw near and bless Your name.

Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were an offering far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my soul, my life, my all. (chorus)

Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my soul, my life, my all. (chorus)

Psalm 23                       Townend

The Lord’s my Shepherd, I’ll not want. He makes me lie in pastures green.
He leads me by the still, still waters, His goodness restores my soul.

Chorus:
And I will trust in You alone, and I will trust in You alone;
For Your endless mercy follows me, your goodness will lead me home.

He guides my ways in righteousness, and He anoints my head with oil;
And my cup, it overflows with joy, I feast on His pure delights. (chorus)

And though I walk the darkest path, I will not fear the evil one;
For You are with me, and Your rod and staff are the comfort I need to know. (chorus)

Prelude
Agnus Dei (Lamb of God)

This composition remains one of the most often performed pieces by new-age saxophonist Paul Winter, brother of VPC’s Diane Winter Pyles. It was recorded in 1983 with pipe organ accompaniment at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City, where Halley was music director at the time. British-born Halley serves as Director of Music at St. George’s Anglican Church in Halifax, Nova Scotia. He recently made an arrangement of this piece for sacred use, adding the Latin Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) text from the Christian mass (for 4-part choir and organ).

With the New Year comes the opportunity and obligation to support VPC’s PC(USA) denominational affiliation. The per capita fee this year is $31 per member. If there are multiple VPC members in your household please calculate accordingly.

Thank you for supporting our commitment to strengthen our PC(USA) relationship. To facilitate proper application of this fee, please use the separate per capita envelope provided in the box of offering envelopes or write “Per Capita” and your envelope number on your check. We look forward to sharing Per Capita Q&As over the next weeks to help everyone’s understanding of this important payment.

Question: What is Per Capita?
Answer: Per Capita is the designated dollar amount that is asked of each member of the Presbyterian Church (USA) as a yearly voluntary contribution. Per Capita is collected by the Presbytery.

Question: Is Per Capita the same as Mission Giving?
Answer: Per Capita is NOT MISSION GIVING. Per Capita is distinguished from mission giving in that it is operational money needed to keep the three governing bodies of our church functional. The three governing bodies and the amount received from each member’s fee are as follows: General Assembly ($6.15); Synod of the Mid Atlantic ($1.45); and National Capital Presbytery ($23.40).
2009 Sacraments Class

The Sacraments Class is provided for third and fourth graders to help them learn about the Sacraments of baptism and communion. Through this series of four classes the children (and their parents) take time to think about their beliefs, and consider their readiness to participate in communion with the congregation. As part of this process, children who have not been baptized as infants are also baptized.

This year, the subjects for child and parent classes have been, Grace, Signs and Symbols, Baptism, Meals and Sacrifices (Communion).

The bread used for communion this morning was baked by the families taking part in this year’s Sacraments classes.

I would like to thank the many teachers and assistants who have helped out this year. My particular thanks go to Beth Duff and John Hermle, who led the children’s classes each week.

Clare Maynard, Director of Children’s Ministries
