Majestic

Oh Lord, Our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth
Oh Lord, Our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth
The heavens declare Your greatness; The oceans cry out to You
The mountains, they bow down before You; So I'll join with the earth and I'll give my praise to You

Oh Lord, Our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth
Oh Lord, Our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth
The heavens declare Your greatness; The oceans cry out to You
The mountains, they bow down before You; So I'll join with the earth and I'll sing...
The heavens declare Your greatness; The oceans cry out to You
The mountains, they bow down before You; So I'll join with the earth and I'll give my praise to You

And I will worship You; I will worship You
I will worship You (I will worship You, Oh God); I will worship You
We will worship You (We will worship You, Oh God); We will worship You

The heavens declare Your greatness; The oceans cry out to You
The mountains, they bow down before You; So I'll join with the earth and I'll sing...
The heavens declare Your greatness; The oceans cry out to You
The mountains, they bow down before You; So I'll join with the earth and I'll give my praise to You
So I'll join with the earth and I'll give my praise to You
So I'll join with the earth and I'll give my praise to You

Prayer of Adoration

Hymn #108

Christ Is Alive!

Christ is alive! Let Christians sing. The cross stands empty to the sky.
Let streets and homes with praises ring. Love, drowned in death, shall never die.

Christ is alive! No longer bound to distant years in Palestine,
But saving, healing, here and now, and touching every place and time.

Not throned afar, remotely high, untouched unmoved by human plains,
But daily, in the midst of life, Our savior in the God-head reigns.

In every insult, rift, and war, where color scorn, or wealth divide,
Christ suffers still, yet loves the more, and lives, where even hope has died.

Christ is alive, and come to bring till earth and sky and ocean ring.
Good news to this and every age, with joy, with justice, love, and praise.

Wonderful Cross

Watts, Tomlin, Walt

When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e’er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Chorus:
O the wonderful cross, O the wonderful cross bids me come and die
And find that I may truly live.
O the wonderful cross, O the wonderful cross: all who gather here
By grace draw near and bless Your name.

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all. (Chorus)

Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all. (Chorus)

Merciful God, we pray for all victims and survivors of abuse. We pray for those among us in our church family; for those now young men and women who suffered pain here at VPC -- sexual, emotional, or spiritual damage. We pray for all exploited men, women, boys and girls around the world. Assure them of Your never-failing presence and Your complete love of them. Help us to incarnate Your love and hope, Your justice and mercy. God, You are our Sanctuary and Shepherd. Bring healing through Your Easter Life! AMEN.

Abuse is real. It happens. It happened here.

”Where was God?”

Abuse is a shattering, isolating experience that can fuel the most basic and difficult questions about God. Survivors, families, and friends may wonder, if God is a loving and powerful god, why did this happen?

Genesis declares that God created the world good. Evil appeared in paradise to thwart God’s good intentions. Being presented with the reality of abuse has a way of ripping the veneer off life.

We don’t minister in a rosy world.

God never promises Christians will live trouble free lives. Sometimes the wicked prosper and the righteous suffer. God doesn’t protect us from trouble; He protects us in trouble…
